A/S Dampskibsselskabet TORM ("TORM") increases focus on core business areas - sells USA - West Africa liner activity to the A. P. Moller Group

- o TORM sells TORM Lines to companies in the A.P. Moller Group, and increases its focus on its core business areas, product tanker and dry bulk activities.
- o The transaction includes assets with a book value of approximately DKK 6.8 million. Net of transaction costs and provisions, the gain before tax is estimated to be approximately DKK 63 million. Over time, the sale will release working capital in the range of DKK 25-30 million.
- o TORM Lines employs 30 people, of which 26 will be transferred to A. P. Moller. The remaining employees continue their employment with TORM.
- o Net turnover in TORM Lines was DKK 581 million in 2001 and pre-tax profit was DKK 13.3 million in 2001.
- o As a consequence of the sale, TORM now expects net income after tax for 2002 to be in the range of DKK 430-440 million or DKK 23.6-24.2 per share, compared to an expected net income after tax of DKK 380 million announced in connection with the release of first half figures on 12 August 2002.

For several years TORM's principal business areas have been transportation of refined petroleum products and dry bulk transportation. The sale of TORM Lines is thus a continuation of the process towards increased focus on core business areas that began with the announcement in 2001 of the planned cessation of operations in offshore supply vessel segment.

TORM Lines is a leading operator with more than 20 years' of experience in liner operations between the US and West Africa, with a non stop service across the Atlantic combined with a feeder service along the West African coast. The fleet consists of eight ships, all of which are chartered in. The activities of TORM Lines are not incorporated in a separate legal entity.

The parties have agreed not to disclose the consideration of the transaction.

EC Hambro Rabben & Partners Limited acted as financial advisor to TORM in connection with the transaction.

Yours sincerely,
A/S Dampskibsselskabet TORM

Klaus Kjaerulff, CEO
