ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On August 26, 2002, we entered into a Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") with Electronic Trading Systems Corporation ("ETS"), the Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. ("CME") and the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago ("CBOT") to resolve the litigation related to the Wagner Patent (United States Patent No. 4,903,201). The Wagner Patent deals with automated futures trading systems in which transactions are completed by a computerized matching of bids and offers of futures contracts on an electronic platform.

Under the terms of the Agreement, CME and CBOT will each pay $15 million to us as a fully paid up license. Each $15 million payment will include $5 million, payable within 30 business days of August 26, 2002, and $2 million per year until 2007. We will recognize these payments, over the remaining life of the Wagner Patent, under the caption "Software solution fees from unrelated parties" in our consolidated statements of operations. The Wagner Patent expires in February 2007. As part of the Agreement, all parties will be released from the legal claims brought against each other without admitting liability on the part of any party. We may be paying ETS up to $5,750,000 over time out of the amounts we receive under the Agreement in connection with the settlement of the litigation relating to the Wagner Patent.
