Edgar Filing: TEREX CORP - Form 8-K

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Terex Corporation ("Terex" or the "Company") and Colin Robertson, the newly appointed Executive Vice President, Operations of Terex, have entered into an Offer Letter dated as of January 5, 2006 (the "Robertson Letter"). A copy of the Robertson Letter is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the attached Robertson Letter.

Pursuant to the Robertson Letter, Mr. Robertson's employment with Terex as Executive Vice President, Operations, reporting to Ronald M. DeFeo, the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Terex, is strictly at will. However, termination of employment by Mr. Robertson is subject to twelve (12) months written notice from him to the Company.

Under the Robertson Letter, Mr. Robertson is to receive an initial annual base salary of $525,000, subject to review periodically by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, as well as annual bonuses and long-term incentive compensation in accordance with any plan or plans established by the Company. Mr. Robertson will continue to be eligible to participate in the Terex Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and will receive additional benefits, including reimbursement of certain relocation expenses and a company car.

As soon as practicable and to the extent permitted by law, Mr. Robertson will receive a grant of 10,000 shares of Terex common stock as well as an option to purchase 5,000 shares of Terex common stock at the closing price of a share of Terex common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the award. All shares and options will typically vest ratably over a four-year period.

If Terex appoints a new Chief Operating Officer of the Company, other than Mr. Robertson, on or before December 31, 2008, then under certain circumstances Mr. Robertson will be entitled to receive a severance benefit equal to his annual base salary.

The Robertson Letter requires Mr. Robertson to keep certain information of the Company confidential during his employment and thereafter. The Robertson Letter also contains an agreement by Mr. Robertson not to compete with the business of the Company during his term of employment with the Company and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter. In addition, Mr. Robertson agrees that he will not at any time during the period of his employment with the Company and for a period of eighteen (18) months thereafter, directly or indirectly, engage in any business or own or control any interest in, or act as a director, officer, employee, agent or consultant of certain specified competitors of the Company.
