ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The Merger Agreement

On March 8, 2006, Micron Technology, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Micron), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with March 2006 Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Micron (Merger Sub) and Lexar Media, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Lexar). The Merger Agreement contemplates that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Lexar, with Lexar continuing after the merger as the surviving corporation (the Merger).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Lexar will be converted into the right to receive 0.5625 shares of Micron common stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Exchange Ratio"), and each issued, outstanding, unexpired and unexercised Lexar employee stock option that has an exercise price per share of $9.00 or less will be converted into Micron employee stock options using the Exchange Ratio.

The Board of Directors of Lexar (the Board) has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Lexar and Micron have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Lexar's covenants include, among others, that (i) Lexar will conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger, (ii) Lexar will not engage in certain types of transactions during such interim period, (iii) Lexar will call, hold and convene a meeting of the Lexar stockholders to be held to consider adoption of the Merger Agreement, (iv) subject to certain exceptions, the Board will recommend to Lexar's stockholders that they adopt the Merger Agreement, (v) Lexar will not solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, and (vi) subject to certain exceptions, Lexar will not enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

Lexar and Micron intend to file a prospectus/proxy statement in connection with the meeting of Lexar stockholders to be held with respect to the proposed Merger. Completion of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including, among other things, (i) adoption of the Merger Agreement by Lexar's stockholders; (ii) expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act; (iii) absence of any order or injunction prohibiting the consummation of the Merger; (iv) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the each party; and (v) compliance of each party with its covenants.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Micron and Lexar, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Lexar may be required to pay Micron a termination fee.

This description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Voting Agreements

Edgar Filing: MICRON TECHNOLOGY INC - Form 8-K

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Lexar's executive officers and each member of the Board, in their capacities as stockholders, entered into a Voting Agreement with Micron (each, a "Voting Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, each executive officer of Lexar and member of the Board agreed with Micron to vote in favor of the Merger and agreed not to dispose of any of shares common stock held by such executive officer or member of the Board prior to the consummation of the Merger. The Voting Agreements will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement. This description of the Voting Agreements is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Voting Agreements, a form of which is filed as Exhibit 2.2 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreements provide investors with information regarding their terms. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about Micron or Lexar. In addition, the Merger

Agreement contains representations and warranties of each of the parties to the Merger Agreement and the assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. The parties reserve the right to, but are not obligated to, amend or revise the Merger Agreement or the disclosure schedules. In addition, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date because they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose, at the time they were made or otherwise.

Additional Information about the Merger and Where to Find It
