General

The securities are designed for investors who seek a return at maturity of at least 260.00% (to be determined on the Trade Date) of any increase in the level of the EURO STOXX 50® Index (the “Underlying”), up to the Maximum Return of at least 65.00% (to be determined on the Trade Date). If the Final Level is less than the Initial Level but greater than or equal to the Trigger Level (equal to 75.00% of the Initial Level), investors will receive a cash payment at maturity equal to the Face Amount per $1,000 Face Amount of securities. However, if the Final Level is less than the Trigger Level, for each $1,000 Face Amount of securities, investors will lose 1.00% of the Face Amount for every 1.00% by which the Final Level is less than the Initial Level. The securities do not pay any coupons or dividends and investors should be willing to lose a significant portion or all of their investment if the Final Level is less than the Trigger Level. Any payment on the securities is subject to the credit of the Issuer.

Note Characteristics

- n Opportunity to receive enhanced returns if the Final Level is greater than the Initial Level
- n Receive the Face Amount if the Final Level is less than the Initial Level but greater than the Trigger Level
- n Loss of some and possibly all of the Face Amount if the Final Level is less than the Trigger Level

Risk Considerations

- n You will lose a significant portion and possibly all of your investment in the securities if the Final Level is less than the Trigger Level
- n Unlike ordinary debt securities, the securities do not pay any coupons or dividends nAny payment on the securities is subject to the credit of the Issuer.

n The Issuer (or its affiliates) intends to offer to purchase the securities in the secondary market but is not required to do so. Accordingly, you should be able and willing to hold your securities to maturity.

nAdditional risk factors can be found below.

Calculating the Payment at Maturity

For every $1,000 Face Amount of securities, investors will receive at maturity an amount based on the Underlying Return, determined as follows. Any payment on the securities is subject to the credit of the Issuer.

Hypothetical Examples

The hypothetical returns set forth below reflect $1,000 of Face Amount of securities and the Trigger Level of 75.00% and assume an Upside Leverage Factor of 260.00% and a Maximum Return of 65.00%. The actual Upside Leverage Factor, Maximum Return and Initial Level will be determined on the Trade Date.

Selected Risk Factors

An investment in the securities involves significant risks. Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing directly in the stocks composing the Underlying. The below summary of selected risk factors does not describe all of the risks associated with an investment in the securities. You should read the “Selected Risk Considerations” section of the accompanying preliminary product supplement No. 3069B at the link referenced above, as well as the “Risk Factors” sections of the product supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus accompanying preliminary pricing supplement No. 3069B, for a more complete description of risks relating to the securities.

Your investment in the securities may result in a loss.

The return on the securities is limited by the Maximum Return.

The securities do not pay any coupons.

The securities are subject to the credit of Deutsche Bank AG.

The securities may be written down, be converted into ordinary shares or other instruments of ownership or become subject to other resolution measures. You may lose some or all of your investment if any such measure becomes applicable to us.

The Issuer’s estimated value of the securities on the Trade Date will be less than the Issue Price of the securities.

Investing in the securities is not the same as investing in the stocks composing the Underlying.

If the level of the Underlying changes, the value of your securities may not change in the same manner.

No dividend payments or voting rights.

There are risks associated with investments linked to the values of equity securities issued by non-U.S. companies.

The performance of the Underlying will not be adjusted for changes in the euro relative to the U.S. dollar.

We are one of the companies that make up the Underlying.

Edgar Filing: DEUTSCHE BANK AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT - Form FWP

The Underlying reflects the price return of the stocks composing the Underlying, not their total return including all dividends and other distributions.

The sponsor of the Underlying may adjust the Underlying in ways that affect the level of the Underlying and has no obligation to consider your interests.

Past performance of the Underlying is no guide to future performance.

Assuming no changes in market conditions and other relevant factors, the price you may receive for your securities in secondary market transactions would generally be lower than both the Issue Price and the Issuer's estimated value of the securities on the Trade Date.

The securities will not be listed and there will likely be limited liquidity.

Many economic and market factors will affect the value of the securities.

Trading or other transactions by us or by our affiliates in the equity and equity derivatives markets may impair the value of the securities.

We or our affiliates may publish research, express opinions or provide recommendations that are inconsistent with investing in or holding the securities. Any such research, opinions or recommendations could adversely affect the level of the Underlying and the value of the securities.

Potential conflicts of interest exist because we and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the securities.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the securities are uncertain.
