PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period.

Jack Henry & Associates, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended December 31, 2014 within the prescribed time period because management of the Company, as well as our independent registered public accounting firm, Deloitte and Touche LLP ("Deloitte"), is in the process of re-evaluating the Company's fiscal 2014 accounting for revenue recognition policies. We will not file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended December 31, 2014 until that re-evaluation is completed.

Management of the Company and Deloitte re-evaluated our internal control over financial reporting related to our revenue recognition for certain of our Software License Maintenance and Service Agreements in fiscal 2014. The Company's management then concluded that material weaknesses existed in those areas and that, therefore, internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of June 30, 2014. Similarly, management has concluded that because those same material weaknesses had not yet been remediated by September 30, 2014, our disclosure controls and procedures continued to be ineffective as of that date. These same material weaknesses have also not yet been remediated.

The Company expects to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended December 31, 2014 as soon as practicable. The Company presently expects that the filing will be delayed for a period of two to four weeks. The Company does not expect any material changes to the financial results disclosed in the Company's earnings release dated February 3, 2014.
