Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On December 12, 2007, American Apparel, Inc. (formerly Endeavor Acquisition Corp.; the Registrant) consummated its acquisition (the Acquisition) of American Apparel Inc., (AAI), a California corporation, and its affiliated companies. After giving effect to the Acquisition and the issuances of shares in the transaction as described herein, the Registrant has outstanding 57,168,810 shares of common stock.

The Acquisition was consummated under the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated December 16, 2006 and amended and restated as of November 7, 2007, by and among the Registrant, AAI Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Merger Sub), AAI, American Apparel, LLC, a California limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of AAI (LLC), each of American Apparel Canada Wholesale Inc. and American Apparel Canada Retail Inc., each formed under the Canada Business Corporation Act (together the CI companies and, together with AAI and LLC, American Apparel), Dov Charney, Sam Lim, and the stockholders of each of the CI companies (the Acquisition Agreement). The material terms of the Acquisition Agreement are contained in the Registrant's definitive proxy statement (SEC File No. 001-32697) filed November 28, 2007 (hereinafter referred to as the Proxy Statement), in the sections entitled The Acquisition Proposal, beginning on page 51 and The Acquisition Agreement, beginning on page 86, and are hereby incorporated by reference.

At the closing of the Acquisition (the Closing):

AAI merged with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant;

All of the outstanding capital stock of each of the CI companies was acquired by the Registrant, with each of the CI companies surviving the transaction as wholly owned subsidiaries of the Registrant; and

The Registrant consummated the buyout of all of Mr. Lim's interest in AAI and LLC for an aggregate price of approximately $67.8 million.

In return for all of his capital stock in American Apparel, Mr. Charney, an owner of 50% of the outstanding capital stock of AAI, 50% of the outstanding membership interests in LLC and 100% of the securities of the CI companies, received from the Registrant an aggregate of 37,258,065 shares of the Registrant's common stock. Mr. Charney has agreed not to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of the Registrant's common stock received by him in the acquisition until the third anniversary of the Closing, subject to certain exceptions.

At the Closing, an escrow agreement (the Escrow Agreement) was entered into covering certain of the shares as a fund for the payment of indemnification claims that may be made by the Registrant as a result of any breaches of American Apparel's covenants, representations and warranties in the Acquisition Agreement and certain lawsuits to which American Apparel is a party. The material terms of the escrow agreement are contained in the section of the Proxy Statement in the section entitled The Acquisition Agreement Escrow Agreement beginning on page 87 and are hereby incorporated by reference. The Escrow Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Upon the Closing, the Registrant and Merger Sub entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Charney, as Chief Executive Officer of the Registrant, Merger Sub and the CI companies. The material terms of this agreement are contained in the Proxy Statement beginning on page 215 in the section entitled Directors and Executive Officers of Endeavor Following the Acquisition Executive Compensation Employment Agreement and Non-Competition Covenants. The employment agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

At the Closing, the Registrant entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement") with Mr. Charney with respect to shares of the Registrant's common stock owned by Mr. Charney. The Registration Rights Agreement provides that Mr. Charney will have the right to demand on two occasions that the Registrant cause a registration to be filed and declared effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, covering the resale of any and all of such shares. In addition, Mr. Charney will receive piggyback registration rights with respect to such shares. The registration rights agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law concerning indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents is set forth below.

Section 145. Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents; insurance.

(a) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this section (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination, (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

(g) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to the corporation shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or acquisition which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) For purposes of this section, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the corporation as referred to in this section.

(j) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(k) The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification brought under this section or under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Court of Chancery may summarily determine a corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorneys' fees).
