PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

Proxy Solicitation

This proxy statement is furnished to stockholders of Seven Arts Entertainment Inc., a Nevada corporation (the “Company”), in connection with our solicitation of proxies for use in voting at our special meeting of stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) to be held on August __, 2012 at 9:00 a.m., local time, at 8439 Sunset Blvd., Suite 402, West Hollywood, CA 90069 or at any adjournment thereof. The purposes of the Special Meeting and the matters to be acted upon are set forth in the accompanying Notice relating to the Special Meeting. Our board of directors (the “Board”) is not currently aware of any other matters that will come before the Special Meeting.

Pursuant to the rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), we have elected to provide access to our proxy materials over the Internet. Accordingly, we are sending a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials (the “Notice”) to our stockholders. All stockholders will have the ability to access the proxy materials on a website referenced in the Notice or request to receive a printed set of the proxy materials. Instructions regarding how to access the proxy materials over the Internet or to request a printed copy may be found on the Notice. In addition, stockholders may request to receive proxy materials in printed form by mail or electronically by email on an ongoing basis.

The Notice was mailed to stockholders, and the proxy materials were first given to stockholders via Internet access, on or about August __, 2012. On or before the time that the Notice was sent to stockholders, all materials identified in the Notice were publicly accessible, free of charge, at the website address specified in the Notice (<http://www.Shareholdermaterial.com/SAPX>) Such materials will remain available on that website for twelve months subsequent to the conclusion of the Special Meeting.

Our officers, agents and employees may communicate with stockholders, banks, brokerage houses and others by telephone, facsimile or in person to request that proxies be furnished. All expenses incurred in connection with this solicitation will be borne by us.

Voting and Proxy Revocability

If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting. We will give you a ballot when you arrive. If you are a record stockholder, but you do not wish to vote in person or if you will not be attending the Special Meeting, you may vote by proxy. You can vote by proxy over the Internet by following the instructions provided in the Notice. If you are a beneficial owner of shares held in street name, follow the voting instructions provided in the Notice and in any correspondence from the record stockholder.

You may revoke the authority granted by your execution and delivery of a proxy at any time before its effective exercise by delivering to the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by voting in person at the Special Meeting. If you deliver an executed proxy, and it is not subsequently revoked, your shares will be voted in the manner you direct on your proxy card. If no specifications are given, your shares will be voted in favor of Proposals No. 1 and No. 2 and in the discretion of the proxy holders as to any other matters that may properly come before the Special Meeting.

Record Date and Voting Rights

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on July 26, 2012 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting or any adjournment thereof. On July 26, 2012, there were 108,226,259 shares of our common stock outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote on each of the matters to be presented at the Special Meeting. On July 26, 2012, there were outstanding 125,125 shares of our Series A Preferred Stock and 180,000 shares of our Series B Preferred Stock outstanding, which represent in total 44,341,667 votes on each of the matters to be presented at the Special Meeting if we were to assume conversion prices of $0.15 and $0.50 respectively, provided that the aggregate votes of holders of Series B Preferred Stock will not exceed 6,258,240 until approval of Proposal 2. No Holder of the Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to vote with respect to ratification of Proposal No. 2, which affects holders of Series B Preferred Stock.

A third of the outstanding shares entitled to vote must be present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting in order to have a quorum for transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum. "Broker non-votes" are shares held by brokers or nominees which are not voted on a particular matter because instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner. If there is a quorum:

upon the approving vote of a majority of the votes cast, the Board will be authorized to implement a reverse split of the shares of common stock in a ratio determined by the Board to ensure that the Company meets the continued listing standards for its common stock on The NASDAQ Capital Market or a successor market chosen by the Board.

upon the approving vote of a majority of the votes cast, excluding the votes of any Series B Preferred Stock, the Board will be authorized to issue up to 200,000 shares of Amended Series B Preferred Stock, and the issuance of 180,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock by the Board will be ratified.

upon approval of a majority of the votes cast, the Board will be authorized to amend the Company's Revised 2012 Stock Incentive Plan to increase the number of common shares issuable from 5,000,000 to 20,000,000 shares.

If you are a beneficial holder and do not provide specific voting instructions to your broker, the organization that holds your shares will not be authorized to vote on the proposed reverse split of our common stock. Accordingly, we encourage you to vote promptly, even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting.

Stockholder Proposals

All stockholder proposals which are intended to be presented at the 2013 annual meeting must be received by the Company no later than January 15, 2013 for inclusion in the Board's proxy statement and on the proxy card relating to the 2013 annual meeting.

A stockholder proposal that will not appear in the proxy statement may be considered at a meeting of stockholders only if the Company has received timely notice of the proposal. In order to be timely, for the 2013 annual meeting, the Company must receive notice of the proposal no later than January 15, 2013.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 – AUTHORIZE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO IMPLEMENT A REVERSE SPLIT OF THE COMPANY’S COMMON STOCK AS DETERMINED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our Board is proposing for stockholder approval a resolution set forth below to authorize the Board in its discretion to implement a reverse split of our common shares in a ratio as determined by the Board.

Purpose of the Resolution:

The Company’s common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market (“NASDAQ CM”) and (including the ordinary shares of our listing predecessor, Seven Arts Pictures Plc) has been since February, 2009. While the Company meets all other requirements of NASDAQ CM for continued listing, the common shares of the Company from time to time due to market conditions, short selling and other trading strategies or factors unknown to the Company have failed to meet the continued listing requirement of NASDAQ CM that the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock remain over $1 for at least ten trading days (“$1 Rule”). The Company’s common stock currently is trading at less than $1 and through extensions obtained from NASDAQ CM; the Company has until September 20, 2012 to meet the $1 Rule. Management believes that it is important for the Company to meet the requirement of the $1 Rule by this date. As a result the Board seeks authorization to implement a reverse split of the Company’s common stock if necessary to comply with the $1 Rule in this time period. The Board believes that continuation of trading of the Company’s shares on NASDAQ CM is in the best interests of stockholders and will implement a reverse split if it determines such is necessary to maintain the listing of its common shares on NASDAQ CM.

The Board may determine to change the listing of the Company’s common stock to an equivalent stock exchange such as NYSE MKT in place of the NASDAQ CM and may determine to effect a reverse split in order to meet the initial listing requirements of such other exchanges which may and likely will have an initial minimum bid price of up to $3.00 per share.

The trading price of the Company’s common stock is $.04 per share.(as of July 26, 2012) The Board may exercise its discretion to obtain a closing bid price of up to $3.00 to ensure that the applicable initial listing requirements are met.

Possible Effects Of A Reverse Split.

While a reverse split of the Company’s common stock will not change the inherent values of the Company’s common stock or the claims on the assets of the Company by each stockholder, stockholders may suffer a decline in the aggregate market value of their holdings of common shares after a reverse split due to trading strategies or market conditions. Such declines are common for reasons that vary with different enterprises and market conditions, and cannot be predicted or measured with certainty.

Because we are requesting the approval of our stockholders for a reverse split of our common stock, without an equivalent, proportional reduction in our authorized capital (and, pursuant to Proposal No. 1, are asking our stockholders to increase our authorized capital), certain of the effects of such an increase referenced in Proposal No. 1 would be similar to the effects of a reverse split if this proposal is approved by our stockholders.

Like the currently authorized but unissued shares of our pre-split common stock, any additional shares of common stock after any reverse split would be available for issuance without further action by our stockholders, unless further action is required by law.

Although a reverse split of our common stock without an equivalent, proportional reduction in our authorized capital could, under certain circumstances, also be construed as having an anti-takeover effect (for example, by permitting easier dilution of the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in the composition of our Board or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction resulting in our acquisition by another company), the proposed reverse split is not in response to any effort by any person or group to accumulate our common stock or to obtain control of us by any means. Rather, it is, as noted above, solely in respect of the $1 Rule and maintaining the listing of our common stock on the NASDAQ CM or to meet the initial listing requirements of the NYSE MKT or other exchanges which may and likely will have an initial minimum bid price at a higher amount than $1. In addition, the proposal is not part of any plan by our Board to recommend or implement a series of anti-takeover measures.

Resolution Granting Board Authority.

The following resolutions will be presented at the Special meeting to grant authority to the Board to authorize a reverse split as determined by the Board.

RESOLVED, the Board of Directors of the Company shall have the authority to implement a reverse split of the shares of common stock of the Company to preserve the listing of the Company's common stock on NASDAQ Capital Markets or other principal exchange as determined by the Board of Directors.

Our Board recommends a vote for the grant of authority to the Board of Directors to implement a reverse split of the Company's common stock in a ratio as determined by the Board of Directors.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 — RE-AUTHORIZE THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO ISSUE UP TO 200,000 SHARES OF AMENDED SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK AND RATIFY THE ISSUANCE OF 180,000 SHARES OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK.

Background

The Board of Directors sought approval from shareholders for issuance of 180,000 shares of the Company's Series B preferred stock to the individuals transferring ownership of certain music assets of the Company, at the shareholder meeting held on March 25, 2012. The shareholders granted such approval, both voting separately and voting with the votes of the holders of the Series B preferred stock. The acquisition of music assets in exchange for the Series B preferred stock was announced in press releases dated March 6, 2012 and a filing on Form 8-K on March 6, 2012.

The Company failed to file with NASDAQ a copy of the Certificate of Designation of Rights and Preferences of the Series B Preferred Stock ("Certificate") and the agreements for the issuance of 180,000 shares of Series B preferred stock at least 15 days prior to the issuance of such shares by the Company on February 22, 2012. Upon review of the Certificate, in a letter dated July 3, 2012, NASDAQ determined that the Certificate violated NASDAQ Listing Rule 5640 in that: (1) the conversion price adjustment in Paragraph 6(H) of the Certificate could cause the conversion price to be reduced below the closing bid of the Company's common stock immediately preceding the entering into of a binding agreement to issue any shares of Series B preferred stock, and (2) the right of the holder to vote as a class to elect two members of the Board of Directors of the Company did not take into account subsequent reductions in the holder's "ownership position."

The Company advised NASDAQ that the issuance of the Series B preferred stock was approved by the shareholders at the annual meeting on March 25, 2012. NASDAQ then stated that it would not accept such shareholder approval since (1) the requests for the approval and the terms of the Certificate were not included in the Company's Proxy Statement and were approved as Other Business, and (2) the Series B shareholders were permitted to vote on such approval even though there were sufficient notes to approve the Certificate and the issuance of Series B preferred stock, without reference to the votes of any holder of Series B preferred stock, and without reference to any votes obtained by proxy (as well as assuming that all proxy votes opposed the motion).

Neither the Company nor any holder of Series B preferred stock intended that any share of Series B preferred stock would have voting rights in, or be convertible into, common stock at a conversion price greater than the rights of the Company's common stock on either the date of issuance of any shares of Series B preferred stock or the date of the relevant binding agreement for issuance of the Series B preferred stock, and at all times intended to comply with NASDAQ rules. To eliminate any doubt on the matter, the Company and the holders have agreed to amend the

Certificate as set forth on the Correct Certificate of Designation of Series B Preferred Stock attached hereto as Annex A (“Amended Series B Preferred Stock”) to reflect the Company’s and such holders’ intent:

- A. To ensure that in no event shall the holders of the Series B preferred stock be entitled to vote on an as-if-converted into capital shares basis at a conversion price less than $.2501 per common share (the closing bid price on February 22, 2012, the trading day immediately preceding the date of issuance of the Series B preferred stock). This limitation shall remain in effect so long as the Series B preferred stock remains outstanding and shall not be impacted by any vote of the stockholders to re-authorize the issuance of the Series B preferred stock or to ratify the Series B preferred stock currently outstanding.
- B. To provide that the rights of the holders of Series B preferred stock to elect two directors of the Company will terminate if less than 100,000 shares of Series B preferred stock are outstanding.
- C. There will be no conversion of any shares of the Series B preferred stock until the earlier of September 30, 2012, or approval of the issuance of the Amended Series B Preferred Stock by the stockholders. If stockholder approval has not been obtained for the Series B preferred stock by September 30, 2012, then the holders of the Series B preferred stock shall have the right to convert the Series B preferred stock into 6,258,240 shares, which represents 19.99% of the total capital shares outstanding on February 22, 2012, which was the last trading day immediately prior to the execution of the binding, definitive agreement for the issuance of the 180,000 shares of Series B preferred stock currently outstanding, on a pro rata basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the holders of the Series B preferred stock are currently be entitled to vote their shares on an as-if-converted basis up to 6,258,240, which represents 19.99% of the issued and outstanding capital stock on February 22, 2012, the last trading day immediately prior to the execution of the binding definitive agreement for the issuance of the Series B preferred stock, on a pro rata basis.

On filing of the Amended Series B Preferred Stock as shown on Annex A, the Certificate shall have no further force or effect and the rights of the holders shall be as set forth on Annex A.

Need for Stockholder Approval

The Company is amending the Certificate and seeking shareholder approval for the re-authorization of the Series B preferred stock and the ratification of the issuance of the Series B preferred stock currently outstanding in response to concerns that have been raised by NASDAQ regarding the Company's compliance with the NASDAQ shareholder approval and voting rights rules, as set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rules 5635 and 5640, respectively, Notwithstanding, the Company is not able to provide any assurances that these actions will be accepted by NASDAQ or that the Company's capital stock will not be delisted in the future.

Furthermore, stockholder approval does not obviate the need for compliance with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or other NASDAQ CM requirements.

Increased Dilution

If we assume a conversion price of $0.50 we would have approximately 36,000,000 shares of common stock outstanding if all the Series B Preferred Stock is converted into common stock. You should, therefore, consider the potential dilution in determining whether to approve this proposal.

Potential Negative Effect on our Stock Price

If Proposal 2 receives the necessary approval and we are authorized to issue up to 36,000,000 additional shares of our common stock upon the conversion of the Amended Series B Preferred Stock, all of those shares will become eligible for sale in the public markets, after expiration of the six-month holding period (from the initial issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock, or, under certain circumstances, the expiration of any relevant escrow period) required under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933. These shares could become eligible for resale in the public markets earlier if we file a registration statement with the SEC covering the resale of the shares and such registration statement is declared effective. Any such sales, or the anticipation of the possibility of such sales, would represent an overhang on the market and could depress the market price of our common stock.

Vote Required; Board of Directors' Recommendation

The approval of our proposal to issue of the Amended Series B Preferred Stock will require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares of common stock present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote.

Resolution Granting Board Authority

The following resolution will be presented at the Special meeting to grant authority to the Board to re-authorize the issuance of up to 200,000 shares of Amended Series B Preferred Stock and to ratify the issuance of 180,000 of Series B preferred stock currently outstanding.

RESOLVED, the Board of Directors of the Company shall have the authority to issue up to 200,000 shares of Amended Series B Preferred Stock and the issuance of the 180,000 shares of Series B preferred stock currently is hereby ratified.

Our Board recommends a vote FOR the grant of authority to the Board of Directors to issue up to 200,000 shares of Amended Series B Preferred Stock.

PROPOSAL NO. 3 – APPROVAL OF Revised 2012 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

The Plan

Our Board of Directors unanimously approved the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan (the “2012 Plan”) on January 11, 2012, subject to stockholder approval at the 2012 Annual Meeting, which occurred on March 25, 2012. Our Board of Directors is requesting that our stockholders approve a revision to the 2012 plan because of its belief that an increase in the number of shares of common stock of the Company available under the Revised 2012 Plan is in the Company’s interest and that of our stockholders (“Revised 2012 Plan”). The following summary of certain features of the Revised 2012 Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual text of the Revised 2012 Plan, which is attached as Annex c to this Proxy Statement. If approved by the stockholders, the Compensation Committee or our Board of Directors may suspend or terminate the 2012 Plan at any time.

The Revised 2012 Plan provides for the grant to employees, including executive officers, of restricted stock, as well as cash or other stock-based awards and other benefits. The purpose of the Revised 2012 Plan is to enable us to attract and retain qualified persons as employees, officers and directors and others, whose services are required by us, and to motivate such persons by providing them with equity participation in us.

A maximum of 20,000,000 shares of common stock may be issued and awarded under the Revised 2012 plan. The maximum number of shares of common stock that may be subject to stock awards granted to any one participant during any single year period is 5,000,000. As of July 30, 2012 awards to purchase 5,000,000 shares of common stock under the 2012 plan have not been granted.

The Revised 2012 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, which has, subject to specified limitations, the full authority to grant equity awards and establish the terms and conditions for vesting and exercise thereof. Awards of restricted stock under the Revised 2012 Plan may qualify for the “performance-based compensation” exception under Internal Revenue Code Section (the “IRC”) 162 (m) pursuant to their expected terms. Cash-based awards and awards of restricted stock, performance units and stock may qualify under Section 162(m) of the IRC if the terms of the award of the state, in terms of an objective formula or standard, the method of computing the amount of compensation payable under the award and preclude discretion to increase the amount of compensation payable under the terms of the award.

Unless the Compensation Committee determines otherwise, if a recipient of restricted stock ceases to have a relationship with our Company, non-vested shares of restricted stock shall be forfeited. The Compensation Committee may grant cash awards at such times and in such amounts as it deems appropriate. The Compensation Committee may grant has the right to grant other stock-based awards, which may include the grant of Common Stock based on certain conditions, the payment of cash based on the market performance of our Common Stock and the grant of certain securities convertible into Common Stock.

With respect to awards of restricted stock, if no election is made under Section 83(b) of the IRC and repurchase rights of the shares are retained by us, a taxable event will occur on each date the participant's ownership rights vest as to the number of shares that vest on that date, and the holding period for capital gains purposes will not commence until the date the shares vest. Any dividends received with respect to shares subject to the restrictions will be treated as additional compensation income and not as dividend income. The participant will recognize ordinary income on each date shares vest in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of such shares on that date over the amount paid for such shares. Any income recognized by a participant, who is an employee, will be subject to employment taxes and income tax withholding by us out of the participant's current compensation. If such compensation is insufficient to cover the amount to be withheld, the participant will be required to make a direct payment to us for the balance of the tax withholding obligation. We are entitled to a tax deduction in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the participant. The participant's basis in the shares will be equal to the purchase price, if any, increased by the amount of ordinary income recognized. If instead a Section 83(b) election is made not later than 30 days after the date of transfer, then the participant will recognize ordinary income on the date of purchase in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of such shares on the date of purchase over the purchase price paid for such shares. Any change in the value of the shares after the date of grant will be taxed as a capital gain or capital loss only if and when the shares are disposed of by the participant. If the Section 83(b) election is made, the participant's holding period for capital gains begins on the date of grant. The Section 83(b) election is irrevocable. If a section 83(b) election is made and the participant then forfeits the restricted stock, the participant may not deduct as a loss the amount previously included in gross income. We will be entitled to a deduction at the same time, and in an amount equal to, the ordinary income recognized by the participant with respect to shares of restricted stock.

The foregoing is only a summary of certain federal income tax consequences of the Revised 2012 Plan and is based on our understanding of present federal tax laws and regulations.

In the event of a stock dividend, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, spin-off, combination, repurchase, or other distribution of our stock or property, or other change in our corporate structure, the Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion, in order to prevent diminution or enlargement of a participant's benefits under the Revised 2012 Plan, substitute or adjust the number and class of shares that may be delivered under the Revised 2012 Plan and/or the number, class and price of shares covered by an outstanding award.

If a change in control of the company occurs, then, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the surviving corporation may assume all awards then-outstanding under the Revised 2012 Plan or substitute similar awards in lieu of awards granted under the Revised 2012 Plan. If a change in control occurs, the compensation committee may, among other things, provide for acceleration of benefits, lapsing of restrictions and vesting of benefits for any award that has been outstanding for at least six months, or provide for cash payments to be made to holders of certain awards and the cancellation of awards where the exercise price exceeds the fair market value of the shares.

Subject to the foregoing, the Compensation Committee has broad discretion to describe the terms and conditions applicable to awards granted under the Revised 2012 Plan. The Compensation Committee may at any time discontinue granting awards under the Revised 2012 Plan or otherwise suspend, amend or terminate the Revised 2012 Plan and may, with the consent of an award recipient, make such modifications of the terms and conditions of such recipient's award as the Compensation Committee shall deem advisable. The Compensation Committee may amend the Revised 2012 Plan; provided, however, that no amendment shall be effective unless approved by stockholders if such approval is required under 162(m) of the IRC, Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act, the rules of the NYSE Amex or other applicable exchange, or applicable law.

Vote Required; Board of Director's Recommendation

The approval of the Revised 2012 Plan will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of our Common Stock.

Our Board of Directors recommends that stockholders vote “FOR” approval and adoption of the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan.

(C) If, on any Dividend Payment Date, the Company fails to pay dividends, then until the dividends that were scheduled to be paid on such date are paid, such dividends shall cumulate and shall accrue additional dividends to and including the date of payment thereof at the Dividend Rate then in effect, compounded quarterly on each subsequent Dividend Payment Date. Unpaid dividends for any period less than a full Dividend Period shall cumulate on a day to day basis and shall be computed on the basis of a three hundred sixty (360) day year.

(D) So long as any shares of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, (i) the Company shall not and shall not allow its Subsidiaries to declare or pay any dividend whatsoever, whether in cash, property or otherwise, set aside any cash or property for the payment of dividends, or make any other distribution on any Junior Securities, (ii) the Company shall not and shall not allow its Subsidiaries to declare or pay any dividend whatsoever, whether in cash, property or otherwise, set aside any cash or property for the payment of dividends, or make any other distribution on any Parity Securities, except for dividends paid to the Company or any of its wholly-owned Subsidiaries and (iii) the Company shall not and shall not allow its Subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire for value or set aside any cash or property for the repurchase or redemption of any Junior Securities or Parity Securities, unless in each such case all dividends to which the Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have been entitled to receive for all previous Dividend Periods shall have been paid and dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock for the subsequent four Dividend Periods shall have been designated and set aside in cash.

(E) If the Company elects to pay dividends in cash, the Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from such dividend on the Series B Preferred Stock such amounts as the Company is required to withhold with respect to such dividend under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any other provision of state, local or foreign tax law. In the event the Company pays a dividend on the Series B Preferred Stock by issuing Registered Common Stock to a Holder, on the Business Day following the Dividend Payment Date, the Holder shall, at Holder's election, either (i) transfer to the Company by wire transfer an amount sufficient to satisfy such withholding tax obligations with respect to such dividend or (ii) notify the Company to satisfy such Holder's withholding tax obligations by electing to have the Company withhold from the shares of Registered Common Stock to be issued with respect to such dividend; provided, however, that such a Holder shall not be entitled to elect tax withholding in shares if to do so would result in a violation of the provisions of Section 16 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. For purposes of determining the withholding amount, the dividend amount shall equal the applicable number of dividend shares multiplied by the Daily Market Price on the Dividend Payment Date, and the tax withholding in shares will be calculated based on the Daily Market Price multiplied by the number of shares so withheld on the Dividend Payment Date.

4. Liquidation Preference. In the event of any Liquidation, after payment or provision for payment by the Company of the debts and other liabilities of the Company and the liquidation preference of any Senior Securities that rank senior to the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to distributions upon Liquidation, each Holder shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash for each share of the then outstanding Series B Preferred Stock held by the Holder equal to the greater of (a) the Stated Value per share to and including the date full payment is tendered to Holders with respect to such Liquidation and (b) the amount the Holder would have received if the Holder had converted all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock into Common Stock in accordance with the provisions of Section 6(A) hereof as of the Business Day immediately preceding the date of such Liquidation (such greater amount being referred to herein as the "Liquidation Preference"), before any distribution shall be made to the holders of any Junior Securities (and any Senior Securities or Parity Securities that, with respect to distributions upon Liquidation, rank junior to the Series B Preferred Stock) upon the Liquidation of the Company. In case the assets of the Company available for payment to Holders are insufficient to pay the full Liquidation Preference on all outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock and all outstanding shares of Parity Securities and Senior Securities that, with respect to distributions upon Liquidation, are pari passu with the Series B Preferred Stock in the amounts to which the holders of such shares are entitled, then the entire assets of the Company available for payment to Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and to the holders of such Parity Securities and Senior Securities shall be distributed ratably among Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of such Parity Securities and Senior Securities, based upon the aggregate amount due on such shares upon Liquidation. Written notice of any Liquidation of the Company, stating a payment date and the place where the distributable amounts shall be payable, shall be given by facsimile and overnight delivery not less than ten (10) calendar days prior to the payment date stated therein, to Holders of record of the Series B Preferred Stock, if any, at their respective addresses as the same shall appear on the books of the Company.

5. Voting Rights. The Holders shall have the following voting rights with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock:

(A) Voting By All Classes. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or as required by law, the Holders of Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of Common Stock shall vote together and not as separate classes.

(B) No Series Voting. Other than as provided herein or required by law, there shall be no series voting.

(C) Series B Class Voting Rights. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall entitle the Holder thereof to the voting rights specified in Section 5(D), Section 5(E) and Section 5(F) and no other voting rights except as required by law.

(D) Voting For Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of nine members. So long as there remains outstanding and are not converted or redeemed at least one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the Holders of Series B Preferred Stock, voting separately as a single class with one vote per share, in person or by proxy, shall be entitled to elect two members of the Company's Board of Directors at each meeting or pursuant to each consent of the Company's stockholders for the election of directors, one of whom shall be "independent" as defined by the regulations of the Principal Listing Exchange. Any additional members of the Company's Board of Directors shall be elected by the holders of Common Stock and Series B Preferred Stock (on an as-if-converted basis), voting together as a single class. If a vacancy on the Board of Directors is to be filled by the Board of Directors, only directors elected by the same class, classes or series of stockholders as those who would be entitled to vote to fill such vacancy shall vote to fill such vacancy. Directors may only be removed by the vote or consent of the class, classes or series of stock entitled to fill the vacancy created by such removal.

(E) Voting For Changes In Series B Preferred Stock. The consent of Holders of at least a Majority of the Series B Preferred Stock, voting separately as a single class with 100 votes per share, in person or by proxy, either in writing without a meeting or at an annual or a special meeting of Holders called for the purpose, shall be necessary to:

(i) amend, alter or repeal, by way of merger or otherwise, any of the provisions of the Articles, including the Certificate of Rights and Preferences, or Bylaws of the Company so as to change any of the rights, preferences or privileges of the Holders. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, such change includes any action that would:

A. make dividends non-cumulative, or defer the date from which dividends will accrue, or cancel accrued and unpaid dividends, or change the relative seniority rights of Holders of Series B Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends in relation to the holders of any other capital stock of the Company;

B. reduce the amount payable to Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, or change the relative seniority of the liquidation preferences of Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock or the rights upon liquidation of the holders of any other capital stock of the Company; or

C. make the Series B Preferred Stock redeemable at the option of the Company.

(ii) issue or sell or obligate itself to issue or sell any shares of Series B Preferred Stock; or

(iii) enter into or amend any agreement or understanding with respect to any of the foregoing.

(F) Right To Vote With Common Stock. Except as to matters with respect to which Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to vote separately as a class pursuant to this Section 5, the Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters submitted for a vote to the holders of Common Stock as if they held a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Conversion Stock Amount in Common Shares. Holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to notice of any stockholders' meeting in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation. Fractional votes shall not be permitted and any fractional voting rights resulting from the above formula (after aggregating all shares into which shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by each Holder could be converted) shall be disregarded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall not have as-if-converted voting rights in excess of 6,258,240 until the approval of the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock by the shareholders of the Company at a meeting called for that purpose.

(G) Common Stock. Each holder of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share thereof held.

6. Conversion and Exchange.

(A) Procedure for Conversion or Exchange.

(i) General. Shares of Series B Preferred Stock are convertible or exchangeable at the option of the Holder thereof at any time, from time to time, in whole or in part, as follows:

A. The conversion or exchange of shares of Series B Preferred Stock may be effected by the delivery by the Holder to the Company of a duly executed written notice of conversion, substantially in form and substance as attached hereto (the "Conversion Notice"), by facsimile, mail or overnight courier delivery, to the Company's address specifying the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be converted.

B. The closing of a conversion or exchange (a "Conversion Closing") shall take place (a) on the later of (1) on the third (3rd) Business Day following and excluding the date the Conversion Notice is delivered and (2) such later date as the conditions set forth in Section 6(A)(ii) have been waived or satisfied or (b) any other date upon which the Holder and the Company mutually agree (a "Conversion Closing Date").

(ii) Conversion or Exchange for Stock. If a Conversion Notice is duly given with respect to shares of Series B Preferred Stock, then such shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be converted into that number of shares of Common Stock in the Company, at the option of the Holder, which herein may be trading on the Exchange at the Conversion Closing equal to (A) the aggregate Stated Value of such shares divided by (B) the Conversion Price (the "Conversion Stock Amount"). On the applicable Conversion Closing Date, the Holder shall surrender the certificate(s) representing the shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be converted to the Company at the address of the Company, and the Company, at its expense (including payment by it of any applicable issue taxes), shall cause to be issued in the name of and delivered to the Holder the Conversion Stock Amount of duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock at the Conversion Closing Date as the Holder may direct, at the election of the Holder, (i) via the Depository Trust Company's Deposit and Withdrawal at Custodian (or DWAC) system or (ii) if DWAC is unavailable, by delivery of one or more original certificates representing shares of Common Stock delivered via Federal Express to the address instructed by the Holder in writing, and a copy of the airbill evidencing that such documents have been sent.

(iii) Holders of Record. Each conversion of Series B Preferred Stock shall be deemed to have been effected immediately before the close of business on the Business Day on which the Conversion Notice is delivered (except, that, for purposes of calculation of the Stated Value, dividends shall accrue until and including the Conversion Closing Date), and at such time the Person or Persons in whose name or names any certificate or certificates for shares of Common Stock shall be issuable upon such conversion as provided in Section 6(A)(ii) shall be deemed to have become the holder or holders of record thereof. The foregoing notwithstanding, such conversion shall not be deemed effective if and as of the date that the Holder delivers written notice of withdrawal to the Company as set forth in Section 6(A)(ii) above.

(iv) Partial Conversion. If any conversion is for only part of the shares represented by the certificate surrendered, the Company shall send a new Series B Preferred Stock certificate of like tenor, calling in the aggregate on the face or faces thereof for the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock which have not been converted via reputable overnight courier to such address specified by the Holder.

(v) Shareholder Approval. There shall be no conversion of any Series B Common Stock until the later of September 30, 2012 and approval of the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock by the shareholders of the Company at a meeting called for that purpose, provided that the holders of Series B Preferred Stock in aggregate may convert Series B Preferred Stock up to 6,258,240 shares of Common Stock after September 30, 2012, if approval of the shareholders of the Company is not given by September 30, 2012. The Company may fairly allocate requests for conversion by holders of Series B Preferred Stock to ensure that the foregoing limit is not exceeded and all valid requests for conversion are honored on a pro rata basis of Series B Preferred Stock.

(B) Reservation of Shares. The Company shall at all times reserve for issuance such number of its shares of Common Stock, to be issued on full conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock.

(C) Registration Rights. The Company will procure, at its sole expense, the listing of the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock and shares issuable as dividends hereunder, subject to issuance or notice of issuance, on all stock exchanges and quotation systems on which the Common Stock is then listed or quoted, no later than the date on which such Series B Preferred Stock is issued to the Holder and thereafter shall use its best efforts to prevent delisting or removal from quotation of such shares. The Company will pay any and all documentary stamp or similar issue or transfer taxes that may be payable in respect of the issuance or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion or exchange of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock.

(D) Fractional Shares. No fractional shares or scrip representing fractional shares shall be issued upon the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock. If any such conversion would otherwise require the issuance of a fractional share of Common Stock, an amount equal to such fraction multiplied by the current Daily Market Price per share of Common Stock on the date of conversion or exchange shall be paid to the Holder in cash by the Company. If more than one share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be surrendered for conversion or exchange at one time by or for the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock as the case may be issuable upon conversion thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock so surrendered.

(E) Adjustment for Stock Splits and Combinations. If, at any time or from time to time, after the date that the first share of Series B Preferred Stock is issued (the “Original Issue Date”), the Company effects a subdivision of the outstanding Common Stock without a corresponding subdivision of the Series B Preferred Stock, the Stock Conversion Price in effect immediately before that subdivision shall be proportionately decreased. Conversely, if at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date the Company combines the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares without a corresponding combination of the Preferred Stock, the Conversion Price in effect immediately before the combination shall be proportionately increased. Any adjustment under this section (E) shall become effective at the close of business on the date the subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(F) Adjustment for Common Stock Dividends and Distributions. If, at any time or from time to time, after the Original Issue Date, the Company or PLC pays to holders of Common Stock or other distribution in additional shares of Common Stock without a corresponding dividend or other distribution to holders of Preferred Stock, the Series B Conversion Price that is then in effect shall be decreased as of the time of such issuance, as provided below:

(i) The Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying each such Conversion Price then in effect by a fraction equal to:

(A) the numerator of which is the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time of such issuance, and

(B) the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time of such issuance plus the number of shares of Common Stock issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution:

(ii) If the Company or PLC fixes a record date to determine which holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive such dividend or other distribution, the Conversion Price shall be fixed as of the close of business on such record date and the number of shares of Common Stock shall be calculated immediately prior to the close of business on such record date; and

(iii) If such record date is fixed and such dividend is not fully paid or if such distribution is not fully made on the date fixed therefor, the Conversion Price shall be recomputed accordingly as of the close of business on such record date and thereafter the Conversion Price shall be adjusted pursuant to this Section (F) to reflect the actual payment of such dividend or distribution.

(G) Adjustment for Reclassification, Exchange, Substitution, Reorganization, Merger or Consolidation. If at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date, the Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock is changed into the same or a different number of shares of any class or classes of stock, whether by recapitalization, reclassification, merger, consolidation or otherwise (other than a Liquidation in accordance with Section 4 or a subdivision or combination of shares or stock dividend or a reorganization, merger, consolidation or sale of assets provided for elsewhere in this Section 5), in any such event such holder of Series B Preferred Stock shall then have the right to convert such stock into the kind and amount of stock and other securities and property receivable upon such recapitalization, reclassification, merger, consolidation or other change by holders of the maximum number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series B Preferred Stock could have been converted immediately prior to such recapitalization, reclassification, merger, consolidation or change, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein or with respect to such other securities or property by the terms thereof, In any case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 6 which respect to the rights of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock after the capital reorganization to the end that the provisions of this Section 6 (including adjustment of the Conversion Price then in effect and the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock) shall be applicable after that event and be as nearly equivalent as practicable.

(H) Subsequent Issue. The Conversion Price will be adjusted by reduction (but not an increase) in the event the Company issues any Common Stock at a total consideration per share of Common Stock less than eighty percent (80%) of the Conversion Price at any time on or before September 30, 2012 ("Subsequent Issue"). The reduction pursuant to this Section 6(H) shall be calculated by the Chief Financial Officer of the Company and certified in writing to each holder of Series B Preferred Stock, as the amount calculated as one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Book Value Per Share, on a fully diluted bases as if the Subsequent Issue was made on September 30, 2011. In no event shall any adjustment in the Conversion Price pursuant to any provision of Paragraph 6, including this Paragraph 6(H) result in a Conversion Price less than one hundred ten percent of the closing bid price of the Common Stock on its Principal Listing Exchange on the date the Company shall contract for the issuance of any Series B Preferred Stock.

7. Status of Converted and Redeemed Shares; Limitations on Series B Preferred Stock. The Company shall return to the status of unauthorized and undesignated shares of Preferred Stock each share of Series B Preferred Stock which shall be converted, redeemed or for any other reason acquired by the Company, and such shares thereafter may have such characteristics and designations as the Board may determine (subject to Section 5), provided, however, no share of Series B Preferred Stock which shall be converted, redeemed or otherwise acquired by the Company shall thereafter be reissued, sold or transferred by the Company as Series B Preferred Stock. The Company will not issue any further shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

8. Miscellaneous. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all measurements and references related to share prices and share numbers herein shall be, in each instance, appropriately adjusted for stock splits, recombinations, stock dividends and the like.
