NEW CENTURY EQUITY HOLDINGS CORP.
ANNOUNCES DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT TO SELL HOLDINGS IN PRINCETON, PLAN OF LIQUIDATION AND DISSOLUTION AND
RESULTS FOR THE FOURTH QUARTER AND YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003

SAN ANTONIO, TX...New Century Equity Holdings Corp. (OTC BB: NCEH) (the "Company" or "New Century") announced today that it has signed a definitive agreement to sell all of its holdings in Princeton eCom Corporation ("Princeton"). The Company also announced that its Board of Directors has approved a plan of liquidation and dissolution of the Company and that it will file a proxy statement seeking shareholder approval of the proposed sale of New Century's holdings in Princeton and New Century's proposed liquidation and dissolution.

SALE OF HOLDINGS IN PRINCETON

The Company has entered into an agreement to sell all of its holdings in Princeton for $10.0 million in cash to existing and new investors of Princeton. This agreement was executed in conjunction with an equity financing that has infused an additional $10.3 million in Princeton for working capital purposes. Subsequent to this financing and prior to the closing of the sale of the Company's holdings in Princeton, the Company's fully diluted interest in Princeton has been reduced to approximately 23%. Additionally, the Company has lost its right to appoint a member of the Princeton board as well as other preferred stockholder rights, including the right to vote its stock in Princeton.

In connection with entering into the agreement, the Company has also been released from its guaranty of the Princeton office lease in Princeton, NJ.

The agreement to sell all of the Company's holdings in Princeton for $10.0 million is subject to the approval of the Company's shareholders and is expected to be completed as early as late July 2004.

PLAN OF LIQUIDATION

After considering all options, the Board of Directors determined that the sale of New Century's interest in Princeton followed by the liquidation of the Company would be advisable and in the best interest of its stockholders. As a result, the Company's Board of Directors has unanimously recommended to the stockholders that the sale of Princeton and related liquidation of the Company be approved. Princeton engaged in an additional equity financing in March 2004 in which the Company did not participate, since the Company no longer has the cash resources to participate in equity financings of Princeton. Because New Century did not participate in the financing, New Century lost its seat on Princeton's board of directors as well as other rights as holders of preferred stock of Princeton. If and when Princeton engages in additional equity financings, the inability to participate will result in New Century's holdings in Princeton being further diluted, which may result in decreased value available to stockholders. In addition, New Century has limited resources to continue to support its current holdings or invest in new businesses, and currently anticipates that as early as mid-to-late 2005, the Company would be required to begin the process of liquidating its holdings in Princeton to raise cash necessary to pay corporate overhead expenses as well as expenses associated with being a public company. This would further dilute the Company's interest in Princeton, and would eventually deplete any assets New Century might have available to distribute to stockholders. As a result, the Board of Directors believes that it is important to sell the Company's holdings in Princeton now and subsequently liquidate New Century to maximize the amount of cash available to the stockholders.

As of July 31, 2004 (the anticipated date of a special shareholders meeting), the Company's cash position is estimated to be approximately $4.0 million. In addition to the Company's cash, the liquidation proceeds would include $10.0 million in cash from the sale of the Company's holdings in Princeton. The Company also currently holds 375,000 common shares in Sharps Compliance Corp. ("Sharps") which would be sold for an estimated $0.3 million. The above items represent approximately $14.3 million in estimated liquidation proceeds, before related transaction expenses.

In conjunction with the proposed liquidation, the Company anticipates utilizing cash through completion of the liquidation, including but not limited to: (i) ongoing operating costs of approximately $0.2 million for a sixty (60) day period subsequent to shareholder approval, (ii) payment of approximately $0.6 million to the Company's Chief Executive Officer for his interest in the Company's holdings of Princeton, (iii) legal, consulting and other transaction related fees estimated at $0.5 million, (iv) severance related expenditures totaling approximately $2.6 million, (v) other costs, including costs of accrued liabilities, insurance, vendor arrangement and lease terminations and other wind-down costs estimated to range from $0.6 million to $1.5 million. In addition, the Company has initially determined that approximately $0.6 million to $0.8 million should be reserved for any unknown liabilities that may arise. As a result, the Company currently estimates that it should be able to distribute to its shareholders, in one or more cash distributions over time, approximately $8.1 million to $9.2 million, or $0.23 to $0.27 per share, in liquidation. These amounts are estimates only and could ultimately be higher or lower.

If the shareholders approve the sale of the Company's holdings in Princeton and the plan of liquidation, the Company intends to dissolve by filing articles of dissolution, liquidate its remaining assets, satisfy its remaining obligations and make one or more distributions to its shareholders of cash or assets available for distribution. The Company currently anticipates that the articles of dissolution would be filed within approximately 10 days following shareholder approval of the plan of liquidation. Upon filing the articles of dissolution, the Company expects to delist its shares from the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board exchange and close its stock transfer books, which would generally prohibit any further transfers of record of its shares following dissolution. The Company anticipates making an initial distribution to shareholders within approximately 60 days following the filing of the articles of dissolution. However, the precise timing of these events cannot be predicted, and the initial distribution may be made after the 60-day period. If the stockholders do not approve the Princeton sale and related liquidation, New Century will not liquidate, and the Board of Directors will continue to manage the Company as a publicly owned corporation and will explore what, if any, alternatives are then available for the future of the business.

YEAR END 2003 RESULTS

BUSINESS DISCUSSION

The Company's balance sheet at December 31, 2003, reflects cash and cash equivalents of $5.3 million and stockholders' equity of $11.7 million.

For the three months ended December 31, 2003, the Company's statement of operations included a $0.6 million equity in net loss of affiliate. This amount, which is fifty-two percent (52%) lower than the corresponding prior year loss amount of $1.1 million, represents the Company's equity interest in the net loss of Princeton for the three months ended September 30, 2003 (recorded on a three month lag). Also, included in the fourth quarter 2003 statement of operations is $1.3 million of corporate general and administrative expenses which includes $0.7 million related to the amendment of the employment agreement of the Company's Chief Executive Officer to terminate the split-dollar life insurance agreement (previously disclosed in the Company's Form 8-K dated December 19, 2003).

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2003, the Company recorded a $2.7 million equity in net loss of affiliate, which represents an eighty-six percent (86%) improvement over the corresponding prior year amount of $18.9 million equity in net loss of affiliate. Corporate general and administrative expenses of $3.0 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 2003 were eleven percent (11%) lower than the corresponding prior year amount of $3.4 million.

The Company recently announced an agreement with the former majority shareholders of OSC to settle all claims related to the April 2000 acquisition of OSC by the Company. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company transferred to the former OSC majority shareholders 525,000 shares of the common stock of Sharps owned by the Company. In addition, the former OSC majority shareholders agreed to a voting rights agreement which allows the Company to direct the vote of New Century shares owned by them. Subsequent to the transfer of the Sharps common stock shares, the Company's interest in Sharps decreased to 3.6% of the outstanding shares. During the three months ended December 31, 2003, the Company recorded a non-cash charge to discontinued operations of $0.4 million in conjunction with the settlement agreement.

PRINCETON

For the three months ended September 30, 2003, Princeton recorded revenues of $8.3 million, an operating loss of $1.6 million and an EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) loss of $0.1 million. The EBITDA loss of $0.1 million, for the three months ended September 30, 2003, is calculated by excluding depreciation and amortization expense of $1.5 million from Princeton's net loss of $1.6 million.

EBITDA is a key indicator that management uses to evaluate the operating performance of Princeton. While EBITDA is not intended to represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles and should not be considered as an indicator of operating performance or an alternative to cash flow as a measure of liquidity, it is included herein to provide additional information with respect to Princeton's ability to meet future debt service, capital expenditure and working capital requirements. This calculation may differ in method of calculation from similarly titled measures used by other companies.

The Company does not consolidate the accounts of Princeton in its financial statements, but rather discloses Princeton's results in the Company's footnotes to its financial statements consistent with the accounting for an equity investee.

Princeton's revenues for the quarter ended December 31, 2003 were adversely affected by the loss of certain customers.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WILL BE FILED WITH THE SEC

As of March 22, 2004, New Century's directors and executive officers beneficially owned

5,339,584 shares (assuming the exercise of all 4,612,406 vested options), or approximately 15.4 percent, of New Century's common stock. None of the options held by the Company's directors or executive officers are considered "in-the-money". Options would be considered "in-the-money" if the exercise price of the options were less than $0.27 per share, which is the high end of the Company's estimated range of the aggregate approximate liquidation distributions to stockholders. As a result, the Company does not anticipate that any currently outstanding options will be exercised.
