Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 9, 2015, NeuStar, Inc. (“NeuStar” or the “Company”), a Delaware corporation, and Transaction Network Services, Inc. (“TNS” or the “Seller”), a Delaware corporation, entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Asset Purchase Agreement”) whereby the Seller has agreed to sell its caller authentication business to the Company (the “Transferred Business”).

The Asset Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement is subject to customary conditions, including (i) expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the “Hart-Scott-Rodino Act”), and (ii) absence of a material adverse effect on the Transferred Business.

The purchase price payable by NeuStar is $220 million, determined on a “cash-free, debt-free” basis. Of the $220 million purchase price, $10 million will be deposited in a separate indemnity escrow account at closing and will be available to satisfy post-closing indemnification claims.

The Asset Purchase Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for NeuStar and the Seller and further provides that, upon termination of the Asset Purchase Agreement under certain circumstances related to antitrust matters, NeuStar would be required to pay the Seller a termination fee of $13 million.

The acquisition is currently expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2015, pending approval under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act.

The above description of the Asset Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Asset Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties contained in the Asset Purchase Agreement were made for the purpose of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Asset Purchase Agreement and should not be viewed or relied upon as a disclosure of factual information relating to Company or the Transferred Business. The Asset Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On September 9, 2015, NeuStar issued a press release announcing the above-mentioned acquisition transaction. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
