Item 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

No response is required to this item.

Item 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

No response is required to this item.

Item 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Registrant has adopted provisions in its certificate of incorporation that eliminate the personal liability of its directors for monetary damages arising from a breach of their fiduciary duties, in certain circumstances, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Additionally, the Registrant's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that it will indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents for any liability incurred in their official capacity to the maximum extent permissible under Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). Under Delaware law, a corporation may indemnify any person made or threatened to be made a party to any action or proceeding (other than stockholder derivative suits) because he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or firm. In order to be indemnified, the director, officer, employee or agent must (i) act in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to, the best interest of the corporation and (ii) in respect to a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

In the case of stockholder derivative suits under Delaware law, the corporation may also indemnify if the director, officer, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner the director reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. Unless a court finds that an individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity, the corporation cannot indemnify an individual in stockholder derivative suits where there is any claim, issue or matter in which the individual has been found liable to the corporation.

Under the DGCL, a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who successfully defends himself or herself in a proceeding to which he or she was a party because of his or her position as a director or officer for expenses actually or reasonably incurred by the person. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil or criminal proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The indemnification and expense advancement provisions under Delaware law described above are not exclusive of other rights of indemnification and advancement that a director or officer may be granted by a corporation in its bylaws or by a vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or by an agreement.

Item 9. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Table of Contents

(b) The Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the 1933 Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
