PART III —NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Value Line, Inc. (the "Registrant") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended January 31, 2011 on a timely basis for the reasons described below, which could not be eliminated by the Registrant without unreasonable effort or expense. The Registrant received a comment letter from the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance dated February 4, 2011 to which it responded on February 18, 2011, with respect to the Registrant's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2010 filed on July 16, 2010; Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A Filed August 6, 2010; and Forms 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended July 31, 2010 and October 31, 2010. The Registrant received a second comment letter dated March 4, 2011 containing further comments and questions with respect to the above-referenced reports and the Registrant's February 18, 2011 response. The comment letters raise a number of issues regarding the Registrant's application of certain accounting principles to the novel reorganization of Registrant's former investment adviser and broker-dealer subsidiaries that was completed on December 23, 2010. The Registrant has not been able to complete its analysis of the accounting principles in time to make a timely filing of its Form 10-Q. The accounting principles in question are expected to have a material effect on the manner in which the Registrant presents the effects of the reorganization. The Registrant has been unable to complete the remainder of the Form 10-Q because of diversion of the attention of its finance and accounting personnel to addressing the significant matters raised in the SEC comment letters.
