Basic Energy, Inc.
(A Development Stage Company)
Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE #1 - Organization

The Company was organized on June 4, 1926 under the laws of the state of Utah using the name of M.M. Lead Company. On February 22, 1980 a Certificate of Amendment was filed with the state of Utah changing the name to Basic Energy, Inc. The Company has been dormant for many years and is considered to be a development stage company.

NOTE #2 - Significant Accounting Policies

A. The Company uses the accrual method of accounting.

Edgar Filing: BASIC ENERGY INC - Form 10QSB

- B. Revenues and directly related expenses are recognized in the period when the goods are shipped to the customer.
- C. The Company considers all short term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible, within three months, to known amounts as cash equivalents. The Company currently has no cash equivalents.
- D. Primary Earnings Per Share amounts are based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding at the dates of the financial statements. Fully Diluted Earnings Per Shares shall be shown on stock options and other convertible issues that may be exercised within ten years of the financial statement dates.
- E. Estimates: The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE #3 - Stockholders' Equity - Common Stock

Upon Incorporation the Company had 1,000,000 shares of common stock authorized with a par value of $0.10 per share. On February 28, 1979 the Articles of Incorporation were changed authorizing 20,000,000 shares with a par value of $0.10 per share.

The Company issued 600,000 shares of its common stock to acquire mining claims in 1926. In 1937, the Company wrote the claims off as having no value.

The shares issued in 1926 were assessable, and in 1937 the 600,000 shares were assessed at $.001 per share, 423,780 shares did not pay the assessment and were canceled.

During the year ended June 30, 2002, the Company issued 792,196 shares to officers and directors for services and out of pocket expenses. The shares were issued at $0.10 per share.

NOTE #4 - Going Concern

The Company has had recurring operating losses since inception and is dependent upon financing to continue operations. These factors indicate that the Company may be unable to continue in existence. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets, or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary in the event the Company cannot continue its existence. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. It is the intent of the Company to find additional capital funding and/or a profitable business venture to acquire or merge.

NOTE #5 - Subsequent Events

On October 5, 2002, the Company issued 138,875 shares of common stock to officers and directors of the Company as full payment for services and out of pocket expenses incurred during the quarter.

Edgar Filing: BASIC ENERGY INC - Form 10QSB

ITEM 2. PLAN OF OPERATIONS

Safe Harbor Statement

This Form 10-QSB contains certain forward-looking statements. For this purpose any statements contained in this Form 10-QSB that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, words such as "may," "will," "expect," "believe," "anticipate," "estimate" or "continue" or comparable terminology are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially depending on a variety of factors.

Plan of Operations

The Company has little cash and has experienced losses. As of September 30, 2002, the Company had $ 894 cash on hand. As of that date the Company had $49,224 in outstanding liabilities. The Company has no material commitments for capital expenditures for the next twelve months.

As of the date of this report, the Company has yet to generate positive cash flow. The Company has financed its operations primarily through the sale of common stock.

The Company believes that its current cash needs can be met either through the sale of additional stock or through loans. Should the Company obtain a business opportunity, however, it may be necessary to raise additional capital. This may be accomplished by selling common stock of the Company.

Management of the Company intends to actively seek business opportunities for the Company during the next twelve months.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

None.

Item 2. Changes in Securities

No instruments defining the rights of the holders of any class of registered securities have been materially modified, limited or qualified.

On January 23, 2002, the Company issued 198,178 shares of its restricted common stock to its officers and directors for services rendered to the Company during the quarter ended December 31, 2001. The number of shares received by each such individual was based on a compensation rate of $40.00 per hour for services rendered and $0.31 per mile as compensation for mileage. The shares issued were valued at $.10 per share. Shares issued were issued as follows:

	Number of Shares	Value of Services
	-----	-----
Jay W. Gibson	138,115	$13,811.50
Ron Burnett	9,948	994.80
Karl Seljass	12,076	1,207.60
Joyce Sigler	8,219	821.90
Joe Graubard	29,820	2,982.00

The Company made no public offers or sale of these securities. All of the shares listed above were issued pursuant to an exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933. No cash was received by the

Company.

Also on January 23, 2002, the Company issued 1,500 restricted common shares to Carriage Motor Company as payment for rents due at a rate of $50.00 per month for the preceding three months. The Company made no public offers or sales of these securities. The shares were issued pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the '33 Act. No cash was received by the Company. Mr. Burnett is the owner of Carriage Motor Company and may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of these shares.

Item 3. Defaults upon Senior Securities

None.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders
