NOMINATING PROCEDURES

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates for Board membership suggested by its members and other Board members, as well as management and shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective nominee for the Board should notify our Corporate Secretary or any member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in writing with the information required by our Bylaws, which is set forth in more detail in "Shareholder Proposals and Other Communications," below.

Once the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has identified a prospective nominee, the committee makes an initial determination as to whether to conduct a full evaluation of the candidate. This initial determination is based on whatever information is provided to the committee with the recommendation of the prospective candidate, as well as the committee's own knowledge of the prospective candidate, which may be supplemented by inquiries to the person making the recommendation or others. The preliminary determination is based primarily on the need for additional Board members to fill vacancies or expand the size of the Board and the likelihood that the prospective nominee can satisfy the evaluation factors described below. If the Committee determines, in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and other Board members as appropriate, that additional consideration is warranted, it may request a search firm to gather additional information about the prospective nominee's background and experience and to report its findings to the committee. The committee then evaluates the prospective nominee's qualifications. As set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines, there are no firm prerequisites to qualify as a candidate for the Board, although the Board seeks a group of candidates who possess the background, skills, expertise, characteristics and time to make a significant contribution to the Board, to W. P. Carey & Co. LLC and its shareholders. At least annually, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews the qualifications and backgrounds of the Directors, as well as the overall composition of the Board.

The committee also considers such other relevant factors as it deems appropriate, including the balance of management and independent directors, the need for Audit Committee or other expertise and the evaluations of other prospective nominees. In connection with this evaluation, the committee determines whether to interview the prospective nominee, and if warranted, one or more members of the committee, and others as appropriate, interview prospective nominees in person or by telephone. After completing this evaluation and interview, the committee makes a recommendation to the full Board as to the persons who should be nominated by the Board, and the Board determines the nominees after considering the recommendation and report of the committee.

NOMINEES FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nominees for election as Class I directors are Gordon F. DuGan, Ralph F. Verni and Reginald Winssinger. If elected, the nominees will serve as directors until the Annual Meeting of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC in 2007, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Unless otherwise specified, proxies will be voted for the election of the named nominees. If a nominee is unavailable for election, the Board may reduce its size or designate a substitute. If a substitute is designated, proxies voting on the original nominee will be cast for the substituted nominee. No circumstances are presently known that would render the nominees unavailable. Each of the nominees is now a member of the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is comprised entirely of independent directors and is responsible for acting on behalf of the Board with respect to (i) general compensation and benefit practices of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC, (ii) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors of salaries and other compensation actions for Wm. Polk Carey, Francis J. Carey, George E. Stoddard, Gordon F. DuGan and John J. Park, and (iii) adopting, administering and approving or recommending the approval by the Board of Directors of awards under annual and long-term incentive compensation plans.

Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee is committed to a compensation philosophy that rewards employees on the basis of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC's success in attaining corporate financial objectives as well as on the basis of the employees' success in attaining individual financial and qualitative performance objectives. W. P. Carey & Co. LLC's compensation program is designed to:

- Attract, motivate, reward and retain highly qualified executives.
- Align shareholder and employee interests.
- Reward long-term career contributions to W. P. Carey & Co. LLC.
- Emphasize the variable portion of total compensation (cash and stock) as an individual's level of responsibility increases.

11

- Provide fully competitive compensation opportunities consistent with performance.
- Encourage teamwork.

During 2003, the Compensation Committee conducted a review of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC's executive compensation programs, assessing the effectiveness of the programs and relative competitiveness versus identified companies of similar size and business characteristics to W. P. Carey & Co. LLC. This comparable group included companies from both the real estate investment trust and diversified financial marketplace representing the most direct competitors for executive talent.

Key Elements of Compensation

The key elements of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC's executive compensation program are base salary, employee benefits, annual bonus and long-term stock incentives. As an executive's level of responsibility increases, a greater portion of total compensation is based on long-term performance-based incentive compensation and less on salary and employee benefits, creating the potential for greater variability in the individual's compensation level from year to year. The mix, level and structure of performance-based incentive elements is intended to reflect industry practices as well as the executive's role and relative impact on the business. The Compensation Committee believes that company performance should be measured on the basis of both quantitative and qualitative assessments. Quantitative measures include performance in areas such as growth in funds from operations (FFO), cash flow from operations, net operating income growth, operating margins, return on invested capital and market value. Qualitative measures include performance in the areas such as asset quality, asset management, risk management and tenant retention. These quantitative and qualitative measures are not formally weighted for purposes of determining salaries or incentive awards.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code denies a deduction for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to certain executive officers, unless certain performance, disclosure, and stockholder approval requirements are met. Option and restricted stock grants under the W. P. Carey & Co. LLC 1997 Listed Share Incentive Plan are intended to qualify as "performance-based" compensation not subject to the Section 162(m) deduction limitation.

DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

In March 2004, the Board of Directors adopted W. P. Carey & Co. LLC's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Guidelines adopted by the Board meet or exceed the new listing standards adopted during the year by the New York Stock Exchange. The Guidelines can be found in the "WPC Investor Relations" section of our website (www.wpcarey.com). A copy may also be obtained upon request from our Secretary.

Pursuant to the Guidelines, the Board undertook its annual review of director independence in March 2004. During this review, the Board considered transactions and relationships between each director or any member of his or her immediate family and W. P. Carey & Co. LLC and its subsidiaries and affiliates, including those reported under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below. The Board also examined transactions and relationships between directors or their affiliates and members of our senior management or their affiliates. As provided in the Guidelines, the purpose of this review was to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent.

The New York Stock Exchange also requires that the board of directors determine whether a director is "independent" for purposes of the Exchange's Listing Standards. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has asked each director to specify in writing the nature of any material relationships the director may have with the Company, including, but not limited to, any relationships that would specifically preclude a finding of "independence" under the Listing Standards. Upon review of these disclosures, the Board has affirmatively determined that none of the directors noted as "independent" in this proxy statement has a material relationship with W. P. Carey & Co. LLC that would preclude such director's independence.

As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that Messrs. Coolidge, Faber, Klein, Townsend, Verni, von Koller and Winssinger are independent of the Company and its management under the standards set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines. Messrs. Wm. Carey, Francis Carey, DuGan and Stoddard are considered affiliated directors because of their relationship to or employment as senior executives of W. P. Carey & Co. LLC and its affiliates.

CODES OF ETHICS

We also intend to post amendments to or waivers from the Code of Ethics (to the extent applicable to our co-chief executive officers, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer) or to the Code of Ethics for Chief Executive Officers and Senior Financial Officers at this location on the website.
