The listing of the ordinary shares of Signet Group plc ('Signet Shares') on the Official List and the admission to trading of Signet Shares on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities were cancelled with effect from 8.00 a.m. today.

Sir Malcolm Williamson, Chairman, commented: "We are very pleased that the move of Signet's primary listing to the New York Stock Exchange has been successfully completed. This will align the primary listing of the Group with its business activities which are predominantly in the US. As a result there is both a potentially larger pool of investors who are familiar with our activities and a more appropriate public company peer group. At the same time the secondary listing in London encourages UK ownership of Signet going forward."

Terms defined in the circular sent to Signet Group plc's shareholders on 24 July 2008 (the 'Scheme Circular') shall have the same meaning in this announcement.
