Air Products Sends Letter to Airgas Shareholders

Says Airgas Statements Contain Numerous Inconsistencies and Misstatements
Regarding Air Products' Bid

LEHIGH VALLEY, Pa. (August 19, 2010) – Air Products (NYSE: APD) today announced that it has mailed the following letter to Airgas (NYSE: ARG) shareholders questioning the credibility of the Airgas Board of Directors, and urging shareholders to vote the GOLD proxy card and vote “FOR” the three highly qualified Air Products nominees and “FOR” the proposed by-law amendments at Airgas’ 2010 Annual Meeting on September 15.

The full text of the letter sent to Airgas shareholders follows:

Dear Fellow Airgas Shareholder:

Airgas shareholders have been inundated for months by mailings and statements from the current Airgas Board of Directors regarding Air Products’ fully financed, all-cash offer for Airgas. The Airgas statements contain numerous inconsistencies and misstatements regarding our bid.

Airgas shareholders have no doubt dismissed, as we have, many of these as the tactical maneuvering of an entrenched Board. However, as the September 15 Airgas Annual Meeting approaches, we believe Airgas shareholders should carefully review the credibility of their incumbent Board in discharging its fiduciary duty of candor to Airgas’ shareholders.

Attached is the most recent example of the Airgas Board’s doubletalk. These statements speak directly to the candor of the Board with its shareholders and the credibility of the Board’s objections to our bid. Airgas has continually objected to our offer by suggesting it will delay shareholders’ realization of value but in reality, the delay is due solely to the Airgas Board.

THE CURRENT AIRGAS BOARD IS PREVENTING YOU FROM RECEIVING A SUBSTANTIAL PREMIUM FOR YOUR SHARES TODAY

For more than 10 months, Air Products has made numerous attempts to engage the current Airgas Board of Directors in discussions about a compelling strategic combination of our two companies. Time and again, our efforts have been rebuffed by the current Airgas Board. We have proceeded with our offer despite the repeated efforts by the current Airgas Board to distort, deflect and delay because we believe in the compelling logic behind this combination, with its clear benefits for customers, employees and partners alike.

Our fully financed, all-cash offer provides Airgas shareholders with the opportunity to realize immediate liquidity at a substantial premium to Airgas’ historical share price. Air Products remains as committed as ever to closing the transaction in short order and delivering this certain, cash value to Airgas shareholders. The only significant hurdles that remain to completion of the transaction are within the control of the Airgas Board.

It is now up to you, the Airgas shareholders, to make your voices heard and change the dynamic in the Airgas Boardroom. It is time for the Airgas Board to listen to its shareholders. It is time to sign and return the GOLD proxy card and vote to move this process forward.

THE CURRENT AIRGAS BOARD HAS FAILED IN ITS RESPONSIBILITIES TO YOU

In our view, the Airgas Board has failed in its most basic responsibilities to represent the best interest of all Airgas shareholders. For months, the Airgas Board has sought to distort, deflect and delay, rather than inform and engage. It has claimed Air Products' offer is "highly uncertain" and would require a "significant amount of time to complete," while in reality the only substantive impediment to closing immediately is the Board's refusal to negotiate a deal.

Since we began this process 10 months ago, the current Airgas Board has:

- Refused to engage in any way with Air Products or its advisors
- Refused to form a special committee of independent directors to evaluate our offers
- Delayed the 2010 Airgas Annual Meeting
- Refused to rescind the "poison pill"
- Pursued litigation against Air Products' outside legal counsel
- Repeatedly revised its financial forecasts
- Put in place new change-of-control severance agreements
- Failed to explore a sale process that would maximize value for your shares

YOU DESERVE A BOARD THAT WILL ACT IN YOUR BEST INTERESTS

Air Products is soliciting votes for the election of three highly qualified independent board nominees, and approval of our other proposals, at the 2010 Airgas Annual Meeting on September 15, 2010. We urge you to support the Air Products nominees and proposals and send a message to the Airgas Board that its self-serving actions cannot continue.

The three independent nominees put forth by Air Products have no personal or professional ties to Air Products, the Airgas Board or its Chairman and CEO. They each have significant experience as public company directors and executives at major global corporations. By voting "FOR" the independent nominees on the GOLD proxy card, you will be electing directors committed to acting in your best interests.

We urge you to send a message to the Airgas Board and management that you want directors who will constructively engage with Air Products regarding our offer.

JUST SAY NO TO FURTHER DELAY

VOTE YOUR GOLD PROXY CARD "FOR" THE THREE HIGHLY QUALIFIED AIR PRODUCTS NOMINEES AND "FOR" THE PROPOSED BY-LAW AMENDMENTS
