(e)

(f) Mr. Schnatter is a United States citizen.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

No change from Amendment No. 29.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended and supplemented as follows.

On February 4, 2019, the Issuer announced that it had entered into a securities purchase agreement with Starboard Value LP (together with its affiliates, “Starboard”) pursuant to which, among other things, Starboard will acquire shares of a new class of preferred stock and receive other benefits as well, in exchange for a payment of up to $250 million (the “Starboard Transaction”).

On Saturday, February 2, 2019, promptly after learning about the proposed Starboard Transaction, Mr. Schnatter sent a non-binding proposal to the Issuer’s Board of Directors (the “Schnatter Proposal”) stating that Mr. Schnatter was willing to make an investment in the Issuer of up to $250 million on terms that were substantially similar to, but superior to, the Starboard Transaction, including that (a) Mr. Schnatter offered a lower dividend rate, thereby reducing costs to the Issuer, and (b) Mr. Schnatter offered to limit the voting rights of the newly issued shares. Mr. Schnatter believed these enhancements to the terms of Starboard’s offer rendered the Schnatter Proposal materially superior to the Starboard Transaction. The Special Committee of the Issuer, however, rejected the Schnatter Proposal.

The Schnatter Proposal contemplated the following terms:

Issue Size: Mr. Schnatter would invest $200 million with the option to invest up to an additional $50 million at the same terms on a future date. An additional $10 million of the security would be made available to qualified franchisees of the Issuer, for total potential proceeds to the Issuer of up to $260 million, subject to a cap of 20% of the Issuer’s current shares outstanding.

Security: Private investment in public equity transaction involving the sale of shares of a new class of the Issuer’s preferred stock.

Dividend: 3.35% cash dividend (with right to increase, as noted below) paid quarterly plus any regular or special dividends or distributions paid to the Issuer’s common stockholders, subject to a floor of the Issuer’s current regular quarterly dividend.

Mr. Schnatter would have a right to increase the dividend to 5.35% after three years and 7.35% after five years, paid quarterly plus any regular or special dividends or distributions paid to the Issuer’s common stockholders, subject to a floor of the Issuer’s current regular quarterly dividend. If Mr. Schnatter exercises this right, the Issuer would have the right to redeem at par value plus any accrued, unpaid dividends.

Conversion Price: 22.5% premium to the reference price identified below.

Reference Price: Ten-day (trading days) volume-weighted average price immediately following announcement of the proposed transaction, subject to 130% cap / 90% floor of the closing price the day prior to the announcement.

Schnatter Cash Put: Mr. Schnatter would have a cash put right at eight years.

Issuer Mandatory Conversion: The Issuer would have a conversion right after five years if the Issuer's Common Stock is trading at 190% of the conversion price for 30 consecutive trading days.

Redemption: The preferred stock would be freely redeemable at either party's option at par after eight years.

Other Terms:

o Mr. Schnatter would have the right to nominate two board members (one independent of Mr. Schnatter).

o To avoid potential change of control issues, the new preferred shares would be voted in accordance with the Board of Director's recommendations or in proportion to how the shares owned by the Issuer's public stockholders are voted.

o The new preferred shares would be redeemable at Mr. Schnatter's option upon a change of control of the Issuer if the successor entity is not a publicly traded corporation.

o Mr. Schnatter would not be permitted to transfer the new preferred shares for one year after closing.

The Schnatter Proposal, if consummated, could result in one or more of the actions specified in clauses (a) to (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, including, without limitation, the acquisition of additional securities of the Issuer, a change in the board of directors or management of the Issuer and a material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer. As indicated above, however, the Issuer rejected the Schnatter Proposal. Mr. Schnatter believed that the Starboard Transaction essentially reflected the same terms as the Schnatter Proposal, except at greater cost to the Issuer.

In light of the Starboard Transaction, Mr. Schnatter is withdrawing the Schnatter Proposal. Mr. Schnatter is also evaluating the legal remedies available to him in connection with the Issuer's decision to enter into the Starboard Transaction.

Other than as set forth above and in prior filings made by Mr. Schnatter, including Schedule 13D/A Amendment No. 28 filed on October 19, 2018, Mr. Schnatter does not have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Mr. Schnatter may, at any time and from time to time, formulate other purposes, plans or proposals regarding the Issuer or the Common Stock, or any other actions that could involve one or more of the types of transactions or have one or more of the results described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

9,967,243 (31.09125%)

Sole voting power: 9,967,243

Shared voting power: 0

(b) Sole dispositive power: 9,965,127

Shared dispositive power: 0

(c) During the sixty days prior to this filing, Mr. Schnatter neither disposed of nor acquired any shares of Common Stock.

Item 6. Contract, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

No change from Amendment No. 29.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits

None.
