On April 18, 2005, ProxyMed, Inc. (the Company) entered into a loan and security agreement (the Loan Agreement) with Wachovia Bank, National Corporation (Wachovia). Under the terms of the Loan Agreement, the Company is allowed to borrow, from time to time, up to $15,000,000 on or before June 29, 2006, and up to $12,500,000 thereafter. The interest rate on the amounts borrowed by the Company is at LIBOR or prime. Outstanding interest under the Loan Agreement is payable on a monthly basis over a 3 year period commencing May 1, 2005, and all outstanding amounts under the Loan Agreement will become paid on or before the final maturity date of April 30, 2008.

The Company has granted Wachovia a first priority security interest in substantially all of the Company's present and future tangible and intangible assets (including all intellectual property but excluding real property), to secure the Company's obligations under the Loan Agreement. The Loan Agreement contains various customary representation and warranties of the Company as well as customary affirmative and negative covenants, including, without limitation, financial reporting, limitation on liens, limitations on the concurrence of future indebtedness, and maintenance of a minimum amount of cash in deposits accounts of Wachovia.

The Loan Agreement contains certain customary events of default, including, among others, non-payment of principal and interest, violation of covenants, and in the event the Company is involved in certain insolvency proceedings. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, Wachovia is entitled to, among other things, accelerate all obligations of the Company and assemble the Collateral and make it available to the Bank at a place to be designated by Bank.

The Company intends to use the proceeds from the Loan Agreement primarily to repay existing senior debt and to be available to fund continuing operations from time to time.

The Loan Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and the Revolver Note is attached as Exhibit 10.2. The foregoing summary is qualified by reference to the Loan Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference.
