REVISED PRELIMINARY COPY - SUBJECT TO COMPLETION
DATED MAY 29, 2001

[SUNTRUST BANKS, INC. LOGO]

May __, 2001

Dear Wachovia Stockholder:

On May 14, 2001, SunTrust Banks, Inc. announced that it had delivered a letter to your board of directors proposing a business combination between SunTrust and Wachovia Corporation that we believe is financially superior to Wachovia's proposed merger with First Union Corporation. Under our proposal, Wachovia and SunTrust would combine in a merger in which each share of common stock of Wachovia would be converted into 1.081 shares of SunTrust common stock. Based on May 25, 2001 closing stock prices, our proposal has a value of $65.62 per share and represented a premium over the implied value of Wachovia's proposed merger with First Union as of such date. Pursuant to our merger proposal, SunTrust also would increase its annual per share dividend to $2.22 so that Wachovia stockholders would receive on a pro forma equivalent basis the same $2.40 annual per share dividend that they currently enjoy.

As you know, Wachovia has entered into a merger agreement with First Union providing for a merger in which each outstanding share of Wachovia common stock would be converted into two shares of First Union common stock and, as more fully described below, Wachovia shareholders would have the right to elect either a special one-time $0.48 dividend or preferred stock of First Union that is designed to give Wachovia shareholders an amount of dividends which, when added to the dividends on the First Union common stock, would equal on a pro forma equivalent basis the $2.40 annual dividend per share of Wachovia common stock. In connection with the proposed First Union merger, Wachovia has scheduled its 2001 annual meeting of stockholders for August 3, 2001, at [], at [] a.m., local time. The Wachovia Board of Directors is soliciting your vote to approve its proposed merger with First Union at that meeting.

AS DISCUSSED IN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY STATEMENT, WE BELIEVE OUR PROPOSED MERGER OFFERS YOU A HIGHER PREMIUM AND GREATER VALUE THAN THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION/WACHOVIA MERGER. However, our proposal requires that the proposed First Union/Wachovia merger NOT be approved by the stockholders of Wachovia. Accordingly, we are soliciting your proxy to vote

AGAINST the proposed First Union/Wachovia merger.

WE BELIEVE THE SUNTRUST PROPOSAL IS FINANCIALLY SUPERIOR TO THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION/WACHOVIA MERGER FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

- o HIGHER PREMIUM. Our proposed merger would provide a premium for your Wachovia shares over what First Union is proposing to pay. Based on May 25, 2001 closing prices, the SunTrust merger proposal would provide you with $65.62 per share in value, representing a premium of $2.42 per share (or almost 4%) over the implied value of the proposed First Union/Wachovia merger, which was worth less than Wachovia's closing price on such date. Because the exchange ratios in the SunTrust merger proposal and the proposed First Union/Wachovia merger are fixed, the implied values of the SunTrust merger proposal and the proposed First Union/Wachovia merger will fluctuate based on changes in the respective market prices of the companies' stocks.
- o STRONGER CURRENCY. Our merger proposal would provide Wachovia shareholders an opportunity to invest in SunTrust common stock, which has demonstrated stronger performance and delivered more attractive total returns than First Union's common stock over the past 1, 5 and 10-year periods. Through March 31, 2001, SunTrust produced one-year, five-year and ten-year total returns to stockholders of 15.3%, 98.2% and 493.0%, respectively. Based on historical results and First Call consensus estimates for 2001, SunTrust's core earnings per share reflect a five-year compounded annual growth rate of 12% from 1996-2001.
- o SIMPLER AND BETTER DIVIDEND. Under SunTrust's proposal, SunTrust would increase the annual per share dividend on its common stock to $2.22 so that Wachovia stockholders would receive on a pro forma equivalent basis the same $2.40 annual per share dividend that they currently enjoy. SunTrust has had consistent dividend growth (five-year compounded annual growth rate of 14% in dividends per share), has never cut its dividend and has significant additional capacity to increase its dividend.

First Union's proposed merger with Wachovia would provide you with an ongoing annual per share dividend of $1.92 on a pro-forma equivalent basis, which represents a 20% decrease from Wachovia's current annual per share dividend. However, to make up this difference, First Union is offering you a choice of also receiving either a special one-time dividend of $0.48 per share at closing to cover the dividend shortfall for the first year after closing, or preferred shares of First Union that would pay a dividend sufficient to ensure that you receive on a pro forma equivalent basis a $2.40 annual dividend per share of Wachovia common stock.

We believe the dividend component of the SunTrust merger proposal is simpler and better. We believe it's simpler because you don't have to hold any security other than your shares of SunTrust common stock to receive the full dividend. We believe it's better than First Union's one-time special dividend alternative because under that alternative, First Union would have to increase its current dividend by 25% by the beginning of the second year after its merger in order for you to continue receiving the same per share dividend you currently enjoy. And we believe the dividend component of our proposal is better than First Union's preferred stock alternative because you may not be able to sell your preferred shares together with your First Union common stock if the preferred shares are not transferable or if a liquid market for the preferred shares doesn't develop.

YOUR VOTE IS ESSENTIAL! IF THE FIRST UNION/WACHOVIA MERGER IS APPROVED, YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO RECEIVE THE SUPERIOR VALUE REPRESENTED BY OUR MERGER PROPOSAL. WE URGE YOU TO VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION/WACHOVIA MERGER BY SIGNING, DATING AND RETURNING THE ACCOMPANYING [BLUE] PROXY CARD TODAY.

Even if you previously have submitted a proxy card furnished by the Wachovia Board, it is not too late to change your vote by simply signing, dating and returning the enclosed [BLUE] proxy card today.

WE URGE YOU TO PROTECT YOUR INTERESTS - PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE [BLUE] PROXY CARD TODAY.

Thank you for your consideration and support.

PROXY STATEMENT OF SUNTRUST BANKS, INC.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN OPPOSITION TO THE PROPOSED MERGER OF WACHOVIA CORPORATION AND FIRST UNION CORPORATION

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed [BLUE] proxy card are furnished by SunTrust Banks, Inc., a Georgia corporation ("SunTrust"), in connection with its solicitation of proxies to be used at the 2001 annual meeting (the "Annual Meeting") of stockholders of Wachovia Corporation, a North Carolina corporation ("Wachovia"), to be held on August 3, 2001, at [], at [] a.m., local time, and at any adjournments, postponements or reschedulings thereof. Pursuant to this Proxy Statement, SunTrust is soliciting proxies from holders of shares of common stock, par value $5.00 per share, of Wachovia ("Wachovia Common Stock") to vote AGAINST the proposed merger of Wachovia with and into First Union Corporation, a North Carolina corporation ("First Union") (such proposed merger, the "Proposed First Union Merger"). Wachovia has set the close of business on June 12, 2001 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining those stockholders who will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed [BLUE] proxy are first being sent or given to stockholders of Wachovia on or about [], 2001. Wachovia's corporate headquarters are located at 100 North Main Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27150, telephone (336) 770-5000 and 191 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30303, telephone (404) 332-5000.

THE SUNTRUST MERGER PROPOSAL

On May 14, 2001, SunTrust delivered a letter to the Board of Directors of Wachovia proposing a business combination that SunTrust believes constitutes a financially superior transaction for holders of Wachovia Common Stock. Under SunTrust's proposal (the "SunTrust Merger Proposal"), Wachovia and SunTrust would combine in a merger (the "Proposed SunTrust Merger") in which each share of Wachovia Common Stock would be converted into 1.081 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share ("SunTrust Common Stock"), of SunTrust. SunTrust also would increase its annual per share dividend to $2.22 so that Wachovia shareholders would receive on a pro forma equivalent basis the same $2.40 annual per share dividend that they currently enjoy.

Based on the closing price of SunTrust Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") on May 25, 2001, the SunTrust Merger Proposal had a value of $65.62 per Wachovia share, which represents a 3.8% premium over the implied value of the Proposed First Union Merger of $63.20 (based on the 2.0 exchange ratio in that transaction and the $31.60 closing price of First Union common stock on May 25, 2001). Because the number of shares of SunTrust common stock that Wachovia shareholders would receive pursuant to the SunTrust Merger Proposal and the number of shares of First Union common stock that Wachovia shareholders would receive in the Proposed First Union Merger are fixed, the value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal and the implied value of the Proposed First Union Merger will fluctuate based on changes in the market prices of the companies' stocks.

The Proposed SunTrust Merger would be tax-free to Wachovia shareholders and would be accounted for as a purchase. SunTrust contemplates providing leadership roles in the combined company for numerous members of Wachovia's management, and Wachovia would have appropriate representation on the board of directors of the combined company. In this regard, SunTrust's determination of the extent of Wachovia representation on the board of directors of the combined company would be based on various considerations, including the timing of any merger of SunTrust and Wachovia, an analysis of the relative contributions of each company to the combined company's prospective earnings, and negotiations with Wachovia. The combined company would be headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, and Winston-Salem, North Carolina would become the headquarters for the combined company's North and South Carolina banking franchise.

The SunTrust Merger Proposal is subject to certain conditions, including (i) the valid termination of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated April 15, 2001, between First Union and Wachovia (the "First Union Merger Agreement"), (ii) an update and completion of the due diligence investigation performed by SunTrust in December 2000, (iii) the execution of a definitive merger agreement by SunTrust and Wachovia providing for the Proposed SunTrust Merger, and (iv) the invalidation of the stock option agreement entered into by Wachovia and First Union and the related option granted by Wachovia to First Union thereunder (collectively, the "First Union Option"), or, alternatively, the surrender by First Union of the First Union Option in exchange for a cash payment equal to the in-the-money value of the First Union Option, subject to the minimum surrender value of the option of $375 million and the purported "cap" of $780 million (the "First Union Option Condition"). See "Certain Information Concerning the First Union Option." SunTrust believes the First Union Option contains several excessive and unprecedented features and has commenced an action in Superior Court in Fulton County, Georgia challenging the validity of that option. See "Certain Litigation."

SunTrust would be willing to enter into a definitive merger agreement with Wachovia that is similar in all material respects (including with respect to closing conditions) to the First Union Merger Agreement, except that the financial terms of such agreement would reflect the financial terms of the SunTrust Merger Proposal, and such agreement, unlike the First Union Merger Agreement, would permit Wachovia to terminate such agreement in the event the Wachovia shareholders were to vote against the Proposed SunTrust Merger instead of waiting until the termination date of any such agreement. The material conditions that SunTrust would expect to be contained in a merger agreement with Wachovia would be the approval of such merger agreement by the shareholders of both SunTrust and Wachovia and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. See "Regulatory Approvals Required for the Proposed SunTrust Merger."

There can be no assurance as to the timing or satisfaction of the conditions to the SunTrust Merger Proposal or as to the timing or satisfaction of the conditions that would be contained in a merger agreement between SunTrust and Wachovia. While certain conditions are within the control of the Wachovia Board of Directors, the First Union Option Condition is not within the control of the Wachovia Board of Directors. However, SunTrust intends to vigorously pursue its rights to challenge the validity of the First Union Option as expeditiously as possible. See "Certain Litigation." SunTrust expects to file within the next several days all required applications with the appropriate regulatory authorities and believes there is no reason why such applications will not be approved in the ordinary and usual course. Accordingly, absent certain impediments described above, SunTrust believes the Proposed SunTrust Merger could close without any material delays beyond the timing of any proposed closing of the Proposed First Union Merger assuming First Union would agree with Wachovia to terminate the First Union Merger Agreement in the event Wachovia shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger. SunTrust believes that if Wachovia's shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger, First Union's interest will be in realizing value for the First Union Option. In such a circumstance, and assuming Wachovia was willing to enter into merger discussions with SunTrust in the event Wachovia shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger,

Edgar Filing: WACHOVIA CORP/ NC - Form PRRN14A

SunTrust believes First Union would enter into negotiations with SunTrust with respect to the First Union Option and if SunTrust and First Union were to agree on a surrender value for the First Union Option, First Union would agree with Wachovia to terminate the First Union Merger Agreement. See "Certain Information Concerning the First Union Option."

By voting against the Proposed First Union Merger, Wachovia shareholders can demonstrate their support for the proposed combination of SunTrust and Wachovia and send a strong message to the Wachovia Board that they want to preserve the opportunity to consider the SunTrust Merger Proposal.

While SunTrust is committed to helping Wachovia shareholders realize the value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal, the SunTrust Merger Proposal cannot go forward unless the Wachovia shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger and the First Union Merger Agreement is terminated. Accordingly, a vote for the Proposed First Union Merger could leave Wachovia shareholders without a viable alternative to the Proposed First Union Merger because SunTrust will not proceed with the SunTrust Merger Proposal if the Proposed First Union Merger is approved by Wachovia shareholders. However, there can be no assurance as to the occurrence or timing of the termination of the First Union Merger Agreement or that the conditions to the Proposed SunTrust Merger will be satisfied. As a result, even if the Proposed First Union Merger is not approved by Wachovia shareholders, Wachovia shareholders could still be without a viable alternative to the Proposed First Union Merger if the conditions to the Proposed SunTrust Merger are not satisfied.

REASONS TO VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION MERGER

SunTrust urges you to vote your shares of Wachovia Common Stock AGAINST the Proposed First Union Merger for the following reasons:

- o A VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION MERGER MOVES YOU ONE STEP CLOSER TO RECEIVING A HIGHER PREMIUM AND BETTER VALUE FOR YOUR SHARES PURSUANT TO THE SUNTRUST MERGER PROPOSAL.

SunTrust believes that the combination of SunTrust and Wachovia is financially superior to the Proposed First Union Merger and would provide substantial benefits to Wachovia shareholders, including the following:

- (1) Higher Premium. Based on May 25, 2001 closing prices, the SunTrust Merger Proposal represents a premium of approximately 4% over the implied value of the Proposed First Union Merger. The amount of this premium will fluctuate based on changes in the market prices of SunTrust Common Stock and First Union Common Stock. We note that as of May 25, 2001 the 52-week high closing price for SunTrust Common Stock is $67.80, and the 52-week high closing price for Wachovia Common Stock is $68.19.
- (2) Stronger Currency. SunTrust has demonstrated stronger stock price performance and delivered more attractive total returns to its stockholders than First Union over the past 1, 5 and 10-year periods. Through March 31, 2001, SunTrust produced one- year, five-year and ten-year total returns to stockholders of 15.3%, 98.2% and 493.0%, respectively. Based on historical results and First Call consensus estimates for 2001, SunTrust's core earnings per share reflect a five-year compounded annual growth rate ("CAGR") of 12% from 1996 to 2001. A comparison of the foregoing data to similar data for First Union is set forth in the second table below.

- (3) Simpler and Better Dividend. Under the SunTrust Merger Proposal, SunTrust would increase the annual per share dividend on its common stock to $2.22 so that Wachovia shareholders would receive on a pro forma equivalent basis the same $2.40 annual per share dividend that they currently enjoy. SunTrust has had consistent dividend growth (five-year CAGR of 14% in dividends per share, as set forth in the second table below), has never cut its dividend and has significant additional capacity to increase its dividend.

First Union's proposed merger with Wachovia would provide you with an ongoing annual per share dividend of $1.92 on a pro-forma equivalent basis, which represents a 20% decrease from Wachovia's current annual per share dividend. However, to make up this difference, First Union is offering you a choice of also receiving either a special one-time dividend of $0.48 per share at closing to cover the dividend shortfall for the first year after closing, or preferred shares of First Union that would pay a dividend sufficient to ensure that you receive on a pro forma equivalent basis a $2.40 annual dividend per share of Wachovia common stock (the "Preferred Stock Election Feature").

We believe the dividend component of the SunTrust Merger Proposal is simpler and better. We believe it's simpler because you would not have to hold any security other than your shares of SunTrust Common Stock to receive the full dividend. We believe it's better than First Union's one-time special dividend alternative because, under that alternative, First Union would have to increase its current dividend by 25% by the beginning of the second year after its merger in order for you to continue receiving the same per share dividend you currently enjoy. And we believe the dividend component of our proposal is better than First Union's Preferred Stock Election Feature because you may not be able to sell your preferred shares together with your First Union common stock if the preferred shares are not transferable or if a liquid market for the preferred shares does not develop.

Dividends are payable on SunTrust Common Stock when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors of SunTrust. Accordingly, any declaration of dividends on SunTrust Common Stock in the future will be at the discretion of the SunTrust Board of Directors and will depend upon SunTrust's future earnings and financial condition and other factors. While SunTrust has not reduced the dividend on its common stock at any time in the past, there can be no assurance that SunTrust will continue to pay dividends on SunTrust Common Stock in the amounts set forth above or otherwise.

- (4) Proven Execution Record. SunTrust believes it has a proven track record of executing strategic initiatives. SunTrust's successful integration of Crestar Financial Corporation evidences its conservative and disciplined approach to the execution of a major merger transaction through setting achievable cost savings targets, retaining a focus on customers and minimizing revenue loss. Moreover, SunTrust has fully completed the integration process on the Crestar acquisition and now has a "clean slate" for purposes of allocating the management resources necessary to execute a major merger transaction.

While the Proposed SunTrust Merger would represent a larger transaction than the Crestar acquisition and would entail more in-market integration than the Crestar acquisition, SunTrust believes it has gained the expertise necessary for the integration of Wachovia through its experience in the Crestar transaction and other significant corporate projects. For example, SunTrust has managed the consolidation of its 32 bank subsidiaries and its Y2K project, both of which involved multiple large systems conversions. SunTrust's bank consolidation project also has involved staff realignment and reductions, customer and employee retention programs and standardization of policies and procedures among SunTrust's separate bank subsidiaries. In the past year, SunTrust also has closed approximately 40 branches in the ordinary course of business, which required transferring the customers of these branches to other SunTrust retail locations. SunTrust believes that through these experiences it has gained the core project management and systems integration competencies necessary to manage the integration effort in connection with a combination with Wachovia. SunTrust also believes there is an excellent cultural fit between SunTrust and Wachovia and that the two companies' business models and management philosophies are compatible. SunTrust believes these factors should help minimize the execution risk in combining SunTrust and Wachovia.

SunTrust also does not believe that its proposed merger with Wachovia poses any of the types of risks perceived by some to be associated with "hostile" transactions in the banking industry, most notably the Wells Fargo/First Interstate merger. Based on previous merger discussions with Wachovia over the years, SunTrust knows Wachovia's operations well and is quite familiar with its management and employees, its business and operating structure, and its philosophy (see "Background"), whereas Wells Fargo is reported to have performed little or no due diligence prior to its acquisition of First Interstate. SunTrust's integration of Wachovia would be based on reasonable and conservative assumptions and would take place over a reasonable time period, while the Wells Fargo transaction was based on aggressive cost savings targets and a nine-month integration schedule. And SunTrust and Wachovia have similar operational structures, while in the Wells Fargo transaction Wells Fargo essentially undertook an overhaul of First Interstate's entire approach to retail banking.

The table below compares key financial aspects of the SunTrust Merger Proposal to those of the Proposed First Union Merger:

	First Union/Wachovia -----	SunTrust/Wachovia -----
Implied Value (1).....	$63.20	$65.62
Implied Ongoing Dividend Per Wachovia Share.....	$2.40 (2)	$2.40 (3)

- (1) Based on closing prices on May 25, 2001.
 - (2) On May 22, 2001, First Union announced that it would provide Wachovia shareholders the option to elect to receive, in addition to the First Union Common Stock to be received in the Proposed First Union Merger, either a one-time special dividend of $0.48 per share or preferred shares of First Union that would pay a dividend that, when added to the dividends on the First Union Common Stock, would be sufficient to provide Wachovia shareholders with a $2.40 annual per share dividend on a pro forma equivalent basis following completion of the Proposed First Union Merger. First Union has not disclosed whether receipt of these preferred shares would be taxable or whether these preferred shares will be transferable.
 - (3) If the Proposed SunTrust Merger is consummated, SunTrust intends to increase the annual dividend on its common stock to $2.22 per share.
 - (4) Wachovia's estimated core expense base is pro forma to reflect the impact of Wachovia's acquisition of Republic Security Financial Corporation and Wachovia's pending transaction for the disposition of its credit card operations. SunTrust estimates that its cost savings will be phased in 40% in the first year following closing, 70% in the second year following closing and 100% in the third year following closing. Wachovia has asserted in public communications that Wachovia and SunTrust, during their December merger discussions, had "agreed upon" $400 million in cost savings in connection with a possible SunTrust/Wachovia merger. However, Wachovia failed to disclose that it had advised SunTrust that Wachovia believed that cost savings of more than $500 million were obtainable in a SunTrust/Wachovia merger. See "Background."

 - (9) Total equity less goodwill, divided by total assets less goodwill.
- o A VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION MERGER WILL HELP SATISFY A CONDITION TO THE SUNTRUST MERGER PROPOSAL.

One condition of the SunTrust Merger Proposal is that the Wachovia shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger and the First Union Merger Agreement is validly terminated. The Proposed SunTrust Merger cannot go forward unless this condition is satisfied. Accordingly, your vote against the Proposed First Union Merger can help to satisfy this condition to the SunTrust Merger Proposal.

While SunTrust is committed to helping Wachovia shareholders realize the value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal, the SunTrust Merger Proposal cannot go forward unless the Wachovia shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger and the First Union Merger Agreement is validly terminated. Accordingly, a vote for the Proposed First Union Merger could leave Wachovia shareholders without a viable alternative to the Proposed First Union Merger because SunTrust will not proceed with the SunTrust Merger Proposal if the Proposed First Union Merger is approved by Wachovia shareholders. However, there can be no assurance as to the occurrence or timing of the termination of the First Union Merger Agreement or that the conditions to the Proposed SunTrust Merger will be satisfied. As a result, even if the Proposed First Union Merger is not approved by Wachovia shareholders, Wachovia shareholders could still be without a viable alternative to the Proposed First Union Merger if the conditions to the Proposed SunTrust Merger are not satisfied.

- o A VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION MERGER SENDS A STRONG MESSAGE TO THE WACHOVIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS THAT YOU WANT TO PRESERVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO ACCEPT THE SUNTRUST MERGER PROPOSAL.

By voting against the Proposed First Union Merger, Wachovia shareholders can demonstrate their support for the proposed combination of Wachovia and SunTrust. A vote against the Proposed First Union Merger moves Wachovia shareholders closer to being able to benefit from the SunTrust Merger Proposal. On the other hand, if Wachovia shareholders approve the Proposed First Union Merger, it is likely that the Proposed First Union Merger will be consummated.

YOU CAN TAKE IMMEDIATE STEPS TO HELP OBTAIN GREATER VALUE FOR YOUR SHARES

- (1) Return your [BLUE] proxy and vote AGAINST the Proposed First Union Merger; and
- (2) Make your views known to the Wachovia Board of Directors.

BY TAKING THESE STEPS, YOU WILL GIVE THE WACHOVIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS A CLEAR MESSAGE THAT THEY SHOULD TAKE ALL NECESSARY ACTIONS TO REMOVE ALL OBSTACLES TO THE SUNTRUST MERGER PROPOSAL.

BACKGROUND

From time to time in the past, SunTrust and Wachovia have engaged in discussions concerning the possibility of a business combination transaction between the parties. Discussions were initiated between the parties most recently in early November of 2000, at a meeting in Atlanta between L. Phillip Humann, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of SunTrust, and L.M. Baker, Jr., the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wachovia, at which Messrs. Humann and Baker discussed the possibility of a business combination transaction between SunTrust and Wachovia. Later that month, John W. Spiegel, Chief Financial Officer of SunTrust, and Robert S. McCoy, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Wachovia, discussed matters relative to a potential business combination transaction between the parties, including revisiting previous discussions between them in 1997 regarding the financial aspects and benefits of a combination of SunTrust and Wachovia, including the cost savings that should be obtainable in such a combination. Messrs. Spiegel and McCoy mutually agreed that, based on those discussions, there was no reason that the parties should not proceed with their consideration of a transaction.

On December 2, 2000, Mr. Spiegel met with several members of senior management of Wachovia to establish a plan for conducting due diligence and information sharing between the parties. That weekend, representatives of SunTrust and Wachovia and their respective financial and legal advisors commenced their due diligence investigations in connection with the proposed transaction. These due diligence efforts continued on an ongoing basis throughout the next couple of weeks and included meetings between key members of senior management of the two companies, several off-site meetings involving large due diligence teams and the continuous exchange of information between the two companies. Also during this time, SunTrust and Wachovia and their respective legal advisors substantially negotiated the terms of the proposed transaction and the draft merger documents, and representatives of SunTrust and Wachovia, with the assistance of their respective financial advisors, prepared an analyst presentation for purposes of describing the transaction to the investment community. SunTrust and Wachovia had set December 18, 2000 as the targeted announcement date of the proposed transaction.

With a few days remaining before the targeted announcement date, the following material terms of the transaction had been agreed to:

Name:	Wachovia
Headquarters:	Atlanta, Georgia
Price:	1.03 SunTrust shares per Wachovia share (12% premium based on 12/15/00 closing prices)
Board:	50/50 split between SunTrust and Wachovia directors
Management:	Chairman and CEO: L.M. Baker, Jr. - CEO until 2003 Annual Meeting and Chairman until 2004 Annual Meeting President and COO: L. Phillip Humann - to become CEO at 2003 Annual Meeting and Chairman at 2004 Annual Meeting Other management roles and individuals from SunTrust and Wachovia to fill those roles had been identified
Dividend:	SunTrust dividend increase to ensure no reduction in dividends to Wachovia shareholders on a pro forma equivalent basis

Over the course of the discussions, Mr. Baker communicated only one area of concern to Mr. Humann relative to the compatibility of the two companies. Mr. Baker indicated to Mr. Humann that the specialists in Wachovia's wealth management business (tax and estate planning, portfolio managers, etc.) reported to a centralized business unit whereas SunTrust's wealth management specialists reported on the basis of geography. Mr. Humann indicated that SunTrust had in effect dual reporting lines, both on the basis of geography and to a centralized business unit which set and implemented overall policy with respect to uniform practices and standards. Mr. Humann advised Mr. Baker that he did not believe there was a practical difference in how these specialists functioned on a day-to-day basis, but nevertheless advised Mr. Baker that SunTrust was prepared to shift to Wachovia's operating structure for the wealth management business. Mr. Baker also questioned the proposed reporting line of the wealth management business, preferring that this business unit report to Mr. Humann as the proposed president and chief operating officer instead of to a vice chairman to whom multiple business lines would report. Mr. Humann advised Mr. Baker that SunTrust's position on this issue was based on SunTrust's view that the wealth management business can benefit greatly through interaction with other business lines, and that SunTrust had realized substantial success with this approach.

Late in the morning on December 14, 2000, Mr. Baker telephoned Mr. Humann and advised him that Wachovia was withdrawing from further discussions based on the issue raised by Mr. Baker with respect to the reporting relationship of the combined company's wealth management business. Messrs. Humann and Baker decided to speak again after their respective Board of Directors meetings which had been scheduled for the following afternoon.

On December 15, 2000, following their respective Board of Directors meetings, Mr. Humann and Mr. Baker spoke again, but Mr. Baker indicated that he did not want to take up the merger discussions again until some time after the holidays. Mr. Humann concluded that the prospect for a constructive dialogue with Mr. Baker concerning a potential business combination would be improved if he allowed some amount of time to elapse before resuming Merger discussions with Mr. Baker, and accordingly determined not to contact Mr. Baker immediately following the holidays. In early February 2001, following the announcement by Wachovia of its plans to initiate an evaluation of strategic alternatives for its credit card business, Mr. Humann decided, in light of the fact that a sale of the credit card business would be a significant transaction for Wachovia, that he would not attempt to resume discussions with Mr. Baker until Wachovia had completed that process.

On April 13, 2001, Mr. Humann learned of rumors that Wachovia was in merger negotiations with First Union. At that time, members of SunTrust's senior management contacted representatives of SunTrust's legal and financial advisors to assist SunTrust in evaluating its alternatives (principally whether or not to submit a merger proposal to Wachovia) in light of the possibility that Wachovia was in merger negotiations with First Union.

On April 14, 2001, Mr. Humann telephoned Mr. Baker, and Mr. Spiegel telephoned Mr. McCoy, to inquire as to whether Wachovia was engaged in merger discussions with First Union, and, in the event that Wachovia confirmed these discussions, to deliver a merger proposal to Wachovia. At the same time, members of SunTrust's senior management and its legal and financial advisors prepared a letter to be delivered to Wachovia in the event that the responses to the inquiries made by Messrs. Humann and Spiegel confirmed that First Union and Wachovia were in discussions.

Mr. Spiegel spoke by telephone with Mr. McCoy, who confirmed that he was also aware of the rumors. Mr. Spiegel reminded Mr. McCoy of SunTrust's interest in a business combination transaction with Wachovia, and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he was aware of SunTrust's interest. Later in the day, Mr. Humann reached Mr. Baker, who acknowledged his awareness of the rumors but attributed them to internet message boards and chat rooms and pointed out that these same message boards and chat rooms had similar rumors concerning a transaction between SunTrust and Wachovia. Mr. Humann then stated that the two of them had agreed that they would be getting together again to resume their discussions from December, and Mr. Baker confirmed that this was what they had agreed to. Mr. Humann understood Mr. Baker's response to be an indication that Wachovia was not in discussions with First Union.

On April 16, 2001, First Union and Wachovia jointly announced that they had entered into a low-premium, merger-of-equals transaction. See "Certain Information Concerning the Proposed First Union Merger."

During the weeks following the announcement of the Proposed First Union Merger, members of senior management of SunTrust, with the advice and assistance of its legal and financial advisors, periodically met to discuss SunTrust's alternatives in light of the announcement of the Proposed First Union Merger.

On May 11, 2001, the SunTrust Board of Directors unanimously approved the SunTrust Merger Proposal and related matters.

On May 14, 2001, SunTrust delivered the following letter to the Board of Directors of Wachovia:

[LETTERHEAD OF SUNTRUST BANKS, INC.]

May 14, 2001

The Board of Directors
Wachovia Corporation
100 North Main Street
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27150

Dear Members of the Board:

As you know, we have long been interested in a business combination with Wachovia Corporation. We have enormous respect for all of you, many of whom are well acquainted with members of our Board, and we have always been impressed with the quality of Wachovia's management with whom we have developed excellent relationships over the years. Our respective management philosophies and corporate cultures are highly compatible, and we both share a commitment to superior customer service and relationship-based banking that sets us apart from our competitors.

Since the announcement of your proposed merger with First Union Corporation, we have again given serious consideration to a combination of SunTrust and Wachovia. By this letter, we are proposing a transaction that provides superior value to Wachovia's shareholders. We remain convinced that a combination of our companies is a compelling transaction in light of the strategic and financial benefits for each of us and our respective shareholders. Our proposal provides Wachovia's shareholders a significant premium over both Wachovia's current market price and the current value of the First Union transaction. Our proposal also maintains Wachovia's current dividend and provides Wachovia shareholders with an investment in SunTrust, a high quality, high performing company. We believe our offer is a "Superior Proposal" as that term is defined under your merger agreement with First Union. Accordingly, we would like to meet with you as soon as possible to discuss the terms of our offer in greater detail.

Under our proposal, Wachovia and SunTrust would combine in a merger in which each share of common stock of Wachovia would be converted into 1.081 shares of SunTrust common stock, having an implied value of $70.06 per Wachovia share. Based on May 11, 2001 closing prices, our offer represents a 17% premium over the implied value of your proposed merger with First Union and a 15% premium over Wachovia's closing price. SunTrust also would increase its annual per share dividend to $2.22 so that Wachovia shareholders would receive on a pro forma equivalent basis the same $2.40 annual per share dividend that they currently enjoy. Our transaction would be tax-free to Wachovia shareholders and would be accounted for as a purchase. Completion of the merger would require receipt of regulatory and shareholder approvals and the satisfaction of other customary conditions. We have attached a brief financial presentation outlining the significant financial benefits of our proposal.

We would propose that the board of directors of the combined company include appropriate representation from Wachovia's current board of directors. In addition, we would anticipate leadership roles for numerous members of Wachovia's management, and we would anticipate putting in place appropriate incentives and retention arrangements for key members of management of Wachovia. While the headquarters of the combined company would be in Atlanta, Georgia, we are prepared to make Winston-Salem the headquarters for our Carolinas bank, and we would maintain meaningful operations there. Our proposal is also more attractive for your employees in North and South Carolina, where we would anticipate substantially fewer job losses than under your proposed merger with First Union.

We believe the strategic rationale for combining SunTrust and Wachovia is compelling for a number of reasons, including the following:

- o Shared focus on superior customer service and relationship-based banking;
- o Leadership position in high growth and affluent southeastern geographic markets;
- o Enhanced scale in high growth/high margin businesses;
- o SunTrust has clean slate to execute transaction;
- o Superior financial strength and credit risk management; and
- o Opportunity for reinvestment of excess capital.

A merger of SunTrust and Wachovia would combine two companies that possess highly compatible operating philosophies and corporate cultures, a similar management structure and a shared commitment to operating a customer relationship-based financial services franchise. Both SunTrust and Wachovia have a matrix management structure which is based on both business lines and geography. Both companies provide significant autonomy to local managers who best understand and manage local customer relationships. For these reasons, we believe the integration of our businesses can be accomplished in a virtually seamless manner with no meaningful customer loss or disruption.

Most important for Wachovia's shareholders is the strength of SunTrust's currency. SunTrust has demonstrated consistently strong stock price performance and has delivered attractive total returns to its shareholders. Based on last Friday's closing stock price, SunTrust has produced a five-year total return to shareholders of 100%, and, based on First Call consensus estimates for 2001, SunTrust's core earnings per share will produce a five-year CAGR of 12% from 1996-2001. SunTrust has had consistent dividend growth (5-year CAGR of 14% in dividends per share), has never cut its dividend and has significant additional capacity to increase its payout ratio. As noted above, our proposal provides that SunTrust would increase its dividend to ensure no dividend reduction for Wachovia shareholders.

In addition to strong performance and a focused strategy, the strength of our currency derives from prudent management practices. SunTrust has never had to pre-announce an earnings shortfall or major write-down and, other than the $115 million loss taken in 1999 in connection with repositioning its securities portfolio, has never taken a restructuring charge that was not merger- related. We have retained an ongoing focus on credit and risk management. Our five-year average net charge-off ratio is the lowest among the twenty largest U.S. banks at 0.29%.* Additionally, our holding company currently enjoys A1/A+ ratings from Moody's and S&P, respectively, for its long- term unsecured debt, with a positive outlook from Moody's and a stable outlook from S&P, and our bank carries Aa3/AA- ratings from Moody's and S&P, respectively.

* Largest twenty banks by market capitalization, excluding Northern Trust Corporation and State Street Corporation, as these banks have business lines that are materially different from those of the other banks in the group.

With respect to executing strategic transactions, SunTrust has a superior track record. Our integration of Crestar Financial Corporation is regarded as a successful execution of a major bank merger transaction. All significant operations were smoothly integrated, with virtually no measurable customer run-off or revenue loss. This is in stark contrast to the history of the mergers integrated by many of our competitors. Moreover, because of the excellent strategic fit between SunTrust and Wachovia and our consistent business models, and based on our previous discussions, we believe there is limited execution risk in combining SunTrust and Wachovia. It bears noting that our cost saving estimates project 3,000 fewer staff reductions and approximately 125-150 fewer branch closures than the First Union transaction -- figures which suggest materially less execution risk in connection with our proposal.

Our interest in this transaction is a reflection of our firm belief that a combination of our companies would be highly beneficial financially to both of our shareholder groups and accretive to SunTrust's earnings per share. In sum, we believe our proposal is superior to your proposed transaction with First Union based on its higher current value, maintenance of the Wachovia dividend and the opportunity for Wachovia shareholders to share in the earnings accretion deriving from a stronger combined franchise.

Our proposal requires the valid termination of your merger agreement with First Union, and we are filing preliminary proxy materials with the SEC today to enable us to seek proxies from the Wachovia shareholders to vote against the First Union transaction. The stock option you granted to First Union contains several excessive and unprecedented features, and we reserve the right to challenge the validity of that option. Nevertheless, in the interest of facilitating a transaction, our proposal assumes a payment to First Union of the "in-the-money" value of the option, subject to the cap set forth in the option agreement. Our proposal also requires an update and completion of the due diligence investigation we performed in December.

We were both disappointed and surprised by the announcement of your proposed merger. We were disappointed because we (and, we believe, the market) are convinced that a merger of our companies is a better fit and provides more compelling strategic benefits than your proposed transaction with First Union. And we were surprised because Wachovia did not make any effort to revisit the substantially completed merger negotiations that we conducted this past December. As you no doubt recall, our then-proposed merger was put on hold only days before it was to be announced. The transaction documents, including employment agreements, were essentially in final form; due diligence was substantially completed; and our financial advisors were working to finalize the investor presentation. It bears noting that the pricing we agreed to in December, which represented a 12% premium to Wachovia's then-current market price and included an increase in SunTrust's dividend to preserve Wachovia's dividend on a pro forma equivalent basis, would have provided greater value to Wachovia's shareholders than the value to be received in the First Union transaction. In any event, because of all the work that was done in December, we are extremely confident that we can reach definitive terms with you, as well as update and complete our due diligence, expeditiously.

My clear recollection is that our December transaction was put on hold by Wachovia solely because of concerns over two issues relating to the organization of the combined company's wealth management line of business. One of the issues concerned the reporting structure of the specialists (i.e., tax and estate planning, portfolio management, etc.) within that business. At SunTrust, the specialists in effect have dual reporting on the basis of geography and to a centralized unit (to implement uniform standards, investment policy and the like), whereas at Wachovia the specialists report only to a centralized business unit. As a practical matter, we do not believe these businesses function very differently on a day-to-day basis, and the difference in organizational structure does not in our view pose any particularly difficult integration issues. Importantly, I had advised Wachovia at the time that we were prepared to accept your operating structure for this business line. The second issue concerned the reporting relationship of the wealth management business -- whether this business should report to a vice-chairman to whom multiple business lines would be reporting (which was SunTrust's preference), or to me as president and chief operating officer, as Wachovia proposed. SunTrust's position on this issue was based upon our view that the wealth management line can benefit greatly through interaction with other lines of business, and our success in this area has demonstrated this. At any rate, this too appeared to us to be an eminently solvable issue.

In all events, we are confident that we can implement an approach to operating the wealth management business on a combined basis that captures the best features of both SunTrust and Wachovia.

The Board of Directors of SunTrust has unanimously approved this proposal and has authorized our management team to proceed. We have engaged Morgan Stanley; Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP; and King & Spalding to advise us in this transaction.

We would like to meet with you as soon as possible to discuss our proposal in greater detail. Please feel free to contact me at my office number or to have your respective financial or legal advisors contact Bill Weiant of Morgan Stanley or Bill Rubenstein of Skadden Arps regarding the matters set forth herein. We look forward to meeting with you soon.

Sincerely,

/s/ L. Phillip Humann

Also on May 14, 2001 SunTrust issued a press release announcing the SunTrust Merger Proposal and conducted an investor presentation which discussed the SunTrust Merger Proposal in detail.

On May 15, 2001, Theodore J. Hoepner, a shareholder of Wachovia, a participant in this proxy solicitation and a Vice Chairman of SunTrust, delivered a letter to Wachovia demanding certain corporate records and documents of Wachovia pursuant to his rights under the North Carolina Business Corporation Act and North Carolina common law. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, Wachovia has not complied with Mr. Hoepner's demand.

On May 18, 2001, Mr. Baker announced that the First Union Merger Agreement had been amended so as to delete any increase in retirement compensation for Mr. Baker in connection with the Proposed First Union Merger.

On May 22, 2001, First Union announced the Preferred Stock Election Feature. On the same day, Wachovia issued a press release announcing that its board of directors had rejected the SunTrust Merger Proposal and had reaffirmed its commitment to the Proposed First Union Merger. According to an article in The Wall Street Journal on May 24, 2001, Morris Offit, a Wachovia director, dissented from the decision of the Wachovia Board to reject the SunTrust Merger Proposal. According to that article, people familiar with the meeting said that when it came time for the Wachovia Board of Directors to vote, Mr. Offit explained he would not reject the SunTrust Merger Proposal because he liked the SunTrust business model and thought the cultural compatibility of SunTrust and Wachovia was better than that of First Union and Wachovia. Mr. Offit also reportedly raised concerns earlier in the meeting about whether Wachovia management and its advisers had adequately disclosed details of SunTrust's overtures. Mr. Offit, a Wachovia director, employee and significant shareholder, joined the Wachovia Board of Directors in 1999 after selling his New York trust bank, Offitbank Holdings Inc., to Wachovia. Mr. Offit currently owns directly or indirectly 489,201 Wachovia shares, making him by far the largest shareholder among Wachovia's directors.

In a letter to Wachovia shareholders dated May 22, 2001, Mr. Baker made four allegations regarding the SunTrust Merger Proposal: (1) a combined SunTrust/Wachovia will not provide adequate future earnings growth, (2) there is serious implementation risk in the SunTrust Merger Proposal, (3) the SunTrust Merger Proposal does not compensate Wachovia shareholders for SunTrust's inadequate future earnings growth and serious implementation risk, and (4) there is no dividend advantage to the SunTrust Merger Proposal.

On May 22, 2001, Mr. Baker sent a letter to the SunTrust Board in which he expressed Wachovia's disappointment at what he perceived to be SunTrust's efforts to take over Wachovia and asked SunTrust to respect the Wachovia Board's decision rejecting the SunTrust Merger Proposal and to withdraw the SunTrust Merger Proposal.

On the evening of May 22, 2001, SunTrust issued a press release indicating that it was disappointed by the decision of the Wachovia Board to reject the SunTrust Merger Proposal and that it would continue with its plan to solicit Wachovia shareholders to vote against the Proposed First Union Merger. The press release also announced that SunTrust was initiating litigation in state and federal court in Georgia. See "Certain Litigation." Also on May 22, 2001, First Union initiated litigation against SunTrust in state court in North Carolina. See "Certain Litigation."

CERTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING THE PROPOSED FIRST UNION MERGER

On April 15, 2001, First Union and Wachovia entered into the First Union Merger Agreement. The First Union Merger Agreement provides for a merger of Wachovia with and into First Union pursuant to which each outstanding share of Wachovia Common Stock would be converted into 2.0 shares of First Union common stock. On May 22, 2001, First Union announced that it is offering to Wachovia shareholders two alternatives that purport to guarantee that their dividend payments will remain at the current Wachovia level of $2.40 per share per annum. In connection with the Proposed First Union Merger, Wachovia shareholders would have the option to receive, in addition to two shares of First Union Common Stock, either (1) a one-time payment at closing of $0.48 per Wachovia share (as previously contemplated by the Proposed First Union Merger), or (2) shares of preferred stock (the "Preferred Shares") that would pay quarterly dividends in an amount equal to the difference between Wachovia's current quarterly per share dividend and the pro forma equivalent quarterly dividend per Wachovia share paid on the common stock of the combined Wachovia/First Union. Specifically, the new second alternative would provide Wachovia shareholders with two Preferred Shares, each of which would initially pay a quarterly cash dividend of $0.06 per share, so that Wachovia shareholders who elect this alternative would receive, on a pro forma equivalent per share basis, $0.48 in quarterly dividends on First Union common stock and $0.12 in quarterly dividends on the Preferred Shares, or the same $0.60 quarterly dividend per share currently paid by Wachovia. The dividend on the Preferred Shares would decline as the common dividend of the new Wachovia/First Union increases, until the new entity's common dividend equals or exceeds $1.20 per share (or $2.40 per Wachovia share on a pro forma equivalent basis). No further details as to the other terms of the Preferred Shares have been disclosed by First Union or Wachovia as of the date of this Proxy Statement, including whether the receipt of the Preferred Shares would be taxable or whether the Preferred Shares are transferable.

The obligations of Wachovia and First Union to complete the Proposed First Union Merger are subject to various conditions, including the approval of the stockholders of First Union and Wachovia, receipt of all required regulatory approvals without any conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company, and the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions.

The foregoing description of the First Union Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the First Union Merger Agreement, a copy of which has been included as an Annex to the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus.

CERTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING THE FIRST UNION OPTION

In connection with the execution of the First Union Merger Agreement, Wachovia and First Union also entered into the First Union Option, pursuant to which First Union has the right, upon the occurrence of certain events, to purchase up to 19.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of Wachovia Common Stock at the close of business on April 12, 2001, at a price per share of $59.482, subject to certain adjustments.

First Union may exercise the First Union Option if both an "initial triggering event" and a "subsequent triggering event" occur prior to the occurrence of an event that would terminate the First Union Option. An initial triggering event will occur if the Wachovia shareholders fail to approve the Proposed First Union Merger at the Annual Meeting. An initial triggering event also will occur when SunTrust files its application under the Bank Holding Company Act for Federal Reserve Board approval of the Proposed SunTrust Merger. A subsequent triggering event will occur if any person acquires beneficial ownership of 25% or more of the outstanding voting securities of Wachovia or if Wachovia enters into an agreement with respect to, or the Wachovia Board otherwise recommends that the Wachovia shareholders approve or accept, any transaction with a third party (other than First Union) involving a merger or consolidation of, or a sale of more than 25% of the business, assets or deposits of, or a purchase or other acquisition of securities constituting more than 25% of the voting power of, Wachovia or any of its subsidiaries. The execution by Wachovia of a definitive agreement providing for the Proposed SunTrust Merger would constitute a subsequent triggering event and would result in the First Union Option becoming exercisable.

Upon the occurrence of a "Repurchase Event" as defined in the First Union Option, upon the request of First Union, Wachovia would be required to repurchase from First Union the First Union Option and any shares issued under the First Union Option. The repurchase price is determined pursuant to a formula that is generally designed to capture the difference in value between (i) the $59.482 exercise price per share of the First Union Option and (ii) the highest of (a) the price at which a tender or exchange offer has been made, (b) the price per share of Wachovia common stock to be paid by a third party pursuant to an agreement with Wachovia and (c) the highest closing price of Wachovia common stock within the six-month period immediately preceding the date that the holder of the First Union Option gives notice to Wachovia of its desire to have Wachovia repurchase the First Union Option. Such difference in value, multiplied by the number of shares of Wachovia Common Stock subject to the First Union Option, is the repurchase price for the First Union Option (the "Repurchase Formula"). In addition, upon the occurrence of a Repurchase Event, First Union may surrender the First Union Option and any shares issued under the First Union Option held by First Union for a cash fee equal to $375 million (the "Minimum Surrender Value"), reduced correspondingly if there have been purchases of stock under the First Union Option and gains on the sale of such stock.

The First Union Option provides that First Union's "total profit" may not exceed $780 million. The term "total profit" is defined in the First Union Option as "the aggregate amount (before taxes) of the following: (1) the excess of (A) the net cash amounts or fair market value of any property received by [the holder of the First Union Option] pursuant to the sale of Option Shares (or any other securities into which such Option Shares are converted or exchanged) to any unaffiliated party, other than any amount received by [the holder of the First Union Option] upon the repurchase of Option Shares by [Wachovia] pursuant to Section 7, after payment of applicable brokerage or sales commissions and discounts, over (B) [the holder of the First Union Option]'s aggregate purchase price for such Option Shares (or other securities), plus (2) all amounts received by [the holder of the First Union Option] upon the repurchase of the Option by [Wachovia] pursuant to Section 7, plus (3) all equivalent amounts with respect to the Substitute Option and any amounts paid pursuant to Section 9, minus (4) all amounts of cash previously paid to [Wachovia] pursuant to Section 16(a)(3) and the value of all Option Shares (or other securities) previously delivered to [Wachovia] for cancellation pursuant to Section 16(a)(2), which value shall be deemed to be the purchase price by [Wachovia] for such Option Shares or other securities." SunTrust believes that the "total profit" provisions do not operate to limit the value of the First Union Option to $780 million in all circumstances. For example, while clause (2) would take into account the value realized by First Union on a repurchase by Wachovia of the First Union Option, clause (1) specifically provides that value realized by First Union as a result of the repurchase by Wachovia of shares of Wachovia Common Stock acquired upon exercise of the First Union Option is not to be taken into account in calculating the "total profit".

The SunTrust Merger Proposal is subject to certain conditions, including the First Union Option Condition. To satisfy the First Union Option Condition, either the First Union Option must be judicially invalidated or First Union must surrender the First Union Option for a cash payment equal to the in-the-money value of the First Union Option, subject to the Minimum Surrender Value of $375 million and the purported "cap" of $780 million. For purposes of the First Union Option Condition, SunTrust regards the in-the-money value of the First Union Option as equivalent to the value that would be determined under the Repurchase Formula. Because SunTrust has neither executed an agreement with Wachovia to acquire any shares of Wachovia Common Stock nor commenced an exchange offer to purchase shares of Wachovia Common Stock, the relevant price for purposes of the Repurchase Formula would be the highest closing price of Wachovia Common Stock during the six-month period preceding the date that the holder of the First Union Option gives notice to Wachovia of its desire to have Wachovia repurchase the First Union Option. SunTrust believes the highest closing price of Wachovia Common Stock during the six-month period preceding the date of this Proxy Statement is $68.1875. Accordingly, for purposes of the First Union Option Condition, the in-the-money value of the First Union Option as of the date of this Proxy Statement based on the Repurchase Formula is approximately $364 million ($68.1875 minus the exercise price of $59.482, multiplied by the approximately 41.8 million shares of Wachovia common stock subject to the First Union Option). Because the Minimum Surrender Value of the First Union Option is $375 million, which is higher than the value of the First Union Option based on the Repurchase Formula, the in-the-money value of the First Union Option for purposes of the First Union Option Condition as of the date of this Proxy Statement is $375 million.

In the event Wachovia was willing to enter into a definitive agreement with SunTrust with respect to the SunTrust Merger Proposal, and the implied value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal per share of Wachovia Common Stock at that time was higher than the highest closing price of Wachovia Common Stock during the preceding six-month period, then SunTrust would calculate the in-the-money value of the First Union Option for purposes of the First Union Option Condition based on the higher implied value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal. For example, if the implied value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal per share of Wachovia Common Stock were $70 at the time Wachovia was willing to enter into a definitive agreement with SunTrust with respect to the SunTrust Merger Proposal, the value of the First Union Option based on the Repurchase Formula would be approximately $440 million. Because $440 million is more than the Minimum Surrender Value of $375 million and less than the purported "cap" of $780 million, the in-the-money value of the First Union Option for purposes of the First Union Option Condition would be $440 million. As noted above, because the exchange ratio in the SunTrust Merger Proposal is fixed, the implied value of the SunTrust Merger Proposal will fluctuate based on changes in the market prices for SunTrust Common Stock. In addition, the highest closing price of Wachovia's Common Stock on a trailing six-months basis will vary over time. Accordingly, the in-the-money value of the First Union Option for purposes of the First Union Option Condition will fluctuate. As a practical matter, if Wachovia's shareholders do not approve the Proposed First Union Merger and Wachovia enters into merger discussions with SunTrust, SunTrust believes that it and First Union would enter into negotiations with respect to the appropriate surrender value of the First Union Option. However, there can be no assurance that First Union would enter into any such negotiations or that the parties would agree on the appropriate surrender value of the First Union Option.

In connection with the execution of the First Union Merger Agreement, Wachovia and First Union also entered into a Stock Option Agreement pursuant to which First Union granted Wachovia an option (the "Wachovia Option") to purchase up to 19.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of First Union Common Stock at the close of business on April 12, 2011, at a price per share of $31.892, subject to certain adjustments. The terms of the Wachovia Option are substantially the same as the terms of the First Union Option.

The foregoing description of the First Union Option and the Wachovia Option is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the First Union Option and the Wachovia Option, copies of which have been included as annexes to the Joint Proxy Statement- Prospectus.

REGULATORY APPROVALS REQUIRED FOR THE PROPOSED SUNTRUST MERGER

The completion of the Proposed SunTrust Merger will be conditioned on obtaining all regulatory approvals required for the merger and the expiration of all applicable waiting periods with respect thereto. These approvals and the expiration of any statutory waiting periods related to these approvals are referred to herein as the "requisite regulatory approvals." These include approval from the Federal Reserve Board and various state regulatory authorities. SunTrust intends to complete the filing as promptly as practicable after the date of this Proxy Statement of all applications and notifications required to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals. The Proposed SunTrust Merger cannot be consummated in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals. SunTrust cannot assure Wachovia shareholders as to whether or when the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, and, if obtained, SunTrust cannot assure Wachovia shareholders as to the date of receipt of any of these approvals or the absence of any litigation challenging them. Likewise, SunTrust cannot assure Wachovia shareholders that the United States Department of Justice (the "DOJ") or a state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the Proposed SunTrust Merger on antitrust grounds, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of that challenge.

SunTrust is not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the consummation of the Proposed

SunTrust Merger other than those described below. SunTrust presently contemplates that if any additional governmental approvals or actions are required, these approvals or actions will be sought. However, SunTrust cannot assure Wachovia shareholders that any of these additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Federal Reserve Board. The Proposed SunTrust Merger is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act. Assuming the Federal Reserve Board approves the Proposed SunTrust Merger, the merger may not be consummated for 30 days, during which time the DOJ may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds and seek divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With agreement of the Federal Reserve Board and the DOJ, this waiting period may be reduced to no fewer than 15 days.

The Federal Reserve Board is prohibited from approving any transaction under the applicable statutes that would result in a monopoly, or that would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize, or to attempt to monopolize, the business of banking in any part of the United States, or that may have the effect in any section of the United States of substantially lessening competition, or tending to create a monopoly, or resulting in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Also, in reviewing a transaction under the Bank Holding Company Act, the Federal Reserve Board will consider the financial and managerial resources of SunTrust and Wachovia and their respective subsidiary banks and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. As part of its consideration of these factors, SunTrust expects that the Federal Reserve Board will consider the regulatory status of SunTrust and Wachovia, including legal and regulatory compliance, and the overall capital and safety and soundness standards established by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991, as amended, and the regulations issued under that statute.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, the Federal Reserve Board will take into account the records of performance of SunTrust and Wachovia in meeting the credit needs of the entire communities, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by them. Each of the banking subsidiaries of SunTrust and Wachovia has received at least a satisfactory rating in its most recent Community Reinvestment Act examinations from their federal regulator with respect to this criterion.

The Federal Reserve Board will furnish notice and a copy of the application for approval of the Proposed SunTrust Merger to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the appropriate state regulatory authorities. These agencies have 30 days to submit their views and recommendations to the Federal Reserve Board. The Federal Reserve Board is required to hold a public hearing in the event it receives a written recommendation of disapproval of the application from any of these agencies within this 30-day period. Furthermore, the Bank Holding Company Act and Federal Reserve Board regulations require published notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the application submitted by SunTrust for approval of the Proposed SunTrust Merger, and authorize the Federal Reserve Board to hold a public hearing or meeting if the Federal Reserve Board determines that a hearing or meeting would be appropriate. Any hearing or meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is under review by the Federal Reserve Board.

If the DOJ were to commence an antitrust action, that action would stay the effectiveness of Federal Reserve Board approval of the Proposed SunTrust Merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the Proposed SunTrust Merger, the DOJ could analyze the Proposed SunTrust Merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve Board, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve Board regarding the Proposed SunTrust Merger's effects on competition. In particular, the DOJ may focus on the impact of the Proposed SunTrust Merger on competition for loans and other financial services to small and middle market businesses. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

SunTrust's estimates that SunTrust and Wachovia will need to make divestitures of deposits of up to approximately $1.5 billion, and related loans, in order to avoid a determination by the Federal Reserve Board or the DOJ that the Proposed SunTrust Merger would have a significantly adverse effect on competition in the relevant markets in those states. This estimate is based on Federal Reserve Board decisions in other cases and published deposit figures. Although there can be no assurances, SunTrust believes that the divestitures would not have a material negative effect on the combined company. Under Federal Reserve Board policy, the Proposed SunTrust Merger cannot be completed until there is an executed definitive agreement for the divestitures.

Other Regulatory Authorities. Applications or notifications are being filed with various state and/or foreign regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations in connection with acquisitions or changes in control of subsidiaries of SunTrust and/or Wachovia, including banks, broker-dealers and insurance subsidiaries, that may be deemed to result from the Proposed SunTrust Merger. In addition, the Proposed SunTrust Merger may be reviewed by the attorneys general in the various states in which SunTrust and Wachovia own banking subsidiaries. These authorities may be empowered under the applicable state laws and regulations to investigate or disapprove the Proposed SunTrust Merger under the circumstances and based upon the review provided for in applicable state laws and regulations.

Antitrust. Because the Proposed SunTrust Merger involves activities that are not subject to review by the Federal Reserve Board under Sections 3 or 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act, it is partially subject to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"). The HSR Act prohibits the completion of large transactions unless the parties notify the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") or the DOJ in advance and a specified waiting period expires. SunTrust intends to file premerger notification and report forms with the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the DOJ, and expects that Wachovia will fulfil its independent obligation to make such filings. A transaction or portion of a transaction that is notifiable under the HSR Act may not be consummated until the expiration of a 30 calendar-day waiting period, or the early termination of that waiting period, following the filing of premerger notification and report forms by the parties with the FTC and DOJ. If either the FTC or the DOJ were to request additional information or documentary material with respect to the Proposed SunTrust Merger from the parties prior to the expiration of the waiting period, the waiting period would expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on the 20th calendar day after the date of substantial compliance with that request. At any time before or after the completion of the Proposed SunTrust Merger and the exchange of shares, the FTC or the DOJ could take whatever action under the antitrust laws it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the Proposed SunTrust Merger, or seeking a divestiture of shares or assets.

No assurance can be provided as to if, or when, any of the required regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the Proposed SunTrust Merger will be obtained.

CERTAIN LITIGATION

On May 22, 2001, SunTrust commenced an action in United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia against Wachovia and First Union seeking to enjoin Wachovia and First Union from continuing to engage in alleged violations of the federal securities laws in furtherance of their efforts to solicit Wachovia shareholders to vote in favor of the Proposed First Union Merger. The complaint, as amended, alleges violations of Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. ss. 78n(a), and the rules promulgated thereunder in connection with certain public statements made in connection with the Proposed First Union Merger and the Proposed SunTrust Merger.

On May 23, 2001, SunTrust commenced an action in the Superior Court in Fulton County, Georgia against Wachovia, members of the Wachovia board of directors and First Union. The complaint alleges, among other things, breach of fiduciary duty and violations of Georgia law in connection with the First Union Option and a certain provision of the First Union Merger Agreement. On May 24, 2001, SunTrust was temporarily enjoined from prosecuting this action by order of the Superior Court in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, as discussed below.

On May 22, 2001, First Union and First Union National Bank commenced an action against SunTrust in the Superior Court, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina alleging violation of the North Carolina Unfair Practices Act, G.S. ss. 75-1.1 et seq. and tortious interference with prospective economic advantage in connection with certain conduct allegedly engaged in by SunTrust in connection with the Proposed First Union Merger and the Proposed SunTrust Merger. Among other things, Wachovia and First Union seek an order granting unspecified injunctive relief and a declaratory judgment that the First Union Option is valid and enforceable. The complaint also included a jury demand. The complaint was amended on May 23, 2001 to add Wachovia as a plaintiff and to add a claim for breach of contract.

On May 24, 2001, SunTrust removed the North Carolina state court action to the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. However, before the removal notice was filed in the North Carolina Superior Court, that court granted plaintiffs' motion for a temporary restraining order ("TRO") restraining SunTrust from prosecuting the action in Georgia state court. On May 25, SunTrust filed a motion in the North Carolina federal court for an expedited hearing and to dissolve the TRO entered by the North Carolina Superior Court, which is scheduled to be heard on May 29, 2001. Plaintiffs in the North Carolina action have moved to remand the action to the state court.

OTHER PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

As set forth in the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus, at the

Edgar Filing: WACHOVIA CORP/ NC - Form PRRN14A

Annual Meeting, Wachovia shareholders will be asked to approve (in addition to the First Union Merger Agreement and the Proposed First Union Merger) (i) the election of five director candidates named in the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus, (ii) the Wachovia directors' appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of Wachovia for the year 2001 (collectively, the "Other Proposals"), and (iii) such other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. SunTrust is not making any recommendations on the Other Proposals.

According to information contained in the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus, election of the nominees for director requires a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting, and ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting.

The accompanying [BLUE] proxy card will be voted in accordance with your instructions on such card. You may vote for approval of one or both of the Other Proposals, or vote against, or abstain from voting on, one or both of the Other Proposals, by marking the proper box on the [BLUE] proxy card. IF NO DIRECTION IS INDICATED WITH REGARD TO ANY OF THE OTHER PROPOSALS, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE GIVEN A DIRECTION TO ABSTAIN FROM VOTING THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE [BLUE] PROXY CARD ON SUCH OTHER PROPOSAL.

Except as set forth above, SunTrust is not aware of any other matter to be considered at the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matter properly comes before the Annual Meeting, SunTrust will vote all proxies held by it as SunTrust, in its sole discretion, may determine.

DISSENTER'S RIGHTS

The following description of dissenter's rights of Wachovia shareholders in connection with the Proposed First Union Merger is taken from the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus and assumes that the Proposed First Union Merger is completed.

According to the Joint Proxy Statement-Prospectus, if the Proposed First Union Merger is completed, a Wachovia shareholder of record who objects to the First Union Merger and who fully complies with Sections 55-13-01 through 55-13-31 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the "BCA") will be entitled to demand and receive payment in cash of an amount equal to the fair value of all, but not less than all, of such holder's shares of Wachovia Common Stock. A shareholder of record may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in that shareholder's name only if that shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one beneficial owner and notifies Wachovia in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf that registered shareholder asserts dissenters' rights.

If you are a Wachovia shareholder and desire to dissent and receive cash payment of the fair value of your Wachovia Common Stock you must comply with the procedural requirements of the BCA, including, without limitation: (1) delivering to Wachovia, prior to the shareholder vote on the Proposed First Union Merger, a written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the Proposed First Union Merger is completed; (2) not voting your shares in favor of the Proposed First Union Merger; and (3) demanding payment and depositing your stock certificates with Wachovia in accordance with the terms of a dissenters' notice to be sent to all dissenting shareholders within 10 days after the Proposed First Union Merger is approved by the Wachovia shareholders.

Within 30 days after First Union pays for the shares of a dissenting shareholder, or within 30 days of First Union failing to timely act in accordance with the BCA, the dissenting shareholder may notify First Union that he or she does not accept the estimate of fair value of the shares and interest due on that fair value and that the shareholder demands payment in the amount of the shareholder's own estimate of the fair value of the shares and interest due. If, within 60 days of First Union's payment, or dissenting shareholder's demand for payment of a different amount, whichever is earlier, the payment amount has not been settled, the dissenting shareholder may file an action in the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice, requesting that the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares be determined. The court will have discretion to make all dissenting shareholders whose demand remain unsettled parties to the proceeding. If a dissenting shareholder does not begin the proceeding within the 60-day period, he will be deemed to have withdrawn his dissent and demand for payment.

Voting against, abstaining from voting or failing to vote on the proposal to approve the Proposed First Union Merger is not enough to satisfy the requirements of the BCA. You must also comply with all of the conditions relating to the separate written notice of intent to dissent to the merger, the separate written demand for payment of the fair value of your shares of Wachovia Common Stock and the deposit of your stock certificates.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Proxies will be solicited by mail, telephone, telefax, telegraph, the Internet, newspapers and other publications of general distribution and in person. Directors, officers and certain employees of SunTrust and the other participants listed on Schedule II hereto may assist in the solicitation of proxies without any additional remuneration (except as otherwise set forth in this Proxy Statement).

SunTrust has retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated ("Innisfree") for solicitation and advisory services in connection with solicitations relating to the Annual Meeting, for which Innisfree is to receive a fee estimated not to exceed $400,000 in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting. Up to 200 people may be employed by Innisfree in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting. SunTrust has also agreed to reimburse Innisfree for out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Innisfree against certain liabilities and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and related charges. Innisfree will solicit proxies for the Annual Meeting from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders. Directors, officers and certain employees of SunTrust may assist in the solicitation of proxies without any additional remuneration. The entire expense of soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting by or on behalf of SunTrust is being borne by SunTrust.

SunTrust has retained Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor in connection with the SunTrust Merger Proposal. Pursuant to a Letter Agreement between Morgan Stanley and SunTrust, SunTrust has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley for its financial advisory services in connection with the SunTrust Merger Proposal a financial advisory fee of (1) $5 million upon public announcement of the SunTrust Merger Proposal, and (2) additional fees, in varying amounts payable periodically or upon the occurrence of certain events, of up to $25 million (less all amounts previously paid or payable as described in (1) above). SunTrust has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its reasonable expenses, including the fees and expenses of their legal counsel incurred in connection with Morgan Stanley's engagement by SunTrust. In addition, SunTrust has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and certain related persons against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of their engagement.

In connection with Morgan Stanley's engagement as financial advisor, SunTrust anticipates that certain employees of Morgan Stanley may communicate in person, by telephone or otherwise with a limited number of institutions, brokers or other persons who are Wachovia shareholders for the purpose of assisting in the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting. Morgan Stanley will not receive any fee for or in connection with such solicitation activities apart from the fees which it is otherwise entitled to receive as described above.

These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of SunTrust's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.
