Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On February 7, 2011, BioMed Realty Trust, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release regarding its financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2010, which referred to certain supplemental information that is available on the Company s website at www.biomedrealty.com. Copies of the press release and supplemental information are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein.

The information contained in this Item 2.02, including the exhibits referenced in Item 9.01, is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. Such information shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company, whether made before or after the date hereof, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

The Company and BioMed Realty, L.P. (the Operating Partnership) are disclosing the following information to supplement the disclosure regarding tax rates included in (i) the section Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations under the headings Taxation of Holders of Our Capital Stock Tax Rates in the Company s and the Operating Partnership s Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-161751) and Taxation of Holders of Our Common Stock Taxable U.S. Stockholders Generally Tax Rates in the Company s Registration Statements on Form S-3 (File Nos. 333-168030, 333-161759, 333-161753 and 333-155667), and (ii) the section U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences under the heading U.S. Holders Sale or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes in the Company s and the Operating Partnership s Registration Statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-168968), and (iii) any other discussion of tax rates in the foregoing documents:

Tax Rates

The maximum tax rate for non-corporate taxpayers for (1) capital gains, including certain capital gain dividends, is generally 15% (although depending on the characteristics of the assets which produced these gains and on designations which we may make, certain capital gain dividends may be taxed at a 25% rate) and (2) qualified dividend income is generally 15%. However, dividends payable by REITs are not eligible for the 15% tax rate on qualified dividend income, except to the extent that certain holding requirements have been met and the REIT s dividends are attributable to dividends received from taxable corporations (such as its taxable REIT subsidiaries), to income that was subject to tax at the corporate/REIT level (for example, if it distributed taxable income that it retained and paid tax on in the prior taxable year), or to dividends properly designated by the REIT as capital gain dividends. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012, the 15% the capital gains tax rate is currently scheduled to increase to 20% and the rate applicable to dividends will increase to the tax rate then applicable to ordinary income. In addition, U.S. holders that are corporations may be required to treat up to 20% of some capital gain dividends as ordinary income.

In addition, newly enacted legislation requires certain U.S. holders that are individuals, estates or trusts to pay an additional 3.8% tax on, among other things, dividends, interest on and capital gains from the sale or other disposition of stock or debt obligations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of this legislation on their ownership and disposition of our capital stock or debt securities.
