Item 5.04: Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans

On December 15, 2008, Fulton Financial Corporation reported, on a Form 8-K filed with the Commission, a blackout period event with respect to participants in The Columbia Bank 401(k) Plan & Trust (the "Columbia Plan") during which participants would be temporarily unable to direct or diversify investments in their individual accounts, including investments in Fulton Financial Corporation common stock, or obtain distributions or loans from the Columbia Plan. The blackout period began December 30, 2008 and was originally scheduled to end the week of February 15, 2009. The blackout period actually ended on February 9, 2009. The blackout period ended early as a result of the early completion of the transition to Fulton Financial Advisors, N.A. as the trustee and recordkeeper for the Plan.
