Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 2, 2006, Beacon Roofing Supply, Inc. (the Company) entered into a new, seven-year $500 million U.S. senior secured credit facility and a C$15 million senior secured Canadian credit facility with GE Antares Capital ( GE Antares ) and a syndicate of other lenders (together the Credit Facility ). The Credit Facility refinanced the prior $360 million credit facilities that were also provided by GE Antares. GE Capital Markets, Inc., served as the sole lead arranger and bookrunner on the new facility, which provides the Company with lower interest rates and funds for future acquisitions and ongoing working capital requirements. The Company has additional cash and cash equivalents of approximately $47 million on its balance sheet following the closing and funding of the Credit Facility.

The Credit Facility consists of a U.S. revolving credit facility of $150 million (the US Revolver ), which includes a sub-facility of $20 million for letters of credit, and a $350 million term loan (the Term Loan ), with required amortization of 1% per year, payable in quarterly installments, and the remainder due in 2013. The Credit Facility also includes a C$15 million senior secured revolving credit facility provided by GE Canada Finance Holding Company. The Credit Facility may be expanded by up to an additional $200 million in the future under certain conditions.

The US Revolver carries an interest rate of LIBOR plus 1% while the Term Loan carries an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2%. Unused fees on the Credit Facility are 0.25%. Availability under the Credit Facility is limited to 85% of the net amount of eligible accounts receivable, increasing to 90% from January through April of each year. Financial covenants apply only to the Term Loan and are limited to a maximum leverage ratio and a maximum level of capital expenditures.

The Credit Facility also contains customary restrictive covenants for credit facilities of this type relating to the operations and management of the Company, including limitations on indebtedness, liens, investments, mergers and acquisitions, dispositions of assets, cash dividends and transactions with affiliates. The Credit Facility provides for customary events of default, including the failure to pay principal, interest or fees when due, the failure to comply with covenants, the occurrence of an uncured default under other agreement involving indebtedness in excess of $5 million, the inaccuracy in any material respect when made of any representation or warranty made by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, the commencement of certain insolvency or receivership events affecting the Company or any of its subsidiaries and the occurrence of a change in control of the Company. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the commitments of the lenders may be terminated and all outstanding obligations of the Company under the Credit Facility may be declared immediately due and payable.

Other than the Credit Facility itself, there is no material relationship between the Company and GE Antares, although the Company still has some outstanding obligations associated with certain previously financed items of equipment from GE Antares.

The foregoing is a summary of the material terms and conditions of the Credit Facility and is not a complete discussion of the agreement. Accordingly, the foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Facility, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2 (Canada).

The closing on the Credit Facility follows the execution of a commitment letter dated September 22, 2006, between the Company and GE Antares, attached hereto, along with the summary of terms as of that date, as Exhibit 10.3, which preceded and contemplated the final negotiation and documentation of a credit facility on similar terms as the Credit Facility filed herewith.

A copy of the press release announcing the closing the Credit Facility is also attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
