Included below is the text of an email sent by Kent C. Lufkin, President and Chief Executive Officer of TF Financial Corporation, to all employees regarding the announcement of the proposed merger of TF Financial Corporation with National Penn Bancshares, Inc. The press release that follows this text was attached to the email.

I would like to announce the proposed merger of TF Financial Corporation (3rd Fed Bank) with National Penn Bancshares (National Penn Bank) that was publicly announced this morning.

The Merger Agreement that was executed late yesterday afternoon by the Board of Directors of both institutions provides that TF Financial Corp and 3rd Fed Bank will be acquired by National Penn Bancshares.

I know that many of you are wondering how this merger will affect 3rd Fed and you personally. We will begin working with National Penn Bank immediately to discuss any changes that may occur in our operating procedures, benefits programs and employee policies, etc.

Starting this morning, I will begin meeting with all 3rd Fed staff to answer questions and discuss this new and exciting change. On Tuesday, June 10th, Scott Fainor (the President and CEO of National Penn Bank) and I will host a meeting of all 3rd Fed Bank employees to discuss the merger, the future and answer your questions. The meeting will be held at the Middletown Country Club from 6:00pm to 9:00pm.

We anticipate that the merger will be completed as early as October/November 2014. Between now and then, we will work together to insure an orderly transition as we become part of this strong and highly respected regional bank. Each of us has an important role in maintaining the business of our Bank and in helping our customers understand the many benefits of this merger.

I would like to thank all of you in advance for helping to make this transition smooth and successful for our employees and customers.
