Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

Previous independent registered public accounting firm

On November 5, 2012, TagLikeMe Corp. (the "Company") formally informed De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC of their dismissal as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The reports of De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC on the Company's financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010, contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except to indicate that there was substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's Board of Directors participated in and approved the decision to change independent registered public accounting firms.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years preceding the termination of De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC, and through November 5, 2012, there were no disagreements with De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC would have caused them to make reference thereto in connection with their report on the financial statements for such years.

The Company has requested that De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of the letter provided by De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

New independent registered public accounting firm

On November 5, 2012, the Company engaged Corso and Company, as its new independent registered public accounting firm. During the two most recent fiscal years and through November 5, 2012, the Company had not consulted with Corso and Company regarding any of the following:

- (a) The application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit or audit opinion that may be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and Corso and Company did not provide either a written report or oral advice to the Company that Corso and Company concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue; or
- (b) The subject of any disagreement, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions, or a reportable event within the meaning set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits

16.1 Letter from De Joya Griffith and Company, LLC, dated November 8, 2012, to the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding statements included in this Form 8-K.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
