CNH America LLC and United Auto Workers Reach Agreement on Contract

BURR RIDGE, IL - (March 29, 2010) - CNH America LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNH Global N.V., today announced that the United Auto Workers (UAW) voted to ratify a new six-year contract with the company. The agreement will replace the existing contract which is scheduled to expire on April 30, 2011, and will become effective at the time CNH announces the decision to manufacture additional product lines at the Burlington facility.

The agreement was reached by the company and the union on March 25, 2010 and ratified by a majority of its approximately 750 UAW represented employees today. Should this contract become effective, its expiration date would be April 30, 2016 for contracted employees at Racine, Burlington and Burr Ridge sites. We are very pleased with this agreement, said Harold Boyanovsky, President and CEO of CNH Global N.V. We believe this contract sets a framework of success for employees, customers, dealers, and shareholders.
