Item 1.01. Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 4, 2010, Force Protection, Inc. ("Force Protection") was awarded through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Force Protection Industries, Inc., a contract modification under its contract M67854-07-D-5031 with the U.S. Marine Corps Systems Command for additional modernization of the U.S. military's Mine Resistant Ambush Protected ("MRAP") Cougar vehicles. The approximate $46.1 million firm, fixed price contract modification provides for the purchase of 2,451 enhanced Automated Fire Extinguishing Systems. Deliveries are scheduled to begin in July 2010 and be completed by February 2011. The award was made pursuant to a contract between Force Protection Industries, Inc. and U.S. Marine Corps Systems Command dated January 25, 2007 for the testing, production and sustainability for its MRAP vehicle program.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 7, 2010, Force Protection issued a press release announcing the June 4, 2010 contract modification from the U.S. Marine Corps System Command. A copy of the press release issued on June 7, 2010 is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions of Force Protection's management, and on information currently available to management. These forward looking statements include, among other things: the growth, demand and interest for Force Protection's vehicles, including the Cougar; expectations for future modernization and related contracts for the Cougar; the benefits and suitability of the Cougar; the ability to meet current and future requirements; the anticipated work commencement and completion dates for Force Protection's products; Force Protection's execution of its business strategy and strategic transformation, including its opportunities to grow the business; and Force Protection's expected financial and operating results, including its revenues, cash flow and gross margins, for future periods. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and Force Protection undertakes no obligation to update any of them publicly in light of new information or future events. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Examples of these factors include, but are not limited to, the ability to effectively manage the risks in Force Protection's business; the ability to develop new technologies and products and the acceptance of these technologies and products; the ability to obtain new orders for its vehicles and products; and the other risk factors and cautionary statements listed in Force Protection's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the risks set forth in Force Protection's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2010.
