(a) On November 17, 2011, the board of directors (the Board) of the Company amended Section 12 of Article III (Qualification of Directors) to the Company's By-Laws to reference the definition of director independence contained in the Company's Board Governance Guidelines rather than explicitly defining independence in the By-Laws. The definition of independence in the Board Governance Guidelines is substantially similar to those contained in the By-Laws. In addition, as part of the transfer of stock exchange listing to the NASDAQ described above, certain definitions of independence in the Board Governance Guidelines will be amended to conform to the NASDAQ independence requirements.

The By-Laws amendment and the Board Governance Guidelines amendment will become effective upon the transfer of stock exchange listing to the NASDAQ.
