Business Report for the 5th Fiscal Year

(from April 1, 2006 to March 31, 2007)

1. Matters Regarding the Current State of the Company

(1) Developments and Results of Operations, etc. of Mizuho Financial Group

Financial and Economic Environment

Looking back over the global economic climate during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007, the overall trend in the worldwide economy, including the U.S., Europe and Asia, was improving steadily as a whole. The Japanese economy showed sustained growth, supported by robust exports and continuous strength in capital expenditures against a backdrop of steady improvement in corporate performance. Consumer prices remained positive with a rise in domestic corporate goods prices due to stronger global commodity markets. To that end, the Bank of Japan, meanwhile, decided to follow-up on its ending of zero interest rates in July 2006 by raising the operating target of money market operations (the uncollateralized overnight call rate) by another 0.25% to around 0.5% in February 2007.

As for the Japanese financial and capital markets, stock prices held firm backed by robust corporate performance. In spite of a temporary rise in long-term interest rates early in the fiscal year in the wake of the lifting of the quantitative easing policy, rates remained on a downward trend during the latter half of the period in response to the declining trends in U.S. interest rates, etc.

Financial institutions continue to develop individual strategies utilizing their respective strengths to the full. In response to the changing economic environment, the ability of Mizuho Financial Group (the Group) to secure a competitive edge over our rivals and to consolidate profitability even further are likely to become ever more important.

Main Businesses of the Group

The Group is composed of Mizuho Financial Group, Inc. (MHFG), 133 consolidated subsidiaries and 19 affiliates under the equity method. The Group engages in banking, securities, trust, asset management and other financial businesses.

Developments and Results of Operations

The Group has steadily developed its Business Portfolio Strategy and Corporate Management Strategy as action programs under its business strategy, the Channel to Discovery Plan, in order to gain recognition as a global financial group. Through these efforts, our ADRs are now listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and we have acquired status as a U.S. Financial Holding Company. Moreover, as of July 2006, we have completed repayment of the public funds extended in March 1998 and March 1999.

[Business Portfolio Strategy]

The three global groups established on the basis of customer needs (the Global Corporate Group, Global Retail Group, and Global Asset & Wealth Management Group) worked to further improve profitability by utilizing their respective characteristics.

(Global Corporate Group)

Mizuho Corporate Bank, Ltd. (MHC B) strongly expanded its global reach in order to establish a complete support system to meet various customer needs both in Japan and overseas. To further reinforce its overseas network, MHC B proceeded to deploy overseas business bases by opening branches in New Delhi, Wuxi, Brussels (*1) and Ho Chi Minh City while entering into strategic alliances with influential foreign financial institutions in Thailand, South Korea, Kazakhstan, Mexico and other countries. Next, in pursuing syndicated loan transactions, a field in which the Group leads the market in Japan, MHC B made efforts to arrange syndicated loans for foreign corporations raising funds in Japan and improved its business operations on a global scale through the deployment of staff dedicated to syndicated loans in New York, London and Hong Kong. Further, in December 2006, MHC B together with MHFG acquired the status as a Financial Holding Company (FHC) under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act from the regulatory authority so that we can engage in comprehensive investment banking businesses such as underwriting and dealing corporate bonds, equities and other types of securities through subsidiaries, etc.

Mizuho Securities Co., Ltd. (MHSC) improved its internal controls through organizational changes, etc. and developed advanced services based on the three pillars of its operations, which are, corporate bonds, equities and investment banking. MHSC also strengthened its domestic sales network through collaborations with regional banks in the area of securities brokerage. Further, in March 2007, MHSC entered into an agreement to merge with Shinko Securities Co., Ltd. in January 2008, subject to approval at the general shareholders meeting and clearance from the relevant authorities, in order to offer competitive cutting-edge financial services on a global basis.

*1 Brussels Branch
Branch of Mizuho Corporate Bank Nederland N.V.

(Global Retail Group)

In order to provide individual customers with ample convenience and security, Mizuho Bank, Ltd. (MHBK) launched a new settlement service using mobile phones and increased the number of corporate partners for the Mizuho Mileage Club

(a membership service with more than three million members) and introduced a biometric authentication system (finger vein pattern authentication) for ATM transactions. MHBK also commenced deployment of Mizuho Personal Squares, a new type of small branch based on needs of individual customers. To further enhance its consulting business, MHBK started providing comprehensive services for investments of retirement allowances, trained and deployed more financial consultants to offer various proposals and increased the number of Premium Salons, booths in branches that specialize in private consultations, to 250 in total. In addition to developing trust agency functions, MHBK increased the number of Planet Booths, joint branches with Mizuho Investors Securities Co., Ltd., to 100 and thereby further developed a one-stop service structure capable of responding to customer needs in banking, trusts and securities. MHBK endeavored to implement the utmost measures to meet the diverse needs of housing loan customers by expanding housing loan centers to sell loans in collaboration with real estate agents, holding frequent weekday after hours and weekend consultations, working proactively to shorten screening periods and offering housing loans with a sickness security rider covering the three major life-threatening diseases. Concerning card loans, MHBK began accepting applications via the Internet in order to improve customer service.

For corporate customers, MHBK proactively responded to the financial requirements of customers by assigning more staff with expertise in working with new loans, by using the Mizuho Business Financial Center, an entity that primarily engages in loans for small-scale enterprises, etc. Further, in collaboration with other group companies, MHBK offered wide-ranging solutions for customer business strategies such as successions of business, M&A, business-to-business matching services and advisory services on overseas expansion.

(Global Asset & Wealth Management Group)

Mizuho Trust & Banking Co., Ltd. (MHTB) focused further on the strengthening of its Trust & Asset management businesses such as pensions, asset management, real estate, securitization, trust & custody, and stock transfer agency businesses. As a result, gross profits from its Trust & Asset management businesses exceeded JPY 100 billion. MHTB maintained strong performance particularly in its real estate, trust and custody, and pensions and asset management businesses by providing highly specialized products and cooperating with other group companies.

Mizuho Private Wealth Management Co., Ltd., a company established to provide customers in Japan with full-fledged private banking services, has been providing comprehensive and integrative services comparable to those found in the U.S. and Europe in compliance with Japanese legal regulations.

In March 2007, Dai-Ichi Kangyo Asset Management Co., Ltd. and Fuji Investment Management Co., Ltd., our two asset management subsidiaries, entered into an agreement to merge in July 2007, subject to clearance from relevant authorities and other relevant procedures. The merger is expected to enable them to more appropriately respond to diversifying and ever more sophisticated customer needs.

[Corporate Management Strategy]

As part of the corporate management strategy outlined in the Channel to Discovery Plan, we listed our ADRs (American Depositary Receipts) (*2) on the New York Stock Exchange in November 2006 as a means of enhancing the transparency of our corporate governance and raising investor confidence in our company to a higher level. While preparing for the listing, we sought not only to comply with disclosure standards in Japan, but also to develop a system for financial disclosure based on U.S. GAAP, one of the global standards for leading global companies, and established disclosure and internal control practices in compliance with the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act, recognized as the strictest accounting and reporting standards in the world today.

As for CSR (corporate social responsibility) activities, MHFG has been providing support for financial education through activities such as Mizuho-sponsored courses and lectures organized by key personnel dispatched from group companies to Waseda University, Hitotsubashi University and Keio University. We also carried out joint research in financial education with Tokyo Gakugei University. Further, we agreed to establish and start Mizuho-sponsored courses and lectures at Tokyo University and Kyoto University in fiscal 2007. MHCB also decided to become the first overseas company to establish a scholarship system for junior high schools in China, as a means of assisting fundamental education. MHCB readopted the now reinforced Equator Principles (*3), a set of international standards voluntarily adopted by banks that engage in large-scale international development projects, to monitor and assess whether impacts on the environment and local communities have been duly considered in plans for project finance transactions. Aiming to become a bank that is easy for anyone to use regardless of age, gender or disability, MHBK made its branches barrier-free, placed whiteboards at teller windows for the speech-impaired, and trained its officers and employees to respond more effectively to aged and handicapped customers.

Under our brand strategy, we actively promoted our brand slogan, Channel to Discovery, both internally and externally. The slogan represents the role the Group will play, not only to realize today's dreams, but also to discover new possibilities that lie ahead and to create a better future.

2 ADR (American Depositary Receipt)

ADRs are securities of foreign companies issued for trading in the U.S. market in place of the companies' underlying stocks. As ADRs are registered with the SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission) as U.S. securities, they are traded, settled and held in custody in substantially the same manner as shares of U.S. companies.

3 Equator Principles

The Equator Principles are international standards uniformly employed by private banks, in their role as lenders, to monitor and assess whether project finance transactions have taken into consideration the impact they may have on the local natural environment and community.

[Results of Operations for fiscal 2006]

Implementation of various measures to enhance profitability have led to steady increases in income from Customer Groups, including the priority areas such as our retail and international sector businesses. Meanwhile, as a result of an increase in credit-related costs and the recording of a loss related to stocks, with respect to the consolidated figures (133 consolidated subsidiaries and 19 affiliates under the equity method) for this fiscal year although Ordinary Income increased from the previous fiscal year to JPY 4,099.6 billion, Ordinary Profits and Net Income decreased to JPY 748.1 billion and JPY 620.9 billion, respectively.

Results of operations for the major subsidiaries were as follows:

Company Name	(JPY billion)
	Ordinary Income (Operating Income)	Ordinary Profits	Net Income
Consolidated Results of MHFG	4,099.6	748.1	620.9
MHBK	1,264.2	179.0	206.2
MHCB	1,804.2	313.6	323.1
MHTB	241.5	79.7	68.8
MHSC	135.9	45.2	27.8

(Note)

The calculated figures for the major subsidiaries are on a non-consolidated basis.

The Group maintains its financial soundness at a high level, as our consolidated capital adequacy ratio (BIS Capital Ratio) as of March 31, 2007 was maintained at a sufficient level of 12.48%(*4) and the non-performing loan ratio for the three banks (MHBK, MHCN and MHTB combined) was at a low level as of the same date.

In accordance with our capital policy, in July 2006, we repaid in full the public funds and repurchased and cancelled MHFG's common stock held by Mizuho Financial Strategy Co., Ltd. (approximately JPY 130.0 billion). In January 2007, we issued JPY 400.0 billion of non-dilutive preferred debt securities through an overseas special purpose subsidiary to reinforce the capital base.

In view of our consolidated financial results, the level of Retained Earnings and other factors, we proposed increasing the year-end cash dividends per share of common stock for fiscal 2006 to JPY 7,000. We also proposed making dividend payments on preferred stock as prescribed.

In the future, we will place our management emphasis on ROE (*5) from the perspective of effective utilization of our capital and consider returning profits to the shareholders while maintaining and strengthening our capital base.

Based on market conditions, our earnings trend and other factors, we will set up a limit for repurchasing our common stock and start repurchasing those shares for the purpose of, among other things, offsetting the potential dilutive effect of the conversion of the Eleventh Series Class XI Preferred Stock in consideration of the possibility that the number of shares of our common stock will increase after the commencement of the conversion period from July, 2008. We plan to cancel all the common stock repurchased.

This is calculated in accordance with the Basel II regulations (new standard). (If calculated in accordance with the Basel I (former standard), 11.58%)

*5 ROE (Return on Equity)

A financial measure of the effectiveness with which a company uses its equity, etc. to acquire profits.

Issues to be Addressed by the Group

In order to achieve total and final completion of its Channel to Discovery Plan, promoted as a business strategy since fiscal 2005, and to increase corporate value significantly, the Group will further advance its Business Portfolio Strategy in which the three global groups established based on the basis of customer needs within the Group strive to improve profitability by exploiting their respective characteristics. We will strive also to win the further confidence of domestic and overseas customers by developing a Corporate Management Strategy by careful consideration of customer perspectives and by establishing a solid compliance structure and advanced risk management system.

[Business Portfolio Strategy]

(The Global Corporate Group)

MHCB will continue to reinforce the global strategy it has pursued to date, in order to respond more promptly and sophisticatedly to the increasingly advanced and global management and financial issues engaging our customers. More specifically, having acquired its status as a FHC under the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act in December 2006, MHCB intends to strengthen further its operations in the Americas and expand its comprehensive investment banking business by combining banking and securities services. MHCB will also move forward with preparations for establishing banking subsidiaries in China now that it has acquired approval from local authorities (granted in December 2006), while striving to expand further its branch networks in the Americas, Asia, Europe, Middle East and other regions. MHCB will also accelerate efforts for full-scale deployment of forefront asset management services targeting domestic and foreign institutional investors.

MHSC will aim to become a market leader in securities and investment banking businesses offering the most suitable solutions to a wide range of customer needs and intensively pursuing group synergy by actively promoting mutual collaboration within the group. In addition, by virtue of its merger with Shinko Securities Co., Ltd. scheduled for January 2008, MHSC intends quickly to attain the highest capabilities in product development, financial technology and marketing.

(The Global Retail Group)

MHBK will actively deploy Personal Squares (branches based on needs of individual customers) in order to increase the strength of its products and services, further improve the Mizuho Mileage Club membership service, expand channels and develop new products for personal loans, and reinforce its asset management consulting functions to meet a wide range of customer needs. In the small and medium-sized enterprise market, MHBK aims to offer the most suitable solutions tailored to ever more diverse and sophisticated customer needs by reinforcing its M&A and business inheritance advisory functions, support for initial public stock offerings and customers' overseas business operations and so on. In addition to taking these measures, MHBK continuously strives to establish a stable revenue base by decisively streamlining its headquarters organization, transferring personnel to branches, and deepening and strengthening its customer relationships even further.

(The Global Asset & Wealth Management Group)

MHTB plans to embark on various new types of trust businesses as it develops new products and reinforces its consulting strengths within a climate strongly influenced by the easing of regulatory controls, the revision of the Trust Business Law and so on. MHTB plans to expand its market share by employing a trust agency system and further strengthening business collaborations with group companies, and thereby becoming the most trusted bank by customers and clients.

Mizuho Private Wealth Management Co., Ltd., as a full-fledged private banking company, aims to establish long-term relationships with customers by providing optimal, high-quality comprehensive and integrative products and services tailored to the needs of individual customers.

In addition, Dai-Ichi Kangyo Asset Management Co., Ltd. and Fuji Investment Management Co., Ltd. will merge in July 2007 to form a new company called Mizuho Asset Management Co., Ltd. This new company will strive to meet a wide range of customer needs as a central player in the asset management business of the Group, together with DLIBJ ASSET MANAGEMENT CO., LTD.

[Corporate Management Strategy]

In order to establish solid internal control systems, the Group will promote strengthening its compliance systems by establishing a business structure that will enable the Group to identify issues of concern at an early stage, adopt the amended regulations for international standard regarding the soundness of banks, or Basel II, and further strengthen disclosure and internal control practices in compliance with the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

In promoting CSR, the Group will particularly emphasize and focus on five different themes: involvement in environmental awareness, supporting financial education, enhancement of corporate governance, implementation of highly-responsive communications and promotion of a group-wide approach to CSR, all of which are significant themes in order for the Group to coexist and develop with the community. In supporting financial education, we will make appropriate and extensive contributions towards helping primary, secondary and high school students.

In our efforts to become a financial partner that helps customers shape their future and achieve their dreams (an ideal implicit in the Group brand slogan, Channel to Discovery), the Group will work to further increase our corporate value by steadily implementing the Business Portfolio Strategy and Corporate Management Strategy so as to enhance our competitiveness and profitability and to fulfill our social responsibilities and public duties. We sincerely look forward to the continuing support of our shareholders.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

1. Amounts less than one million yen are rounded down.
2. Trading transactions intended to take advantage of short-term fluctuations and arbitrage opportunities in interest rates, currency exchange rates, market prices of securities and related indices are recognized on a trade date basis and recorded in Trading Assets or Trading Liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet. Securities and other monetary claims held for trading purposes are stated at fair value at the consolidated balance sheet date. Derivative financial products, such as swaps, futures and option transactions, are stated at their fair values, assuming that such transactions were terminated and settled at the consolidated balance sheet date.
3. Bonds held to maturity are stated at amortized cost (straight-line method) and determined by the moving average method. Investments in majority-owned non-consolidated subsidiaries, other non-consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates, which are not under the equity method, are stated at acquisition cost and determined by the moving average method. Other Securities which have readily determinable fair value are stated at fair value. Fair value of securities other than Japanese stocks is determined at the quoted market price if available, or other reasonable value at the consolidated balance sheet date (cost of securities sold is calculated primarily by the moving average method). Other Securities which do not have readily determinable fair value are stated at acquisition cost or amortized cost and determined by the moving average method. The net unrealized gains on Other Securities are included directly in Net Assets, net of applicable income taxes after excluding gains and losses as a result of the fair-value hedge method.
4. Securities which are held as trust assets in Money Held in Trust accounts are valued in the same way as given in Note 3.
5. Derivative transactions (other than transactions for trading purposes) are valued at fair value.
6. Depreciation of buildings is computed mainly by the straight-line method, and that of equipment is computed mainly by the declining-balance method, and the applicable share of estimated annual depreciation costs for the period is recorded based on the following range of useful lives.
Buildings: 3 years to 50 years

7. Amortization of Intangible Fixed Assets is computed by the straight-line method. Development costs for internally-used software are capitalized and amortized over their estimated useful lives of mainly five years as determined by MHFG and consolidated subsidiaries.
8. Deferred assets are treated as follows:
 - (1) Bond issuance costs are expensed as incurred.
 - (2) Until the previous fiscal year, debenture issuance costs were capitalized and amortized over a certain period not exceeding the maximum period stipulated by the former Enforcement Regulations of the Commercial Code of Japan. However, in accordance with the application of the Tentative Solution on Accounting for Deferred Assets (the Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) Report No. 19, August 11, 2006) effective from the fiscal year ending upon or after the public announcement of such, MHFG adopted the new accounting standard commencing with this fiscal year. The effect of the change mentioned above on the consolidated balance sheet is immaterial. Debenture issuance costs booked on the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2006 are amortized under the straight-line method within a certain period by applying the previous accounting method based on the tentative measure stipulated in the ASBJ report.

Edgar Filing: MIZUHO FINANCIAL GROUP INC - Form 6-K

- (3) Until the previous fiscal year, bond discounts and debenture discounts were capitalized and amortized under the straight-line method over the term of the bonds and debentures. However, in accordance with the partial revision of Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments (the Business Accounting Deliberation Council, January 22, 1999) as of August 11, 2006 (ASBJ Statement No. 10) and the application effective from the fiscal year ending upon or after the public announcement of such, MHFG adopted the revised accounting standard commencing with this fiscal year, and bonds and debentures were stated at amortized cost (straight-line method). The effect of this application on the consolidated balance sheet is immaterial. Bond discounts and debenture discounts booked on the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2006 are amortized under the straight-line method over the term of the bond and debenture by applying the previous accounting method and the unamortized balance is directly deducted from bonds and debentures, based on the tentative measure stipulated in the Tentative Solution on Accounting for Deferred Assets (ASBJ Report No. 19, August 11, 2006).
9. Assets and Liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and accounts of overseas branches of domestic majority-owned consolidated banking subsidiaries and trust banking subsidiary are translated into Japanese yen primarily at the exchange rates in effect at the consolidated balance sheet date, with the exception of the investments in majority-owned non-consolidated subsidiaries, other non-consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates not under the equity method, which are translated at historical exchange rates. Assets and Liabilities denominated in foreign currencies of the majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and other consolidated subsidiaries, except for the transactions mentioned above, are translated into Japanese yen primarily at the exchange rates in effect at the consolidated balance sheet dates.
10. Reserves for Possible Losses on Loans of major domestic majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and other consolidated subsidiaries are maintained in accordance with internally established standards for write-offs and reserve provisions. For claims extended to obligors that are legally bankrupt under the Bankruptcy Law, Special Liquidation under the Company Law or other similar laws (Bankrupt Obligors), and to obligors that are effectively in similar conditions (Substantially Bankrupt Obligors), reserves are maintained at the amounts of claims net of direct write-offs described below and expected amounts recoverable from the disposition of collateral and the amounts recoverable under guarantees. For claims extended to obligors that are not yet legally or formally bankrupt but are likely to be bankrupt (Intensive Control Obligors), reserves are maintained at the amounts deemed necessary based on overall solvency analyses of the amounts of claims net of expected amounts recoverable from the disposition of collateral and the amounts recoverable under guarantees.
- For claims extended to Intensive Control Obligors and Obligors with Restructured Loans (defined in Note 29 below) and others, if the exposure to an obligor exceeds a certain specific amount, reserves are provided as follows: (i) if future cash flows of the principal and interest can be reasonably estimated, the discounted cash flow method is applied, under which the reserve is determined as the difference between the book value of the loan and its present value of future cash flows discounted using the contractual interest rate before the loan was classified as a Restructured Loan, and (ii) if future cash flows of the principal and interest cannot be reasonably estimated, reserves are provided for the losses estimated for each individual loan.
- For claims extended to other obligors, reserves are maintained at rates derived from historical credit loss experience and other factors. Reserve for Possible Losses on Loans to Restructuring Countries are maintained in order to cover possible losses based on analyses of the political and economic climates of the countries
- All claims are assessed by each claim origination department in accordance with the internally established Self-assessment Standard, and the results of the assessments are verified and examined by the independent examination departments. Reserves for Possible Losses on Loans are provided for on the basis of such verified assessments.

In the case of claims to Bankrupt Obligors and Substantially Bankrupt Obligors, which are collateralized or guaranteed by a third party, the amounts deemed uncollectible (calculated by deducting the anticipated proceeds from the sale of collateral pledged against the claims and amounts that are expected to be recovered from guarantors of the claims) are written off against the respective claims balances. The total directly written-off amount was ¥536,916 million.

The claims above include corporate bonds which are guaranteed by domestic majority-owned consolidated banking subsidiaries and are issued by private placement (Article 2, Paragraph 3 of the Securities and Exchange Law) and others in securities.

Other majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and other consolidated subsidiaries provide the amount necessary to cover the loan losses based upon past experience and other factors for general claims and the assessment for each individual loan for other claims.

11. Reserve for Possible Losses on Investments is maintained to provide against possible losses on investments in securities, after taking into consideration the financial condition and other factors concerning the investee company.
12. Reserve for Bonus Payments, which is provided for future bonus payments to employees, is maintained at the amount accrued at the end of the fiscal year, based on the estimated future payments.
13. Reserve for Employee Retirement Benefits (including Prepaid Pension Cost), which is provided for future benefit payments to employees, is recorded as the required amount, based on the projected benefit obligation and the estimated plan asset amounts at the end of the fiscal year. Unrecognized actuarial differences are recognized as income or expenses from the following fiscal year under the straight-line method over a certain term within the average remaining service period of the employees of the respective fiscal year.
14. Until the previous fiscal year, MHFG and certain domestic majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and other consolidated subsidiaries recognized director and corporate auditor retirement benefits as expenses at the time of payment. However, in accordance with the public announcement of the Accounting Standard for Directors Bonus (ASBJ Statement No. 4, November 29, 2005) and the Auditing Treatment relating to Reserve defined under the Special Tax Measurement Law, Reserve defined under the Special Law and Reserve for Director and Corporate Auditor Retirement Benefits (The Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants (JICPA) Auditing and Assurance Practice Committee Report No. 42, April 13, 2007), these benefits are recorded as Reserve for Director and Corporate Auditor Retirement Benefits at the required amount at the end of the fiscal year, based on internally established standards. As a result, Ordinary Profits and Income before Income Taxes and Minority Interests, both decreased by ¥5,788 million, compared with the corresponding amounts under the previously applied method.
15. Reserve for Contingencies is maintained to provide against possible losses from contingencies, which are not covered by other specific reserves in off-balance transactions, trust transactions and others. The balance is an estimate of possible future losses, on an individual basis, considered to require a reserve.
16. Finance leases of MHFG and domestic majority-owned consolidated subsidiaries and other consolidated subsidiaries that do not involve transfer of ownership to the lessee are accounted for as operating leases.
17. Consolidated subsidiaries apply the deferred method, the fair-value hedge method or the exceptional accrual method for interest rate swaps as hedge accounting methods.

The portfolio hedge for a large volume of small-value monetary claims and liabilities of domestic majority-owned consolidated banking subsidiaries and trust banking subsidiaries is accounted for by the method stipulated in the Accounting and Auditing Treatment relating to Adoption of Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments for Banks (JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No.24). The effectiveness of hedging activities for the portfolio hedge for a large volume of small-value monetary claims and liabilities is assessed as follows:

- (i) as for hedging activities to offset market fluctuation risks, the effectiveness is assessed by bracketing both the hedged instruments, such as deposits and loans, and the hedging instruments, such as interest-rate swaps, in the same maturity bucket.
- (ii) as for hedging activities to fix the cash flows, the effectiveness is assessed based on the correlation between a base interest rate index of the hedged cash flow and that of the hedging instrument.

The effectiveness of the individual hedge is assessed based on the correlation between the fluctuation in the market or cash flows of the hedged instruments and that of the hedging instruments.

Net Deferred Hedge Losses, net of Taxes recorded on the consolidated balance sheet resulted from the application of the macro-hedge method based on the Tentative Accounting and Auditing Treatment relating to Adoption of Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments for Banks (JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No.15), under which the overall interest rate risks inherent in loans, deposits and others are controlled on a macro-basis using derivatives transactions. These deferred hedge gains/losses are amortized as interest income or interest expenses over the remaining maturity and average remaining maturity of the respective hedging instruments. The unamortized amounts of gross deferred hedge losses and gross deferred hedge gains on the macro-hedges, before net of applicable income taxes, at the end of the fiscal year were ¥241,602 million and ¥229,553 million, respectively.

18. The effectiveness of the hedge is assessed by confirming both the amount for the foreign currency position of the hedging instruments of currency-swap transactions, exchange swap transactions and similar transactions as the method of hedging the foreign exchange risks of monetary claims and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and the amount for the foreign currency position of the hedged monetary claims and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are equivalent.

In addition to the above methods, these subsidiaries apply the deferred method or the fair-value hedge method to portfolio hedges of the foreign exchange risks associated with investments in majority-owned subsidiaries, other subsidiaries and affiliates in foreign currency and Other Securities in foreign currency (except for bonds) identified as hedged items in advance, as long as the amount of foreign currency payables of spot and forward foreign exchange contracts exceeds the amount of acquisition cost of the hedged foreign securities in foreign currency.

19. Inter-company interest rate swaps, currency swaps and similar derivatives among consolidated companies or between trading accounts and other accounts, which are designated as hedges, are not eliminated and related gains and losses are recognized in the statement of income or deferred under hedge accounting, because these inter-company derivatives are executed according to the criteria for appropriate outside third-party cover operations which are treated as hedge transactions objectively in accordance with JICPA Industry Audit Committee Reports Nos. 24 and 25.

The amount of devaluation for the fiscal year was ¥3,247 million.

The criteria for determining whether a security's fair value has significantly deteriorated are outlined as follows:

Securities whose fair value is 50% or less of the acquisition cost

Securities whose fair value exceeds 50% but is 70% or less of the acquisition cost and the quoted market price maintains a certain level or lower

45. Overdraft protection on current accounts and contracts for the commitment line for loans are contracts by which banking subsidiaries are bound to extend loans up to the prearranged amount, at the request of customers, unless the customer is in breach of contract conditions. The unutilized balance of these contracts amounted to ¥53,899,937 million. Of this amount, ¥44,504,074 million relates to contracts in which the original contractual maturity is one year or less, or which are unconditionally cancelable at any time.

Edgar Filing: MIZUHO FINANCIAL GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Since many of these contracts expire without being exercised, the unutilized balance itself does not necessarily affect future cash flows. A provision is included in many of these contracts that entitles the banking subsidiaries to refuse the execution of loans, or reduce the maximum amount under contracts when there is a change in the financial situation, necessity to preserve a claim or other similar reasons. The banking subsidiaries obtain, moreover, real estate, securities or others as collateral at the time the contract is entered into, if needed, and periodically monitor customers' business conditions, based on and in accordance with internally established standards, and take measures to control credit risks such as amendments to contracts, if needed.

46. The appendix forms of Banking Law Enforcement Regulations (Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 10, 1982) have been revised by the Cabinet Office Ordinance to Amend Part of Detailed Enforcement Regulations on Mutual Loan Business Law and Banking Law (Cabinet Office Ordinance No. 60, April 28, 2006), following the application of Accounting Standards for Presentation of Net Assets in the Balance Sheet (ASBJ Statement No. 5, December 9, 2005) and Guidance on Accounting Standards for Presentation of Net Assets in the Balance Sheet (ASBJ Guidance No. 8, December 9, 2005) effective from the fiscal year ending on or after the enforcement date of the Company Law. In accordance with the application of the revised Banking Law Enforcement Regulations commencing with the fiscal year beginning on or after April 1, 2006, presentation of account items has been changed as follows:

(1) Former Shareholders Equity is presented as Net Assets and classified into Shareholders Equity, Valuation and Translation Adjustments and Minority Interests.

The amount corresponding to former Shareholders Equity as of the end of this fiscal year was ¥5,022,335 million.

(2) The net realized and unrealized losses from hedging instruments formerly included in Other Assets as deferred hedge losses are presented as Net Deferred Hedge Losses, net of Taxes included in Valuation and Translation Adjustments, net of applicable income taxes.

(3) Minority Interests formerly listed after Liabilities is included in Net Assets.

(4) Former Premises and Equipment is classified into Tangible Fixed Assets, Intangible Fixed Assets and Other Assets.

(a) As a result, building, land and equipment formerly included in Premises and Equipment are presented as Buildings, Land and Other Tangible Fixed Assets included in Tangible Fixed Assets, and suspense payment for construction formerly included in the said account is presented as Construction in Progress included in Tangible Fixed Assets.

(5) Amortization of consolidation differences formerly recognized as Other under Other Ordinary Expenses is included as amortization of intangible fixed assets in General and Administrative Expenses under Ordinary Expenses.

47. In response to the Practical Solution on Application of Control Criteria and Influence Criteria to Investment Associations (ASBJ Report No. 20, September 8, 2006) effective from the fiscal year ending upon or after the public announcement, MHFG adopted the new accounting standard commencing with this fiscal year. This adoption has no effect on the consolidated balance sheet since investment associations deemed other subsidiaries in the ASBJ report had already been consolidated.

48. Accounting Standards for Treasury Shares and Appropriation of Legal Reserve (ASBJ Statement No. 1, February 21, 2002) and Guidance on Accounting Standards for Treasury Shares and Appropriation of Legal Reserve (ASBJ Guidance No. 2, February 21, 2002) were partially revised as of December 27, 2005 and August 11, 2006. Given that the revisions apply to procedures stipulated by the Company Law, MHFG has applied the above standards and guidance commencing with this fiscal year. The effect of this application on the consolidated balance sheet is immaterial.

49. The Board of Directors of MHFG resolved on April 20, 2007 to redeem preferred securities issued by MHFG's overseas special purpose subsidiaries, as described below.

[NOTES TO NON-CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS]

BASIS FOR PRESENTATION AND PRINCIPLES OF PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Valuation of Securities

Investments in subsidiaries and affiliates and Other Securities which do not have readily determinable fair value are stated at acquisition cost and determined by the moving average method.

2. Depreciation and Amortization of Fixed Assets

(a) Tangible Fixed Assets

Depreciation of Buildings is computed by the straight-line method, and that of Equipment is computed by the declining-balance method with the following range of useful lives.

Buildings: 4 years to 47 years

Equipment: 2 years to 17 years

(b) Intangible Fixed Assets

Trademarks are amortized under the straight-line method over ten years.

Development costs for internally-used software are capitalized and amortized under the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives of mainly five years.

3. Capitalization and Amortization of Deferred Assets

Establishment Costs and Start-Up Costs are capitalized and amortized under the straight-line method over five years.

4. Reserves

(a) Reserve for Bonus Payments, which is provided for future bonus payments to employees, is maintained at the amount accrued at the end of the fiscal year, based on the estimated future payments

(b) Reserve for Employee Retirement Benefits, which is provided for future benefit payments to employees, is recorded as the required amount, based on the projected benefit obligation and the estimated plan asset amounts at the end of the fiscal year. Unrecognized actuarial differences are recognized as income or expenses from the following fiscal year under the straight-line method over a certain term (ten years) within the average remaining service period of the employees of the respective fiscal year.

(c) Reserve for Director and Corporate Auditor Retirement Benefits, which is provided for future retirement benefit payments to directors and corporate auditors, is recorded as the required amount at the end of the fiscal year, based on internally established standards.

(Changes in Basis for Presentation and Principles of Preparation of Financial Statements)

Edgar Filing: MIZUHO FINANCIAL GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Until the previous fiscal year, MHFG recognized director and corporate auditor retirement benefits as expenses at the time of payment.
