ITEM 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On May 20, 2008, the Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") of the Board of Directors of Perrigo Company (the "Company"), as part of its annual review process, selected Ernst & Young ("Ernst & Young"), to serve as its independent registered public accounting firm for the 2009 fiscal year ending June 27, 2009.

The Audit Committee has determined that BDO Seidman, LLP ("BDO") will not be reappointed as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Accordingly, effective upon the completion of its engagement for the Company's current fiscal year ending June 28, 2008, BDO will cease to be the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. With respect to BDO and its service as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, during the fiscal years ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006, as well as the subsequent period preceding the Audit Committee's decision not to reappoint BDO:

There were no reportable events as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, except that, as previously disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 1, 2006, BDO's audit for that fiscal year of the Company's management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting stated that the Company and its subsidiaries had not maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of July 1, 2006, as a result of material weaknesses identified by the Company's management. The Company's management has concluded that, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007, the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective.

BDO's reports on the Company's financial statements for fiscal years 2007 and 2006 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principals.

There were no disagreements with BDO on any matter of accounting principals or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of BDO, would have caused them to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in their reports.

The Company provided BDO with a copy of these disclosures and asked BDO to provide it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") stating whether BDO agrees with the Company's statements and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of BDO's letter to the Commission is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

During the fiscal years ended June 30, 2007 and July 1, 2006 and the subsequent period prior to engaging Ernst & Young, the Company did not consult with Ernst & Young regarding the application of accounting principals to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events described in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.
