Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Reform Act”). Such statements may be identified by the use of words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “assume,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “will,” “forecast,” “outlook,” “plan,” “project,” or similar words and statements with respect to, among other things, the proposed merger of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company with and into Capella, including the expected timing of completion of the Merger; the anticipated benefits of the Merger, including estimated synergies; the combined company’s plans, objectives and expectations; future financial and operating results; and other statements that are not historical facts. The statements are based on the Company’s and Capella’s current expectations and are subject to a number of assumptions, uncertainties and risks. In connection with the safe-harbor provisions of the Reform Act, the Company and Capella have identified important factors that could cause the Company’s or Capella’s actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. The assumptions, uncertainties and risks include:

- the risk that the Merger may not be completed in a timely manner or at all due to the failure to obtain the approval of the Company’s or Capella’s stockholders or the failure to satisfy other conditions (including obtaining required regulatory and educational agency approvals) to completion of the Merger;
- the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement;
- the outcome of any legal proceeding that may be instituted against the Company, Capella and others following the announcement of the Merger;
- the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger;
- the risk that the benefits of the Merger, including expected synergies, may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected;
- the risk that the Merger may not advance the combined company’s business strategy and growth strategy;
- the risk that the combined company may experience difficulty integrating the Company’s and Capella’s employees or operations;
- the potential diversion of the Company’s and Capella’s management’s attention resulting from the proposed Merger; and

- other risks and uncertainties identified in the Company's and Capella's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements.
