Excerpt from the Transcript of the Conference Call Held July 19, 2005
Speaker: Vice Chairman and CEO, Robert J. Coury

Next, I would like to comment on the activities of Carl Icahn and his affiliated entities. Mr. Icahn has now publicly confirmed that he has tendered virtually all of his Mylan shares. We will be purchasing, on a pro rata basis, approximately 94% of Mr. Icahn's tendered shares, which will reduce his ownership position from approximately 26.2 million shares, or approximately 9.9% of our stock, to approximately 1.6 million shares, or less than 3/4 of 1% of our stock.

In a press release issued yesterday, Mr. Icahn continued to attempt to take credit for all of our recent strategic initiatives. As we've stated many times in the past, we believe that the investment community can see through Mr. Icahn's self-interested motives which we believe are distinct and at odds with other Mylan investors. Our Board's decisions have never been and never will be unduly influenced by Mr. Icahn or any other external pressures. Mylan's Board always has and will continue to act in the best interests of all shareholders. Mr. Icahn has consistently maintained that he was a purported buyer at $20 per share, but in reality he tendered to be a seller at $19.00 per share. We believe our Board and management team's actions have spoken louder than Mr. Icahn's rhetoric.

At this time we have no new information on the results of the tender or Mr. Icahn's actions beyond what we've already stated, and because we'd like to keep today's call focused on our first quarter results, we will not be taking any questions related to Mr. Icahn on today's call.
