Announcement of China Southern Airlines Company Limited

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Listing Rules.

China Southern Airlines Company Limited (hereinafter referred as the “Company”) and all the members of its board of directors confirm the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the contents of this announcement and jointly and severally accept responsibility for any false representation, misleading statement or material omission contained herein.

Recently, the High People’s Court of Guangdong Province served a court summons on the Company with respect to the lawsuit concerning a contractual dispute filed against the Company by Taiwan J & P International Tours Co., Ltd. and Taiwan China Southern Aviation Travel Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Plaintiffs”).

In August 2004, the Company entered into a cooperation agreement with an appendix attached thereto with the Plaintiffs and, in September 2004, Nan Lung Travel & Express (H.K.) Ltd., a sales agency of the Company in Hong Kong, entered into an air ticket sales agency agreement with the Plaintiffs, the performance of both of which agreements has been completed. However, the Plaintiffs have filed a lawsuit against the Company for the so-called liquidated damages for breach of the provisions on air ticket sales commissions and other payments under those two agreements, which totals HKD107,133,769.92. According to the above-mentioned summons issued by the High People’s Court of Guangdong Province, the parties to this lawsuit are to exchange evidence on July 25, 2007 and a formal court session is to be held on July 30, 2007. The Company is now in the process of retaining legal counsels and will form a team to actively defend itself.

Based on the evidence now available, the Company believes that this lawsuit will not have any material effect on the business operations and financial position of the Company.

By order of the Board
