Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Participants and Administrator of the H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of net assets available for benefits of the H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2003, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan as of December 31, 2003, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule H, line 4i- schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2003 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. This supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2003

1. Description of the Plan

General

The H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) is a defined contribution plan sponsored by HRB Management, Inc. (the Company) for its employees and the employees of certain of its affiliates. The Plan became effective on January 1, 1985 and is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The Plan provides for selection of an administrative committee, a plan administrator and a trustee by the Board of Directors of the Company. The administrative committee is responsible for the general administration of the plan and the interpretation of its provisions. The plan administrator is responsible for the reporting and disclosure requirements under ERISA. BNY Western Trust Company is the Plan's trustee.

In December 2001, the Plan was amended and restated to, among other things, allow participants to make pre-tax contributions up to fifty percent of their compensation (subject to Internal Revenue Code limitations), with a discretionary employer matching contribution of up to one hundred percent of a participant's contributions not to exceed five percent of the participant's compensation. In addition, the amendment made vesting in any prospective employer matching contributions immediate. These amendments were effective as of January 1, 2002 for participants employed by a participating employer in the Investment Services Line of Business, as such term is defined by the Plan, and July 1, 2002 for all other participants. Additionally, individual brokerage accounts were added as an investment option during February 2002 for participants employed by a participating employer in the Investment Services Line of Business and as of April 1, 2002 for all other participants.

During December 2002, the Company approved a plan to merge the Option One Mortgage Corporation Retirement Plus Plan (the Option One Plan) into the Plan. The Option One Plan was sponsored by Option One Mortgage Corporation, an affiliate of the Company. Substantially all of the net assets of the Option One Plan were transferred to the Plan by December 31, 2002. Remaining assets totaling $706,478 were transferred in 2003 and are presented as a receivable in the statement of net assets available for benefits at December 31, 2002.

The following description provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan.

Investment Option Change

Effective July 1, 2003, the Strong Funds, Strong Blue Chip 100 Fund was replaced with the American Funds, Growth Fund of America as an investment option of the Plan. Participant balances remaining in the Strong Blue Chip 100 Fund existing on July 1, 2003 were transferred into the Growth Fund of America.

Eligibility

The timing of an employee's eligibility for participation in the Plan depends on whether the employee is classified as a nonseasonal employee or seasonal employee. With respect to participant contributions and employer matching contributions: (a) nonseasonal employees are automatically enrolled in the Plan beginning the first day of the month following or coinciding with the date they complete 90 Days of Service, as such term is defined in the Plan, and (b) seasonal employees are automatically enrolled in the Plan beginning with the first participation date (January 1 or July 1) following or coinciding with the date they complete a Year of Service, as such term is defined in the Plan. With respect to employer profit sharing contributions, both nonseasonal and seasonal employees are eligible to participate beginning the first day of the Plan year that immediately precedes or is coincident with the date the employee completes a Year of Service.

Contributions

Participants may make pre-tax contributions from two to fifty percent of their compensation, subject to Internal Revenue Code limitations. The Company may make discretionary matching contributions of up to one hundred percent of a participant's contributions, not to exceed five percent of the participant's compensation. The Company may also elect to make discretionary profit sharing contributions, which would be allocated among participant accounts based on the participant's eligible compensation. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company contributed $27,670,537 for the matching contribution. No discretionary profit sharing contributions were made during the year ended December 31, 2003.

Vesting

Participant contributions, and earnings thereon, are fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times. Beginning January 1, 2002 for participants in the Investment Services line of business, and beginning July 1, 2002 for all other participants, employer matching contributions made after such applicable effective date, and earnings thereon, are fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times.

Forfeitures

Forfeitures for the plan year are used to reduce the administrative expenses of the Plan or to reduce employer matching contributions. For the year ended December 31, 2003 the amount forfeited was $503,933. Forfeitures of $592,547 were used to pay Plan administrative expenses and reduce employer matching contributions during the year ended December 31, 2003. The forfeiture balance of $289,747 as of December 31, 2003, will be used to reduce future matching contributions.

Earnings

Earnings are allocated each day to participant accounts based upon the participant's balance in each investment option as a percentage of the Plan's balance in the respective investment option.

The H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2003

Loans

Participant loans must be at least $1,000 and are limited to the lesser of $50,000 less the highest outstanding loan balance in the previous 12 months or fifty percent of the participant's vested account balance. Interest is prime plus one percent. Loans are payable over one to five years except for loans for the purchase of a residence, which may be longer.

Distributions

Generally, distributions may not be made to a participant, or in the case of death, a participant's beneficiary, until administratively feasible following the earliest of the participant's death, disability, or severance from employment. Distributions are in the form of a lump sum cash payment.

Termination

Although the Company has not expressed any intent to do so, it has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in the Plan and under ERISA.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

H&R Block, Inc. Common Stock is stated at fair value as determined by the market closing price on the last business day of the plan year. Mutual funds, including those in self-directed brokerage accounts, are stated at fair value as determined by quoted market prices. Participant loans are valued at cost, which approximates fair value. The Plan presents in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits the net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of its investments, which consists of the realized gains or losses and the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on those investments. Purchases and sales of investments are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is accrued when earned. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Expenses

All administrative expenses incurred by the Plan are paid by the Plan, except to the extent paid by the Company. To the extent forfeitures are not used to pay administrative expenses of the Plan, such expenses are covered using participant account balances.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when they have been approved for payment.

The H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2003

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of additions to and deductions from net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Investments

The Plan's investments (including investments bought, sold, and held during the year) appreciated in fair value as follows:

	For the Year Ended December 31, 2003
H&R Block, Inc. common stock fund	$ 4,034,599
Mutual funds, Common Collective Trust, and Self-directed brokerage accounts	53,476,341
	$57,510,940

The H&R Block, Inc. Common stock fund uses unit accounting. As a unitized stock fund, the Common stock Fund holds primarily H&R Block, Inc. common stock and a small percentage of cash and short-term investments, while participants hold units of the fund.

Individual investments that represent five percent or more of the fair value of the Plan's net assets are as follows:

	December 31,
	2003	2002
Legg Mason Value Trust Fund	*	$28,250,123
SEI Stable Asset Fund	37,459,911	23,456,013
Dodge & Cox Stock Fund	48,943,789	*
Vanguard Institutional Index 500	45,260,287	31,165,946
Vanguard Wellington Fund	105,774,619	72,821,444

* Less than 5% of Plan's assets in the applicable year.

4. Benefits Payable

The Plan records a liability relating to the obligations for benefit payments to active employees for hardship or in-service withdrawals and terminated employees. As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, net assets available for benefits included assets and corresponding liabilities of $41,492 and $27,076, respectively, due to participants who have terminated employment with the Company.

The H&R Block Retirement Savings Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2003

5. Income Tax Status of the Plan

The Plan received its latest determination letter dated November 11, 2003 in which the Internal Revenue Service stated the Plan is in compliance with the applicable requirements of the internal revenue code. The plan administrator believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

6. Related Party Transactions

As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Plan's investment portfolio includes an investment in the Common Stock of H&R Block, Inc., a party-in-interest to the Plan.

The Plan's recordkeeper, RSM McGladrey (RSM), is an affiliate of the Company and was paid $320,175 in administrative fees and reimbursements during the year ended December 31, 2003. As of December 31, 2003, administrative fees payable to RSM totaled $14,987 and are included in accrued expenses in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits.

The Plan's custodian, H&R Block Financial Advisors, Inc., is an affiliate of the Company.
