COMPANHIA SIDERÚRGICA NACIONAL (BOVESPA: CSNA3; NYSE: SID), is pleased to inform its respective shareholders and market participants that it established a strategic partnership with a consortium comprised by ITOCHU Corporation, Nippon Steel Corporation, JFE Steel Corporation, POSCO, Sumitomo Metal Industries, Ltd., Kobe Steel, Ltd. and Nisshin Steel Co., Ltd. (the Consortium). The transaction consists in the acquisition of 40% of the total capital of Nacional Minérios S.A. ( Namisa ), a subsidiary of CSN, for the aggregate amount of approximately US$ 3.12 billion, payable in cash, and the entering into certain mining products and related port services agreement to be provided by CSN to Namisa.

Today the Consortium's members obtained their respective corporate approvals for the key terms and conditions of the transaction. CSN already obtained its approvals, which were conditioned on the parties reaching agreement on such key terms and conditions. The approvals are subject to the finalization and execution of the definitive transaction agreements. The parties expect to sign final documentation next Tuesday, October 21st, 2008.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
