Lake Forest, Illinois (September 5, 2003) CNH Global N.V. (NYSE:CNH) today announced the successful completion of a $300 million private offering of senior notes by its wholly owned subsidiary, Case New Holland Inc. These notes represent an add-on to the company's $750 million private offering which closed on August 1, 2003. The senior notes carry a fixed interest rate of 9.25%, will mature in 2011, and were priced above par value, yielding 8.373%.

The senior notes will only be offered and sold to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A and Regulation S under the Securities Act. The senior notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. Unless the senior notes are so registered, the notes may be offered and sold only in transactions that are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the senior notes, nor will there be any sale of the senior notes in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
