Section 4 - Matters Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

Dismissal of Former Certifying Accountants. On July 8, 2013 the registrant dismissed its independent auditor, Gruber & Company LLC ("Gruber") due to the June 27, 2013 revocation of Gruber's registration by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

Gruber & Company's reports on the registrant's financial statements during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and 2011 and any subsequent interim period through July 8, 2013, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except that Gruber & Company's reports on the registrant's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and 2010, raised substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern.

The decision to dismiss Gruber & Company was approved by the registrant's board of directors.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010 and any subsequent interim period through July 8, 2013, there have not been any disagreements between the registrant and Gruber & Company on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Gruber & Company, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports on the financial statements for such periods.

Engagement of New Certifying Accountants. As of the date this report, the registrant has not engaged a new independent accountant. The registrant will file an 8-K disclosing its new auditor once engaged..

The registrant has provided Gruber & Company with a copy of the disclosures it is making in this Current Report on Form 8-K, which Gruber & Company has received no later than the day that the disclosures are filed with the Commission. The registrant requested that Gruber & Company furnish the registrant with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the registrant in response to Item 304(a) of Regulation S-K, and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of Gruber & Company's letter is being filed herewith.
