COMMERCIAL METALS COMPANY AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)
NOTE 1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Principles

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") on a basis consistent with that used in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2017 ("2017 Form 10-K") filed by Commercial Metals Company ("CMC," and together with its consolidated subsidiaries, the "Company") with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and include all normal recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets and the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings, comprehensive income, cash flows and stockholders' equity for the periods indicated. These notes should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements included in the 2017 Form 10-K. The results of operations for the three and nine month periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2017, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2017-12, Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815). The ASU better aligns accounting rules with a company's risk management activities; better reflects economic results of hedging in financial statements; and simplifies hedge accounting treatment. For public companies, this standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those periods. The standard must be applied to hedging relationships existing on the date of adoption, and the effect of adoption should be reflected as of the beginning of the fiscal year of adoption. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this guidance on its consolidated financial statements as well as determining the Company's planned adoption date.

In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230), requiring that the statement of cash flows explain the change in the total cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. This guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim reporting periods therein, beginning after December 15, 2017 and will be effective for the Company beginning September 1, 2018. The Company plans to early adopt ASU 2016-18 in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2018. The provisions of this guidance are to be applied using a retrospective approach, which requires application of the guidance for all periods presented. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this guidance on its consolidated financial statements.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-15, Statement of Cash Flows: Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments (Topic 230). ASU 2016-15 is intended to reduce diversity in practice in how certain cash receipts and cash payments are presented in the statement of cash flows. This guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim reporting periods therein, beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted. The Company plans to adopt ASU 2016-15 no later than the required adoption date of September 1, 2018. The provisions of this guidance are to be adopted retrospectively. The Company is continuing to evaluate the impact this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), and has modified the standard thereafter. The standard requires a lessee to recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on its balance sheet for all leases with terms of twelve months or longer. This guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim reporting periods therein, beginning after December 15, 2018 and will be effective for the Company beginning September 1, 2019, at which point the Company plans to adopt the standard. The provisions of this guidance are to be applied using a modified retrospective approach, with elective reliefs, which requires application of the guidance for all periods presented. The Company has a project plan in place to address the effects of ASU 2016-02 and any modifications thereafter, including evaluation of the impact of this guidance on internal processes and systems, internal controls, and its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), and has modified the standard thereafter. Under the standard, revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of promised goods or services and is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This guidance is effective for annual and interim reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017 and will be effective for the Company beginning September 1, 2018, at which point the Company plans to adopt the standard. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. The Company currently expects to adopt the standard using the modified retrospective method. Upon adoption of ASU 2014-09, for certain contracts within the Americas Fabrication segment in which revenue is currently recognized on a percentage of completion basis using a cost-to-cost measure of progress, the measure of progress will change to an output measure to align with the pattern of transfer of control on these contracts. In addition, the standard includes expanded disclosure requirements, which the Company continues to analyze. The Company believes the adoption of this standard will not have a material impact on its statement of financial position, results of operations or cash flows. As part of the overall evaluation of the standard, the Company is also identifying and preparing to implement changes to its accounting policies, practices, and internal controls over financial reporting to support the standard both in the transition period as well as on an on-going basis.

NOTE 2. CHANGES IN BUSINESS

Pending Acquisition

On December 29, 2017, the Company entered into a definitive purchase agreement to acquire certain U.S. rebar steel mill and fabrication assets from Gerdau S.A. (the "Business"), a producer of long and specialty steel products in the Americas for a cash purchase price of $600.0 million, subject to customary purchase price adjustments. The acquisition includes 33 rebar fabrication facilities in the U.S. as well as steel mills located in Knoxville, Tennessee; Jacksonville, Florida; Sayreville, New Jersey and Rancho Cucamonga, California, with annual melt capacity of 2.7 million tons, bringing the Company's global melt capacity to approximately 7.2 million tons at the close of the transaction. The closing of the transaction is expected before calendar year-end 2018 and is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including customary regulatory review.

The Company expects to fund the purchase price for the acquisition, including related fees and expenses, with proceeds from the offering of the 2026 Notes (as defined in Note 7, Credit Arrangements), together with the proceeds from the incurrence of a new term loan under the Company's existing Credit Agreement (as defined in Note 7, Credit Arrangements) and cash on hand.

Dispositions and Businesses Held for Sale

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company sold substantially all of the assets of its structural steel fabrication operations, which were part of the Americas Fabrication segment. This disposition did not meet the criteria for discontinued operations. As a result of the disposition, during the nine months ended May 31, 2018, the Company recognized impairment charges of $13.0 million, of which $0.9 million was recognized during the third quarter of fiscal 2018. The assets and liabilities related to these operations were included as assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale & discontinued operations in the condensed consolidated balance sheet at August 31, 2017, and consisted of the following:

(in thousands)	August 31, 2017*
Assets:
Accounts receivable	$38,279
Inventories	10,676
Other current assets	77
Assets of businesses held for sale & discontinued operations	$49,032
Liabilities:
Accounts payable-trade	$13,108
Accrued expenses and other payables	16,785
Liabilities of businesses held for sale & discontinued operations	$29,893

* At August 31, 2017, $8.8 million of property, plant, and equipment, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization was included in other noncurrent assets on the consolidated balance sheets.

Discontinued Operations

In June 2017, the Company announced a plan to exit its International Marketing and Distribution segment, including its trading operations in the U.S., Asia, and Australia. As an initial step in this plan, on August 31, 2017, the Company completed the sale of its raw materials business, CMC Cometals. Additionally, during the second quarter of fiscal 2018, the remaining operations related to the Company's steel trading business in the U.S. and Asia were substantially wound down. Finally, during the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company sold certain assets and liabilities of its Australian steel trading business, resulting in an overall transaction loss, including selling costs, of $5.3 million. Such loss was primarily due to impairment charges related to accumulated foreign currency translation, $4.2 million of which the Company recorded during fiscal 2017. The results of these activities are included in discontinued operations in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings for all periods presented. With the conclusion of operations in this segment, any activities carried out within the segment are no longer of ongoing significance; accordingly, segment data with respect to International Marketing and Distribution activities will no longer be reported. See Note 14, Business Segments, for further discussion of the exit of the International Marketing and Distribution segment.

The major classes of line items constituting earnings from discontinued operations in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings, which primarily relate to International Marketing and Distribution activities, are presented in the table below.

NOTE 4. SALES OF ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

For added flexibility with the Company's liquidity, we may sell certain trade accounts receivable both in the U.S. and internationally. CMC has a $200.0 million U.S. sale of trade accounts receivable program which expires in August 2019. Under the program, CMC contributes, and certain of its subsidiaries sell without recourse, certain eligible trade accounts receivable to CMC Receivables, Inc. ("CMCRV"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CMC. CMCRV is structured to be a bankruptcy-remote entity formed for the sole purpose of buying and selling trade accounts receivable generated by the Company. CMCRV sells the trade accounts receivable in their entirety to two financial institutions. Under the U.S. sale of trade accounts receivable program, with the consent of both CMCRV and the program's administrative agent, the amount advanced by the financial institutions can be increased to a maximum of $300.0 million for all trade accounts receivable sold. The remaining portion of the purchase price of the trade accounts receivable takes the form of subordinated notes from the respective financial institutions. These notes will be satisfied from the ultimate collection of the trade accounts receivable after payment of certain fees and other costs. The Company accounts for sales of the trade accounts receivable as true sales, and the trade accounts receivable balances that are sold are removed from the consolidated balance sheets. The cash advances received are reflected as cash from operating activities on the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows. Additionally, the U.S. sale of trade accounts receivable program contains certain cross-default provisions whereby a termination event could occur if the Company defaulted under certain of its credit arrangements. The covenants contained in the receivables purchase agreement are consistent with the Credit Agreement described in Note 7, Credit Arrangements.

At May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, under its U.S. sale of trade accounts receivable program, the Company had sold $272.9 million and $226.9 million of trade accounts receivable, respectively, to the financial institutions. At May 31, 2018, the Company had no advance payments outstanding on the sale of its U.S. trade accounts receivable. At August 31, 2017, the Company had $90.0 million in advance payments outstanding on the sale of its U.S. trade accounts receivable.

In addition to the U.S. sale of trade accounts receivable program described above, the Company's international subsidiaries in Poland sell, and previously in Australia have sold, trade accounts receivable to financial institutions without recourse. These arrangements constitute true sales, and once the trade accounts receivable are sold, they are no longer available to the Company's creditors in the event of bankruptcy and are removed from the consolidated balance sheets. The Polish program has a facility limit of 220.0 million Polish zloty ("PLN") ($59.6 million as of May 31, 2018) and allows the Company's Polish subsidiaries to obtain an advance of up to 90% of eligible trade accounts receivable sold under the terms of the arrangement. Under the Polish and Australian programs, the cash advances received were reflected as cash from operating activities on the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows. During the first quarter of fiscal 2017, the Company's Australian program expired, and the Company did not enter into a new program.

At May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, under its Polish program, the Company sold $79.3 million and $79.5 million of trade accounts receivable, respectively, to the third-party financial institution. At May 31, 2018, the Company had $18.1 million of advance payments outstanding on the sales of its Polish trade accounts receivable. At August 31, 2017, there were no advance payments outstanding under the Polish program.

During the nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017, cash proceeds from the U.S. and international sale of trade accounts receivable programs were $145.5 million and $246.0 million, respectively, and cash payments to the owners of trade accounts receivable were $217.4 million and $250.3 million, respectively. For a nominal servicing fee, the Company is responsible for servicing the trade accounts receivable for the U.S. program. Discounts on U.S. and international sales of trade accounts receivable were $0.3 million and $0.7 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively, and $0.2 million and $0.7 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings.

As of May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, the deferred purchase price on the Company's U.S. and international sale of trade accounts receivable programs was included in accounts receivable on the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. The following tables summarize the activity of the deferred purchase price receivables for the U.S. and international sale of trade accounts receivable programs.

At May 31, 2018, the Company was in compliance with all covenants contained in its debt agreements.

The Company has uncommitted credit facilities available from U.S. and international banks. In general, these credit facilities are used to support trade letters of credit (including accounts payable settled under bankers' acceptances), foreign exchange transactions and short-term advances which are priced at market rates.

NOTE 8. DERIVATIVES AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's global operations and product lines expose it to risks from fluctuations in metal commodity prices, foreign currency exchange rates, natural gas prices and interest rates. One objective of the Company's risk management program is to mitigate these risks using derivative instruments. The Company enters into (i) metal commodity futures and forward contracts to mitigate the risk of unanticipated changes in gross margin due to the volatility of the commodities' prices, and (ii) foreign currency forward contracts that match the expected settlements for purchases and sales denominated in foreign currencies.

At May 31, 2018, the notional values of the Company's foreign currency contract commitments and its commodity contract commitments were $140.4 million and $64.8 million, respectively. At May 31, 2017, the notional values of the Company's foreign currency contract commitments and its commodity contract commitments were $262.8 million and $36.9 million, respectively.

The following table provides information regarding the Company's commodity contract commitments as of May 31, 2018:

Commodity	Long/Short	Total
Aluminum	Long	6,125 MT
Aluminum	Short	3,075 MT
Copper	Long	363 MT
Copper	Short	6,021 MT

MT = Metric Ton

The Company designates only those contracts which closely match the terms of the underlying transaction as hedges for accounting purposes. These hedges resulted in substantially no ineffectiveness in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings, and there were no components excluded from the assessment of hedge effectiveness for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 and May 31, 2017. Certain foreign currency and commodity contracts were not designated as hedges for accounting purposes, although management believes they are essential economic hedges.

NOTE 9. FAIR VALUE

The Company has established a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to the valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three levels. These levels are determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Levels within the hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities;

Level 2 - Quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets (other than those included in Level 1) which are observable, either directly or indirectly; and

Level 3 - Valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

The following tables summarize information regarding the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities that were measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

(in thousands)	May 31, 2018	Fair Value Measurements at Reporting Date Using
		Quoted Prices for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)

Foreign exchange derivative liabilities ⁽²⁾	5,259	—	5,259	—

(1) Investment deposit accounts are short-term in nature, and the value is determined by principal plus interest. The investment portfolio mix can change each period based on the Company's assessment of investment options.

(2) Derivative assets and liabilities classified as Level 1 are commodity futures contracts valued based on quoted market prices in the London Metal Exchange or New York Mercantile Exchange. Amounts in Level 2 are based on broker quotes in the over-the-counter market. Further discussion regarding the Company's use of derivative instruments and the classification of the assets and liabilities is included in Note 8, Derivatives and Risk Management.

In connection with the sale of assets related to the Company's structural steel fabrication operations, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $0.9 million and $13.0 million, for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively. The signed definitive asset sale agreement and subsequent post-closing adjustments (Level 2) were the basis for the determination of fair value of these operations. There were no other material non-recurring fair value remeasurements during the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017.

The carrying values of the Company's short-term items, including the deferred purchase price of accounts receivable, documentary letters of credit and notes payable, approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

The carrying values and estimated fair values of the Company's financial assets and liabilities that are not required to be measured at fair value on the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets were as follows:

(in thousands)	Fair Value Hierarchy	May 31, 2018		August 31, 2017
		Carrying Value	Fair Value	Carrying Value	Fair Value
2027 Notes ⁽¹⁾	Level 2	$ 300,000	$ 287,052	$ 300,000	$ 314,286

2022 Term Loan ⁽²⁾	Level 2	144,375	144,375	150,000	150,000

(1) The fair value of the notes was determined based on indicated market values.

(2) The 2022 Term Loan contains variable interest rates and its carrying value approximates fair value.

NOTE 10. INCOME TAX

On December 22, 2017, the President signed into law the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("TCJA") which, among other provisions, reduced the federal corporate tax rate to 21.0% effective January 1, 2018. Due to the Company's August 31st fiscal year end, this provision will result in a blended statutory U.S. tax rate of 25.7% for fiscal 2018 and a 21.0% statutory U.S. tax rate beginning September 1, 2018.

Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740 requires the change in tax law to be accounted for in the period of enactment. Due to complexities involved in accounting for the TCJA, the Securities and Exchange Commission's Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") 118 provides a measurement period, which should not extend beyond one year from the date of enactment, to complete the accounting under ASC 740. The Company recognized additional income tax expense of $9.9 million during the nine months ended May 31, 2018 for the effects of those provisions of the TCJA for which amounts are reasonably estimable, including (i) recognition of the one-time toll charge on certain undistributed earnings of non-U.S. subsidiaries with associated foreign tax credits, in order to transition from a worldwide system with deferral to a territorial-style tax system, and (ii) the remeasurement of the Company's deferred tax balances as of May 31, 2018 to the lower statutory rates. These provisions of the TCJA, as well as 100% bonus depreciation for qualified assets acquired and placed in service after September 27, 2017, resulted in a $45.8 million reduction to the Company's net deferred tax liabilities. The impacts of the legislation on the Company's tax expense and/or the Company's deferred tax balances may differ from these estimates, possibly materially, and may be adjusted accordingly over the SAB 118 measurement period.

The Company's current analysis of the following provisions of the TCJA resulted in minimal or no impact on the Company's financial statements, and as a result, the Company did not record any associated tax expense or benefit as of May 31, 2018: (i) the new tax on global intangible low-taxed income, (ii) the new tax on foreign-derived intangible income, (iii) the base erosion anti-abuse tax, (iv) deductibility limitations on performance-based compensation, (v) deductibility limitations on business interest under Section 163(j) and (vi) deductibility limitations on meal and entertainment related expenses. The Company will continue to evaluate the effect of these provisions and adjust its financial statements if necessary as new information becomes available.

The Company's effective income tax rate from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 was 23.9% and 21.8%, respectively, compared with 25.9% and 26.1% for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, respectively. The effective tax rate is determined by computing the estimated annual effective tax rate, adjusted for discrete items, if any, which are taken into account in the appropriate period. Several factors determine the Company's effective tax rate, including the mix and amount of global earnings, the impact of subsidiaries with losses for which no tax benefit is available due to valuation allowances, audit-related adjustments, and the impact of permanent tax adjustments.

For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, the Company's effective tax rate was lower than the blended U.S. statutory income tax rate of 25.7%. The statutory rate for fiscal 2018 was revised during the second quarter of fiscal 2018 due to the provisions of the TCJA, as discussed above. Items that impacted the effective tax rate included:

- i. the one-time toll charge on certain undistributed earnings of non-U.S. subsidiaries with associated foreign tax credits as a result of the TCJA;
- ii. the remeasurement of the Company's deferred tax balances to the applicable reduced statutory income tax rates as a result of the TCJA;
- iii. a permanent tax benefit related to a worthless stock deduction from the reorganization and exit of the Company's steel trading business headquartered in the United Kingdom;
- iv. the proportion of the Company's global income from operations in jurisdictions with lower statutory tax rates than the U.S., including Poland, which has a statutory income tax rate of 19.0%;
- v. a permanent tax benefit recorded under ASU 2016-09 for stock awards that vested during the first nine months of fiscal 2018; and
- vi. a non-taxable gain on assets related to the Company's non-qualified Benefits Restoration Plan ("BRP").

For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, the Company's effective tax rate was lower than the U.S. statutory income tax rate of 35.0%. Items that impacted the effective tax rate included:

- i. the proportion of the Company's global income from operations in jurisdictions with lower statutory tax rates than the U.S., including Poland, which has a statutory income tax rate of 19.0%;
- ii. a permanent tax benefit under Section 199 of the Internal Revenue Code related to domestic production activity;
- iii. a non-taxable gain on assets related to the Company's non-qualified BRP; and
- iv. losses from operations in certain jurisdictions in which the Company maintains a valuation allowance, thus providing no benefit for such losses.

For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, the Company's effective income tax rates from discontinued operations of 30.4% and 40.9%, respectively, were greater than the blended U.S. statutory income tax rate of 25.7% primarily as a result of losses from operations in certain jurisdictions in which the Company maintains a valuation allowance, thus providing no benefit for such losses. Additionally, the effective income tax rates were unfavorably impacted by state taxes imposed on income earned by the Company's steel trading operations headquartered in the U.S.

For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, the Company's effective income tax rate from discontinued operations of 17.4% and 20.6%, respectively, was less than the U.S. statutory income tax rate of 35.0% primarily due to pre-tax income earned in foreign jurisdictions that benefit from group loss sharing provisions. Such losses, which carry a full valuation allowance, are utilized to absorb current period income earned in foreign jurisdictions; thus, there is no associated tax expense or benefit.

The Company made net cash payments of $14.8 million and $28.2 million for income taxes during the nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

As of May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, the reserve for unrecognized income tax benefits related to the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes was $8.0 million and $9.3 million, respectively, exclusive of interest and penalties. The decrease in the reserve for unrecognized income tax benefits resulted from the expiration of the statute of limitations for the Company's fiscal 2014 federal income tax return.

The Company's policy classifies interest recognized on an underpayment of income taxes and any statutory penalties recognized on a tax position as income tax expense. For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, the Company recorded immaterial amounts of accrued interest and penalties on unrecognized income tax benefits.

During the twelve months ending May 31, 2019, it is reasonably possible that the statute of limitations pertaining to positions taken by the Company in prior year income tax returns may lapse or that income tax audits in various taxing jurisdictions could be finalized. As a result, the total amount of unrecognized income tax benefits, as well as the provision for income taxes, may decrease by approximately $8.0 million.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. and multiple foreign jurisdictions with varying statutes of limitations. In the normal course of business, CMC and its subsidiaries are subject to examination by various taxing authorities. The following is a summary of tax years subject to examination:

U.S. Federal — 2015 and forward, with the exception of the R&D credit matter discussed below
 U.S. States — 2009 and forward
 Foreign — 2011 and forward

During the fiscal year ended August 31, 2016, the Company completed an IRS examination for the years 2009 through 2011 and received confirmation from the United States Congress Joint Committee on Taxation that all matters were settled with the exception of R&D credits, which are still under review. In addition, the Company is under examination by certain state revenue authorities for the years 2009 through 2015. Management believes the Company's recorded income tax liabilities as of May 31, 2018 sufficiently reflect the anticipated outcome of these examinations.

NOTE 11. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION PLANS

The Company's stock-based compensation plans are described, and informational disclosures provided, in Note 15, Stock-Based Compensation Plans, to the audited consolidated financial statements in the 2017 Form 10-K. In general, the restricted stock units granted during fiscal 2018 vest ratably over a period of three years. However, certain restricted stock units granted during fiscal 2018 cliff vest after a period of three years. Subject to the achievement of performance targets established by the Compensation Committee of CMC's Board of Directors, the performance stock units granted during fiscal 2018 will vest after a period of three years.

During the nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017, the Company granted the following awards under its stock-based compensation plans:

(in thousands, except per share data)	2018		2017
	Shares Granted	Weighted	Shares Granted	Weighted
		Average		Average
		Grant Date Fair Value		Grant Date Fair Value
Equity Method	1,216	$ 20.69	916	$ 16.04
Liability Method	323	N/A	915	N/A

During the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, the Company recorded a benefit of $0.1 million and an expense of $1.6 million for mark-to-market adjustments on liability awards, respectively, compared to a benefit of $2.0 million and an expense of $2.7 million recorded for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, respectively, which includes the impact of the modification of certain restricted stock and performance stock units that occurred during the first quarter of fiscal 2017. As of May 31, 2018, the Company had 769 thousand equivalent shares accounted for under the liability method outstanding. The Company expects 733 thousand equivalent shares to vest.

The following table summarizes total stock-based compensation expense, including fair value remeasurements, which was mainly included in selling, general and administrative expenses on the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of earnings:

CMC had 26,886 shares that were anti-dilutive for the three months ended May 31, 2018. There are no anti-dilutive shares for the other periods presented.

CMC's restricted stock is included in the number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding, but is omitted from the basic earnings per share calculation until the shares vest.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2015, CMC's Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program under which CMC may repurchase up to $100.0 million of shares of common stock. During the nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017, CMC did not repurchase any shares of common stock. CMC had remaining authorization to repurchase $27.6 million shares of common stock at May 31, 2018.

NOTE 13. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Legal and Environmental Matters

In the ordinary course of conducting its business, the Company becomes involved in litigation, administrative proceedings and governmental investigations, including environmental matters. See Note 18, Commitments and Contingencies, to the audited consolidated financial statements in the 2017 Form 10-K.

On April 28, 2016, the Company was served with a lawsuit filed by Ector County, Texas and the State of Texas by and through the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality ("TCEQ") alleging violations of the Texas Solid Waste Disposal Act, the Texas Water Code, the Texas Clean Air Act, and TCEQ rules on spill prevention and control. The Plaintiffs amended their petition in February 2017 to include violations of TCEQ rules on recycling and storm water permits. The Plaintiffs further amended their petition in April 2017, broadening their allegations. The lawsuit, filed in the 201st Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, alleged improper disposal of solid waste and unauthorized outdoor burning activity at the Company's recycling facility located in Odessa, Texas. The lawsuit sought a penalty for each day of alleged violation under the Texas Health & Safety Code, the Texas Water Code, or the Texas Administrative Code. The parties agreed to a mediated settlement on December 1, 2017 and entered into an Agreed Final Judgment on June 12, 2018. The Agreed Final Judgment is subject to the formal approval process of the State of Texas. Under the mediated settlement, the Company will pay $1.1 million, net of insurance recoveries. The Company denies any wrongdoing in connection with the alleged claims, and the settlement does not contain an admission of liability from the Company.

The Company has received notices from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") or state agencies with similar responsibility that it is considered a potentially responsible party at several sites (none of which are owned by the Company) and may be obligated under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 ("CERCLA") or similar state statute to conduct remedial investigations, feasibility studies, remediation and/or removal of alleged releases of hazardous substances or to reimburse the EPA for such activities. The Company is involved in litigation or administrative proceedings with regard to several of these sites in which the Company is contesting, or at the appropriate time may contest, its liability at the sites. In addition, the Company has received information requests with regard to other sites which may be under consideration by the EPA as potential CERCLA sites. Some of these environmental matters or other proceedings may result in fines, penalties or judgments being assessed against the Company. At both May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, the Company had accrued $0.7 million for estimated cleanup and remediation costs in connection with CERCLA sites. The estimation process is based on currently available information, which is in many cases preliminary and incomplete. As of May 31, 2018 and August 31, 2017, total environmental liabilities, including with respect to CERCLA sites, were $4.0 million and $4.3 million, respectively, of which $2.0 million and $2.1 million, respectively, was classified as other long-term liabilities. These amounts have not been discounted to their present values. Due to evolving remediation technology, changing regulations, possible third-party contributions, the inherent shortcomings of the estimation process and other factors, amounts accrued could vary significantly from amounts paid. Historically, the amounts the Company has ultimately paid for such remediation activities have not been material.

Management believes that adequate provisions have been made in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for the potential impact of these contingencies and that the outcomes of the suits and proceedings described above, and other miscellaneous litigation and proceedings now pending, will not have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of the Company.

NOTE 14. BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The Company's operating segments earn revenues and incur expenses for which discrete financial information is available. Operating results for the operating segments are regularly reviewed by the Company's chief operating decision maker to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segments and to assess performance. The Company's chief operating decision maker is identified as the Chief Executive Officer. Operating segments are aggregated for reporting purposes when the operating segments are identified as similar in accordance with the basic principles and aggregation criteria in the accounting standards. The Company's reporting segments are based primarily on product lines and secondarily on geographic area. The reporting segments have different lines of management responsibility as each business requires different marketing strategies and management expertise.

The Company structures its business into the following four reporting segments: Americas Recycling, Americas Mills, Americas Fabrication, and International Mill. See Note 1, Nature of Operations, of the audited consolidated financial statements included in the 2017 Form 10-K for more information about the reporting segments, including the types of products and services from which each reporting segment derives its net sales. During the second quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company substantially completed the exit of the International Marketing and Distribution segment. See Note 2, Changes in Business, for further information. Certain components of the International Marketing and Distribution segment which were wound down in prior periods, including the Company's steel trading operations based in the United Kingdom, did not meet the criteria for discontinued operations and thus, are included in continuing operations for all periods presented. Such activities are included in the results of Corporate and Other, and are immaterial for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018. Corporate and Other also contains earnings or losses on assets and liabilities related to the BRP assets and short-term investments as well as expenses of the Company's corporate headquarters and interest expense related to its long-term debt.

The Company uses adjusted operating profit (loss) from continuing operations to compare and evaluate the financial performance of its segments. Adjusted operating profit (loss) is the sum of the Company's earnings from continuing operations before interest expense, income taxes and discounts on sales of accounts receivable. Intersegment sales are generally priced at prevailing market prices. Certain corporate administrative expenses are allocated to the segments based upon the nature of the expense. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, of the audited consolidated financial statements included in the 2017 Form 10-K.

As a vertically integrated organization, we manufacture, recycle, and market steel and metal products, related materials and services through a network of facilities that includes four electric arc furnace ("EAF") mini mills, two EAF micro mills, a rerolling mill, steel fabrication and processing plants, construction-related product warehouses, and metal recycling facilities in the United States ("U.S.") and Poland. Our operations are conducted through the following business segments: Americas Recycling, Americas Mills, Americas Fabrication, and International Mill. See Note 2, Changes in Business, and Note 14, Business Segments, for additional information regarding our exit of the International Marketing and Distribution segment.

Financial Results Overview

The following discussion of our results of operations is based on our continuing operations and excludes any results of our discontinued operations. In the table below, we have included financial measures that were not derived in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. ("GAAP"). Refer to the information and reconciliations in the section entitled "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" at the end of this Item 2 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

+ Non-GAAP financial measure

Net sales from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased 15% and 21%, respectively, compared to the same periods for fiscal 2017. The increase in net sales is largely attributable to increased selling prices and volumes, driven by year-over-year improvement in global economic indicators, including increased non-residential construction spending, as well as increased input costs. This has led to increased pricing of our primary product offerings, which favorably impacted our quarter-over-quarter and year-over-year selling prices in our Americas Recycling, Americas Mills, and International Mill segments. In our Americas Fabrication segment, average selling prices related to our backlog, originally contracted at lower prices, have not kept pace with increased input and production costs, as seen in our quarter-over-quarter and year-over-year results. However, new contract bookings indicate that pricing in this segment is beginning to reflect increased input costs.

We have incurred costs throughout fiscal 2018 related to the pending acquisition of certain rebar assets of Gerdau S.A. Such costs have been reflected in the quarter and year-to-date results of our Corporate and Other segment. Additionally, our results for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 include expenses related to start-up activities of our new micro mill in Durant, Oklahoma. Our fiscal 2018 results also reflect the estimated year-to-date discrete impact that the TCJA will have on our net earnings.

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, we concluded the wind down of our operations in the International Marketing and Distribution segment, the results of which are included in discontinued operations. As of May 31, 2018, we have collected substantially all proceeds related to the exit of this segment. See Note 2, Changes in Business, for further discussion of the wind down of the International Marketing and Distribution segment.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses from continuing operations increased $8.0 million for the three months ended May 31, 2018 and increased $23.6 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2018, in each case compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. The three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 include increased impairment charges of $0.9 million and $13.0 million, respectively, compared to the same periods of fiscal 2017, primarily related to the sale of our structural steel fabrication operations, as discussed in Note 2, Changes in Business. Additionally, we incurred increased professional services-related expenses, primarily as a result of acquisition-related activities, for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 of $4.4 million and $11.6 million, respectively. Also contributing to period-over-period increases were increased employee-related expenses of $5.0 million and $0.3 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 decreased $0.9 million and $12.9 million, respectively, compared to the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017. The overall decrease was a result of refinancing activities during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2017 that reduced our debt obligations by approximately $260 million, which was partially offset by additional interest expense related to the May 2018 issuance of the 2026 Notes.

Income Taxes

The provisions of the recently enacted TCJA, discussed in Note 10, Income Tax, require a one-time U.S. toll charge related to undistributed earnings of non-U.S. subsidiaries. While this toll charge generally reduces the U.S. tax burden on future distributions from non-U.S. subsidiaries, other global income tax considerations, such as non-U.S. income and withholding taxes, are relevant as it pertains to the taxation of earnings in our non-U.S. subsidiaries. With respect to such earnings, we intend to indefinitely reinvest all undistributed earnings of our non-U.S. subsidiaries.

Our effective income tax rate from continuing operations for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 was 23.9% and 21.8%, respectively, compared with 25.9% and 26.1% for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, respectively. The decrease in our effective income tax rate from continuing operations is largely attributable to the remeasurement of the Company's deferred tax balances to the applicable reduced statutory income tax rates as a result of the TCJA, a permanent tax benefit related to a reorganization of certain international operations and a permanent tax benefit recorded under ASU 2016-09 for stock awards that vested during the first nine months of fiscal 2018. See Note 10, Income Tax, for further discussion of the TCJA and other factors impacting our effective tax rate. Our effective income tax rates were also impacted by state and local taxes as well as earnings or losses from foreign jurisdictions. State and local taxes are generally consistent over time, while the composition of domestic and foreign earnings can create larger fluctuations in our effective tax rate.

SEGMENT OPERATING DATA

Unless otherwise indicated, all dollar amounts below are from continuing operations and calculated before income taxes. Financial results for our reportable segments are consistent with the basis in which we internally disaggregate financial information for the purpose of making operating decisions. See Note 14, Business Segments. The operational data presented in the tables below is calculated using averages; and therefore, it is not meaningful to quantify the effect that any individual component had on the segment's net sales or adjusted operating profit.

Net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased $69.9 million, or 24%, and $309.9 million, or 45%, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. The increase in net sales for the three months ended May 31, 2018 was due to increases in average ferrous and nonferrous selling prices of $50 and $235 per short ton, respectively, coupled with increases in ferrous and nonferrous tons shipped of 9% and 7%, respectively, in each case compared to the corresponding period in fiscal 2017. The increase in net sales for the nine months ended May 31, 2018 was due to increases in average ferrous and nonferrous selling prices of $50 and $298 per short ton, respectively, coupled with increases in ferrous and nonferrous tons shipped of 26% and 19%, respectively, in each case compared to the corresponding period in fiscal 2017. The increases in tons shipped resulted from continued strong scrap demand due to increased U.S. steel mill capacity utilization, an improved pricing environment across many commodities, and an increase in our internal capacity as a result of our acquisition of seven recycling facilities during the third quarter of fiscal 2017, which accounted for approximately 40% and 70% of the total increase in tons shipped for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017.

Adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 was $14.4 million and $36.6 million, respectively, compared to adjusted operating profit of $9.2 million and $12.0 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, respectively. For the third fiscal quarter of 2018, the increase was primarily due to a 17% increase in average ferrous metal margins compared to the corresponding period in fiscal 2017. Partially offsetting the benefit of margin expansion for the three months ended May 31, 2018 were increased per ton freight costs of 9%. The improvement in adjusted operating profit for the nine months ended May 31, 2018 as compared to the same period in fiscal 2017 was primarily due to increases of 17% and 9% in ferrous and nonferrous metal margins, respectively. Also contributing to the increase in adjusted operating profit was the improved volumes in ferrous and nonferrous shipments described above.

Net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased $125.8 million, or 29%, and $241.4 million, or 21%, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. The increase in net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 was due to an increase in average selling price of $92 and $65 per short ton, respectively, largely driven by selling price increases in response to the increased scrap prices described in our Americas Recycling segment. Also contributing to increased net sales were 12% and 8% increases in tons shipped in the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017, as a result of improved demand from the service center industry and increased non-residential construction spending.

Adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased $19.7 million and $3.6 million, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. Offsetting the increase in adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 was increased period-over-period costs during fiscal 2018 related to our new micro mill in Durant, Oklahoma of approximately $2.2 million and $12.0 million, respectively, which includes $3.0 million of incentives recorded as income during the quarter. Other items adversely impacting adjusted operating profit during the third quarter and the first nine months of fiscal 2018, compared to the same periods in fiscal 2017, were increased freight costs on a per ton basis of 4%, as well as increased manufacturing supply costs due to inflationary pressures for electrodes and alloys compared to the same periods of fiscal 2017.

Americas Fabrication

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	May 31,		May 31,
(in thousands)	2018	2017	2018	2017

Rebar and other			$777	$775
Short tons shipped (in thousands)			$784	$772
Rebar and other	302	310	808	836

Net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 were flat compared to the same periods in fiscal 2017, with the impact of modest period-over-period increases in price and reductions in shipments offsetting one another. Average selling prices in this segment were largely driven by projects from our backlog, which were generally contracted prior to the escalation of scrap and other input costs.

For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, adjusted operating loss was $16.1 million and $48.0 million, respectively, compared to adjusted operating profit of $1.8 million and $9.0 million in the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. Included in adjusted operating loss for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 were impairment charges of $0.9 million and $13.5 million, respectively, primarily related to the sale of our structural steel fabrication business during the third quarter of fiscal 2018. Impacting the period-over-period change for both the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, was a 31% and 19% reduction, respectively, in average rebar fabrication metal margin, driven by the lag in our fabrication project backlog where average selling prices did not keep pace with increasing raw material costs.

(in thousands)	Three Months Ended May 31,		Nine Months Ended May 31,
	2018	2017	2018	2017
Net sales	$201,737	$167,639	$633,980	$437,034

Melted	389	380	1,137	1,066
Rolled	316	326	974	948
Shipped	320	354	1,066	983

Net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased $34.1 million, or 20%, and $196.9 million, or 45%, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017, driven largely by increased construction activity and economic improvements in the Polish and surrounding markets, resulting in an increase in average selling prices of 35% for both the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018. Short tons shipped during the three months ended May 31, 2018 decreased by approximately 10% as a result of increased imports into the Polish market; however, the impact of such decreased shipments was more than offset by our increased selling prices. The increase in net sales for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 also reflects favorable foreign currency translation impacts of approximately $22.3 million and $76.0 million, respectively, due to the fluctuations of the U.S. dollar in relation to the Polish zloty.

Adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 increased $11.4 million and $39.8 million, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. The increases in adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 resulted from increases of 42% and 32%, respectively, in average metal margin compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. Metal margin expansion occurred across all product lines during the first nine months of fiscal 2018, as increased selling prices outpaced average cost increases, particularly for higher-margin merchant products. Partially offsetting these increases in adjusted operating profit were increases in per ton employee-related costs of 38% and 20% for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively, as compared to the same periods in fiscal 2017. Additionally, fluctuations in the U.S. dollar relative to the Polish zloty resulted in increases of approximately $2.5 million and $8.0 million of this segment's adjusted operating profit for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018, respectively.

Corporate and Other

Corporate and Other adjusted operating loss increased $2.4 million for the three months ended May 31, 2018 and decreased $6.5 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2018, compared to the corresponding periods in fiscal 2017. The increase for the three months ended May 31, 2018 was primarily the result of a $4.8 million increase in professional services driven by acquisition-related activities, partially offset by a $3.1 million reduction in depreciation expense as compared to the three months ended May 31, 2017. The decrease for the nine months ended May 31, 2018 was primarily a result of a $5.4 million reduction in depreciation expense, a $7.1 million decrease in employee-related expenses and a $1.6 million reduction in other fees including bank fees and insurance, as compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017. Partially offsetting the reduced costs during the nine months ended May 31, 2018 was an $11.9 million increase in professional services that were primarily a result of acquisition-related activities, as compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017.

Also impacting our year-over-year change in adjusted operating loss was the impact of prior year operating results of certain operations related to our former International Marketing and Distribution segment which did not meet the criteria for discontinued operations, and are now included in our results of Corporate and Other, as discussed in Note 14, Business Segments. These results had an immaterial impact on adjusted operating loss for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018. For the three and nine months ended May 31, 2017, these operations had adjusted operating income of $0.9 million and adjusted operating loss of $2.4 million, respectively.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS DATA

See Note 2, Changes in Business, for information regarding discontinued operations.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

See Note 7, Credit Arrangements, for additional information.

While we believe the lending institutions participating in our credit arrangements are financially capable, it is important to note that the banking and capital markets periodically experience volatility that may limit our ability to raise capital in a cost efficient manner. Additionally, our financing costs associated with raising capital may be affected by changes to our credit rating made by any rating agency.

The table below reflects our sources, facilities and availability of liquidity as of May 31, 2018:

(in thousands)	Total Facility	Availability
Cash and cash equivalents	$600,444	$ 600,444
Notes due from 2023 to 2027	980,000	*
Revolving credit facility	350,000	346,728

International accounts receivable sales facilities	54,179	36,117
Bank credit facilities — uncommitted	60,951	59,284
Other, including equipment notes	46,763	*

* We believe we have access to additional financing and refinancing, if needed.

Sources of Liquidity and Capital Resources

We expect cash on hand and cash generated from operations to be sufficient to meet all interest payments due within the next twelve months. See Note 7, Credit Arrangements, for further information regarding such interest payment obligations.

Our U.S. operations have access to the $350.0 million credit facility described in Note 7, Credit Arrangements, and the $200.0 million sale of accounts receivable program described below.

We regularly maintain a substantial amount of accounts receivable. We actively monitor our accounts receivable and, based on market conditions and customers' financial condition, we record allowances as soon as we believe accounts are uncollectible. Continued pressure on the liquidity of our customers could result in additional allowances as we make our assessments in the future. We use credit insurance both in the U.S. and internationally to mitigate the risk of customer insolvency. We estimate that the amount of credit insured receivables (and those covered by export letters of credit) was approximately 14% of total trade receivables at May 31, 2018. For added flexibility, we may sell certain accounts receivable both in the U.S. and internationally. See Note 4, Sales of Accounts Receivable, for further information.

Stock Repurchase Program

During the first quarter of fiscal 2015, CMC's Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program under which we may repurchase up to $100.0 million of shares of common stock. As of May 31, 2018, the approximate value of shares of common stock that may yet be purchased under this program is $27.6 million. We may repurchase shares from time to time for cash in the open market or privately-negotiated transactions in accordance with applicable federal securities laws. The timing and the amount of repurchases, if any, are determined by management based on an evaluation of market conditions, capital allocation alternatives and other factors. The share repurchase program does not require us to purchase any dollar amount or number of shares of common stock and may be modified, suspended, extended or terminated at any time without prior notice. We did not purchase any shares of common stock during the three and nine months ended May 31, 2018 and 2017.

Pending Acquisition

On December 29, 2017, we entered into a definitive purchase agreement to acquire certain U.S. rebar steel mill and fabrication assets from Gerdau S.A. See Note 2, Changes in Business, for further information. The Company expects to fund the purchase price for the acquisition with cash on hand together with proceeds from the 2026 Notes and borrowings under the 2018 Term Loan (as defined in Note 7, Credit Arrangements).

In connection with the issuance of the 2026 Notes during the third quarter of fiscal 2018, we terminated the commitment letter governing the Term Loan B Facility, which we entered into on December 29, 2017. See Note 7, Credit Arrangements, for further information.

Operating Cash Flow and Capital Expenditures

Operating Activities

Our cash flows from operating activities result primarily from the sale of steel and related products, and to a lesser extent, sales of nonferrous metal products and other raw materials used in steel manufacturing. We have a diverse and generally stable customer base. From time to time, we use futures or forward contracts to mitigate the risks from fluctuations in metal commodity prices, foreign currency exchange rates, natural gas prices and interest rates. See Note 8, Derivatives and Risk Management, for further information.

Net cash flows from operating activities increased $72.7 million for the nine months ended May 31 2018, compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017. Year-over-year cash flows from operating activities increased as a result of improved earnings after taking into consideration non-cash charges, as compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017. Our year-over-year cash flows from changes in operating assets and liabilities ("working capital") for the nine months ended May 31, 2018 reflect a net increase in working capital, largely driven by increased input costs and volumes. Also included are net inflows related to the wind down of our International Marketing and Distribution operations, which was partially offset by net repayments of $71.9 million of advance payments outstanding on our sale of trade accounts receivable programs. For continuing operations, days sales outstanding improved by 5 days, while days sales in inventory was flat compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017.

Investing Activities

Net cash flows used by investing activities decreased $186.3 million for the nine months ended May 31 2018 as compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017. The overall year-over-year reduction in cash used by investing activities was largely due to cash receipts during the third fiscal quarter of 2018 related to the sale of our structural steel operations in the U.S. and our trading operations in Australia. The sale of our remaining assets in Australia concludes the exit of our International Marketing and Distribution segment. Also contributing to the year-over-year decrease in cash flows used by investing activities was the collection of $25.0 million from the settlement of certain life insurance policies received during the second quarter of fiscal 2018. Additional items impacting year-over-year changes in cash used by investing activities include decreased cash outflows in fiscal 2018 of $47.4 million related to acquisitions, and decreased outflows for capital spending in fiscal 2018 of $17.8 million, primarily related to reduced year-over-year spending required at our new micro mill in Durant, Oklahoma, in each case compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017.

During fiscal 2018, we anticipate capital expenditures ranging from $175 million to $200 million. We expect that our capital spending will be funded from internally generated capital. We regularly assess our capital spending and reevaluate our requirements based on current and expected results.

Financing Activities

Net year-over-year cash flows from financing activities during fiscal 2018 increased by $330.7 million compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2017. The increase was primarily due to the receipt of funds received in connection with the issuance of the 2026 Notes. This increase was partially offset by increased outflows of $6.6 million related to repayments of long-term debt during fiscal 2018, including required minimum principal payments associated with the 2022 Term Loan (as defined in Note 7, Credit Arrangements). We regularly evaluate the use of our cash in efforts to maximize total shareholder return, including debt repayment, capital deployment, share repurchases and dividends.

We anticipate our current cash balances, cash flows from operations and our available sources of liquidity will be sufficient to meet our cash requirements, including our scheduled debt repayments, payments for our contractual obligations, capital expenditures, working capital needs, share repurchases, dividends and other prudent uses of our capital, such as future acquisitions. However, in the event of sustained market deterioration, we may need additional liquidity, which would require us to evaluate available alternatives and take appropriate steps to obtain sufficient additional funds.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

Our contractual obligations increased approximately $302.7 million to $2.0 billion at May 31, 2018 from $1.7 billion at August 31, 2017. This increase was primarily related to the issuance of the 2026 Notes during the third quarter of fiscal 2018. Our estimated contractual obligations for the twelve months ending May 31, 2019 are approximately $413.2 million and primarily consist of expenditures incurred in connection with normal revenue producing activities.

Other Commercial Commitments

We maintain stand-by letters of credit to provide support for certain transactions that our insurance providers and suppliers request. At May 31, 2018, we had committed $24.1 million under these arrangements, of which $3.3 million reduced availability under the Revolver.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

For added flexibility, we may sell certain trade accounts receivable both in the U.S. and internationally. We utilize proceeds from the sales of the trade accounts receivable as an alternative to short-term borrowings, effectively managing our overall borrowing costs and providing an additional source of working capital. We account for sales of the trade accounts receivable as true sales and the trade accounts receivable balances that are sold are removed from the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. The cash advances received are reflected as cash provided by operating activities on our unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows. See Note 4, Sales of Accounts Receivable, for additional information.

CONTINGENCIES

See Note 13, Commitments and Contingencies, for further information.

In the ordinary course of conducting our business, we become involved in litigation, administrative proceedings and governmental investigations, including with respect to environmental matters. We may incur settlements, fines, penalties or judgments in connection with these matters. Liabilities and costs associated with litigation-related loss contingencies require estimates and judgments based on our knowledge of the facts and circumstances surrounding each matter and the advice of our legal counsel. We record liabilities for litigation-related losses when a loss is probable and we can reasonably estimate the amount of the loss. We evaluate the measurement of recorded liabilities each reporting period based on the current facts and circumstances specific to each matter. The ultimate losses incurred upon final resolution of litigation-related loss contingencies may differ materially from the estimated liability recorded at a particular balance sheet date. Changes in estimates are recorded in earnings in the period in which such changes occur. We do not believe that any currently pending legal proceedings to which we are a party will have a material adverse effect, individually or in the aggregate, on our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

Adjusted Operating Profit from Continuing Operations

Adjusted operating profit from continuing operations is the sum of our earnings from continuing operations before interest expense, income taxes and discounts on sales of accounts receivable. Adjusted operating profit from continuing operations should not be considered as an alternative to earnings from continuing operations or net earnings, as determined by GAAP. However, we believe that adjusted operating profit from continuing operations provides relevant and useful information, which is often used by analysts, creditors and other interested parties as it allows: (i) a supplemental measure of our ongoing core performance and (ii) the assessment of period-to-period performance trends. Management uses adjusted operating profit from continuing operations to evaluate our financial performance. For added flexibility, we may sell certain trade accounts receivable both in the U.S. and internationally. We consider sales of accounts receivable as an alternative source of liquidity to finance our operations, and we believe that removing these costs provides a clearer perspective of our operating performance. Adjusted operating profit from continuing operations may be inconsistent with similar measures presented by other companies.

Reconciliations of earnings from continuing operations to adjusted operating profit from continuing operations are provided below:

(in thousands)	Three Months Ended May 31,		Nine Months Ended May 31,
	2018	2017	2018	2017

Adjusted EBITDA from Continuing Operations

Adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations is the sum of earnings from continuing operations before interest expense and income taxes. It also excludes our largest recurring non-cash charge, depreciation and amortization, as well as long-lived asset and goodwill impairment charges, which are also non-cash charges. Adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations should not be considered as an alternative to earnings from continuing operations or net earnings, or as a better measure of liquidity than net cash flows from operating activities, as determined by GAAP. However, we believe that adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations provides relevant and useful information, which is often used by analysts, creditors and other interested parties as it allows: (i) comparison of our earnings to those of our competitors; (ii) a supplemental measure of our ongoing core performance; and (iii) the assessment of period-to-period performance trends. Additionally, adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations is the target benchmark for our annual and long-term cash incentive performance plans for management. Adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations may be inconsistent with similar measures presented by other companies.

Reconciliations of earnings from continuing operations to adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations are provided below:

Adjusted Earnings from Continuing Operations

Adjusted earnings from continuing operations is a non-GAAP financial measure that is equal to earnings from continuing operations before certain material acquisition and integration costs, mill operational start-up costs, CMC Steel Oklahoma incentives, asset impairments, debt restructuring and extinguishment gains and losses and severance expenses, including the estimated income tax effects thereof. Additionally, we adjust adjusted earnings from continuing operations for the effects of the TCJA as well as the tax benefit associated with an international reorganization. Adjusted earnings from continuing operations should not be considered as an alternative to earnings from continuing operations or any other performance measure derived in accordance with GAAP. However, we believe that adjusted earnings from continuing operations provides relevant and useful information to investors as it allows: (i) a supplemental measure of our ongoing core performance and (ii) the assessment of period-to-period performance trends. Management uses adjusted earnings from continuing operations to evaluate our financial performance. Adjusted earnings from continuing operations may be inconsistent with similar measures presented by other companies. Adjusted earnings from continuing operations per diluted share is defined as adjusted earnings from continuing operations on a diluted per share basis.

Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update, amend or clarify any forward-looking statements to reflect changed assumptions, the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events, new information or circumstances or any other changes. Some of the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations include the following:

- changes in economic conditions which affect demand for our products or construction activity generally, and the impact of such changes on the highly cyclical steel industry;
- rapid and significant changes in the price of metals, potentially impairing our inventory values due to declines in commodity prices;
- excess capacity in our industry, particularly in China, and product availability from competing steel mills and other steel suppliers including import quantities and pricing;
- compliance with and changes in environmental laws and regulations, including increased regulation associated with climate change and greenhouse gas emissions;
- involvement in various environmental matters that may result in fines, penalties or judgments;

- failure to retain key management and employees of the Business;
- issues or delays in the successful integration of the Business' operations with those of the Company, including the inability to substantially increase utilization of the Business' steel mini mills, and incurring or experiencing unanticipated costs and/or delays or difficulties;

difficulties or delays in the successful transition of the Business to the information technology systems of the Company as well as risks associated with other integration or transition of the operations, systems and personnel of the Business;

future levels of revenues being lower than expected and costs being higher than expected;

failure or inability to implement growth strategies in a timely manner;

- currency fluctuations;
- global factors, including political uncertainties and military conflicts;

- our ability to hire and retain key executives and other employees;
- competition from other materials or from competitors that have a lower cost structure or access to greater financial resources;
- information technology interruptions and breaches in data security;
- ability to make necessary capital expenditures;
- availability and pricing of raw materials and other items over which we exert little influence, including scrap metal, energy, insurance and supply prices;
- unexpected equipment failures;
- our ability to realize the anticipated benefits of our investment in our new micro mill in Durant, Oklahoma;
- losses or limited potential gains due to hedging transactions;
- litigation claims and settlements, court decisions, regulatory rulings and legal compliance risks;
- risk of injury or death to employees, customers or other visitors to our operations;
- impacts from the TCJA;
- increased costs related to health care reform legislation; and
- those factors listed under Part I, Item 1A, Risk Factors, included in the 2017 Form 10-K.

You should refer to the “Risk Factors” disclosed in our periodic and current reports filed with the SEC for specific risks which would cause actual results to be significantly different from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. It is not possible to identify all of the risks, uncertainties and other factors that may affect future results. In light of these risks and uncertainties, the forward-looking events and circumstances discussed herein may not occur and actual results could differ materially from those anticipated or implied in the forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers of this Form 10-Q are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The term "disclosure controls and procedures" is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act. This term refers to the controls and other procedures of a company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within required time periods, and includes controls and procedures designed to ensure that such information is accumulated and communicated to the company's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and they have concluded that as of that date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) that occurred during our fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2018 that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is a defendant in lawsuits associated with the normal conduct of its businesses and operations. It is not possible to predict the outcome of the pending actions, and, as with any litigation, it is possible that these actions could be decided unfavorably to the Company. We believe that there are meritorious defenses to these actions and that these actions will not have a material adverse effect upon our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition, and, where appropriate, these actions are being vigorously contested.

On April 28, 2016, we were served with a lawsuit filed by Ector County, Texas and the State of Texas by and through the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality ("TCEQ") alleging violations of the Texas Solid Waste Disposal Act, the Texas Water Code, the Texas Clean Air Act, and TCEQ rules on spill prevention and control. The Plaintiffs amended their petition in February 2017 to include violations of TCEQ rules on recycling and storm water permits. The Plaintiffs further amended their petition in April 2017, broadening their allegations. The lawsuit, filed in the 201st Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, alleged improper disposal of solid waste and unauthorized outdoor burning activity at the Company's recycling facility located in Odessa, Texas. The lawsuit sought a penalty for each day of alleged violation under the Texas Health & Safety Code, the Texas Water Code, or the Texas Administrative Code. The parties agreed to a mediated settlement on December 1, 2017 and entered into an Agreed Final Judgment on June 12, 2018. The Agreed Final Judgment is subject to the formal approval process of the State of Texas. Under the mediated settlement, the Company will pay $1.1 million, net of insurance recoveries. The Company denies any wrongdoing in connection with the alleged claims, and the settlement does not contain an admission of liability from the Company.

We are subject to laws and regulations relating to protection of the environment. It is not possible to quantify with certainty the potential impact of actions relating to environmental matters, particularly remediation and other compliance efforts that our subsidiaries may undertake in the future. We believe, however, compliance with current environmental protection laws (before taking into account estimated recoveries from third parties) will not have a material adverse effect upon our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition.
