PROXY STATEMENT

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROXY MATERIALS AND THE ANNUAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: The enclosed Proxy Statement is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board of Directors or Board) of Genentech, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company or Genentech), and are for use at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Annual Meeting). The Annual Meeting will take place at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Daylight Time on April 20, 2007. You are invited to attend the Annual Meeting and requested to vote on the proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

Q: Who can vote at the Annual Meeting?

A: Stockholders who owned our common stock (Common Stock) of record on February 20, 2007 may vote at the Annual Meeting. As of February 20, 2007, there were 1,053,087,194 shares of Common Stock outstanding, each entitled to one vote.

Q: What is the proxy card?

A: The proxy card enables you to appoint Arthur D. Levinson and Stephen G. Juelsgaard as your representatives at the Annual Meeting. By completing and returning the proxy card, you are authorizing Dr. Levinson and Mr. Juelsgaard to vote your shares at the meeting as you have instructed them on the proxy card. This way, you can vote your shares whether or not you attend the meeting.

Q: What am I voting on?

A: We are asking you to vote on the following items:

the election of directors to serve until the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders; and the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2007.

Q: How do I vote?

A: BY MAIL: Please complete and sign your proxy card and mail it in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope. If you mark your voting instructions on the proxy card, your shares will be voted as you instruct. If an additional proposal is properly presented for a vote at the Annual Meeting that is not on the proxy card, your shares will be voted in the best judgment of Dr. Levinson and Mr. Juelsgaard. If you submit your proxy card but do not mark your voting instructions on the proxy card, your shares will be voted as follows:

FOR the named nominees as directors;

FOR ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2007; and according to the best judgment of Dr. Levinson and Mr. Juelsgaard if a proposal that is not on the proxy card comes up for a vote at the meeting.

Edgar Filing: GENENTECH INC - Form DEF 14A

BY TELEPHONE: Please follow the To vote using the Telephone instructions that accompanied your proxy card. If you vote by telephone, you do not have to mail in your proxy card.

BY INTERNET: Please follow the To vote using the Internet instructions that accompanied your proxy card. If you vote by Internet, you do not have to mail in your proxy card.

IN PERSON: We will pass out written ballots to anyone who wants to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. However, if you hold your shares in street name, you must request a proxy card from your broker in order to vote at the meeting. Holding shares in street name means that you hold them through a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee, and, therefore, the shares are not held in your individual name in the records maintained by our transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (Computershare).

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: It means that you hold your shares in multiple accounts at the transfer agent or with brokers or other custodians of your shares. Please complete and return all the proxy cards you receive to ensure that all your shares are voted.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: You may revoke your proxy and change your vote by:

signing another proxy card with a later date and returning it before the polls close at the Annual Meeting;

voting on a later date over the Internet or by telephone (only your latest Internet or telephone proxy submitted by the deadlines printed on your proxy card and prior to the Annual Meeting will be counted); or voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Q: How many shares must be present to hold the Annual Meeting?

A: To hold the Annual Meeting and conduct business, a majority of the Company's outstanding shares as of February 20, 2007 must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting. This is called a quorum.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

is present and votes in person at the meeting; or has properly submitted a proxy or voted by telephone or Internet.

Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes occur when shares held by a stockholder in street name are not voted with respect to a proposal because the broker has not received voting instructions from the stockholder, and the broker lacks discretionary voting power to vote the shares.

Q: How many votes must nominees for director receive to be elected?

A: Because seven (7) directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting, the seven nominees receiving the highest number of votes FOR election will be elected, even if that does not represent a majority.

Q: How many votes must the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2007 receive to be approved?

A: The ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2007 will be approved if a majority of the shares present at the meeting in person or by proxy vote FOR approval.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: You may vote either FOR each director nominee or WITHHOLD your vote from any one or more of the nominees. You may vote FOR or AGAINST or ABSTAIN from voting on the proposal to ratify Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2007. If you abstain from voting on these proposals, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

Broker non-votes, although counted toward the quorum, will not count as votes cast with respect to the matter as to which the broker has expressly not voted.

Voting results are tabulated and certified by our transfer agent, Computershare.

Q: Who will bear the cost of soliciting votes for the meeting?

A: We are paying for the distribution and solicitation of the proxies. As a part of this process, we reimburse brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians for reasonable fees and expenses in forwarding proxy materials to our stockholders. Our employees may also solicit proxies through mail, telephone, the Internet or other means, but they do not receive additional compensation for providing those services.

RELATIONSHIP WITH ROCHE

Arrangements between Genentech and Roche

In June 1999, we redeemed all of our callable putable common stock (Special Common Stock) held by stockholders other than Roche Holdings, Inc. (Roche) for cash pursuant to a contractual obligation with Roche that gave Roche the right to require such a redemption. Upon completion of the redemption, Roche's ownership percentage of our Special Common Stock was 100%. In July and October of 1999 and March 2000, Roche completed public offerings of our Common Stock and in January 2000, Roche completed an offering of its zero-coupon notes exchangeable for our Common Stock held by Roche. At the conclusion of these public offerings in March 2000, Roche's ownership of our Common Stock was 58.9%. On December 31, 2006, Roche's ownership of our Common Stock was 55.8%.

During the period that Roche owned all of our outstanding equity, we amended our Certificate of Incorporation and entered into an affiliation agreement with Roche that enabled our current management to conduct our business and operations as we had done in the past while at the same time reflecting Roche's ownership in us. The affiliation agreement is for the exclusive benefit of Roche and can be amended at any time by Roche and us. We also amended our bylaws to provide Roche with certain proportional representation rights with respect to membership on our Board of Directors and committees.

Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the provisions of our bylaws described under Composition of Board of Directors, Roche's Right to Proportional Representation, Membership of Committees and Nomination of Directors, may be repealed or amended only by a 60% vote of our stockholders. However, Roche's right to nominate a number of directors proportional to Roche's ownership interest until Roche's ownership interest is less than 5%, may be repealed or amended only by a 90% vote of our stockholders.

The provisions of the affiliation agreements described below under Roche Approval Required for Certain Actions and Licensing and Marketing Agreements will terminate if Roche owns less than 40% of our stock.

Under our bylaws and for the purposes of the discussion below in this section, unless otherwise noted, an independent director is a director who is not:

- one of our officers;

- an employee, director, principal stockholder or partner of Roche or any Roche affiliate; or

- an employee, director, principal stockholder or partner of an entity (other than Genentech) that depended on Roche for more than 10% of his, her or its revenues or earnings in its most recent fiscal year.

Composition of Board of Directors

As prescribed by our bylaws, our Board currently consists of seven members: three nominees of Roche, one of our executive officers and three independent directors. All of our directors other than those designated by Roche are nominated by the Nominations Committee of the Board. See Board Committees and Meetings Director Nomination. The Board has the authority to further increase the size of the board from time to time. Directors are elected to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Roche's Right to Proportional Representation

Under our bylaws, Roche is entitled to representation on our Board proportional to its ownership interest in our Common Stock. Roche is entitled to have a number of directors equal to its percentage ownership of our Common Stock times the total number of directors, rounded up to the next whole number if Roche's ownership interest is greater than 50% and rounded down if it is less than or equal to 50%. Upon Roche's request, we will immediately take action to increase the size of our Board or to fill the vacancies by electing Roche nominees in order to achieve Roche's proportional representation.

If Roche's ownership interest of our Common Stock falls below 40%, the Roche directors will resign to the extent Roche's representation exceeds its proportional ownership interest. The number of directors required to resign shall be rounded up to the next whole number. Roche shall thereafter be entitled to nominate a number of directors proportional to Roche's ownership interest rounded down to the next whole number, until Roche's ownership interest is less than 5%.

Membership of Committees

We have five committees of the Board:

Audit Committee (the Audit Committee);

Compensation Committee (the Compensation Committee);

Corporate Governance Committee (the Corporate Governance Committee);

Executive Committee (the Executive Committee); and Nominations Committee (the Nominations Committee).

Roche is entitled to designate at least one member of each committee and, upon providing notice to the Company, is entitled to proportional representation on each committee. However, under the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 (the Sarbanes Oxley Act) and rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) promulgated thereunder as well as New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rules relating to corporate governance, no Roche director may be a member of the Audit Committee. Roche's committee members may designate another Roche director to serve as their alternates on any committee.

Under our bylaws, the Nominations Committee is required to have three members. Any time that Roche's ownership percentage of our stock is equal to or greater than 80%, the Nominations Committee is to be comprised of two Roche nominees and one independent director. Any time that Roche's ownership percentage of our stock is less than 80%, the Nominations Committee is to be comprised of a number of Roche nominees equal to Roche's ownership percentage times three, rounded up to the next whole number if Roche's total voting power is greater than 50% and rounded down if Roche's total voting power is less than or equal to 50%. However, Roche may not have more than two nominees at any time. Roche currently has two nominees on the Nominations Committee.

Nomination of Directors

A majority of the members of the Nominations Committee must approve the nomination of any person for director not designated by Roche.

Roche Approval Required for Certain Actions

Without the prior approval of the Roche directors, we may not approve:

any acquisition constituting a substantial portion of our business or assets;

any sale, lease, license, transfer or other disposal of all or a substantial portion of our business or assets not in the ordinary course of our business;

any issuance of capital stock other than (1) issuances pursuant to employee incentive plans not exceeding 5% of our voting stock, (2) issuances upon the exercise, conversion or exchange of any of our outstanding capital stock, and (3) other issuances not exceeding 5% of our voting stock in any 24 month period; and any repurchase or redemption of our capital stock other than (1) a redemption required by the terms of a security and (2) purchases made at fair market value in connection with any of our deferred compensation plans.

For purposes of the first and second bullet points of the previous paragraph, unless a majority of the Board of Directors has made a contrary determination in good faith, a substantial portion of our business or assets shall mean a portion of our business or assets accounting for 10% or more of our consolidated total assets, contribution to net income or revenues. If Roche makes a request for proportional representation on the Board, until the Roche designees take office as directors, we may not take any action not in the ordinary course of business without Roche's consent.

Registration Rights

We have agreed to use our best efforts to file one or more registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) in order to permit Roche to offer and sell shares of our Common Stock.

Generally, we will pay all expenses incident to the performance of our obligations with respect to the registration of Roche's shares of our Common Stock except that Roche has agreed to pay certain expenses to be directly incurred by Roche, including underwriting fees, discounts and commissions and counsel fees. In addition, we are only required to pay for two registrations within a 12-month period. Roche and we have each agreed to customary indemnification and contribution provisions with respect to liability incurred in connection with these registrations.

Dispositions by Roche

If Roche and its affiliates sell their majority ownership in our Common Stock to a successor, Roche will cause the successor to purchase all shares of our Common Stock not held by Roche:

if the consideration is entirely in either cash or equity traded on a U.S. national securities exchange, with consideration in the same form and amounts per share as received by Roche and its affiliates; or in any other case, with consideration either in the same form and amounts per share as received by Roche and its affiliates or with consideration that has a value per share not less than the weighted average value per share received by Roche and its affiliates as determined by an investment bank of nationally recognized standing appointed by a committee of independent directors.

Roche has agreed to cause the buyer of our Common Stock to agree to be bound by the obligations described in the preceding paragraph as well as the obligations described under Business Combinations with Roche and Compulsory Acquisitions below. We have agreed that the buyer shall be entitled to succeed to Roche's rights described under Roche's Ability to Maintain its Percentage Ownership Interest in Our Stock below.

Business Combinations with Roche

Roche has agreed that, as a condition to any merger of the Company with Roche or its affiliates or the sale of substantially all of our assets to Roche or its affiliates, either:

the merger or sale must be authorized by a favorable vote at any meeting of a majority of the shares of Common Stock not owned by Roche, provided that no person or group shall be entitled to cast more than 5% of the votes cast at the meeting; or in the event a favorable vote is not obtained, the value of the consideration to be received by the holders of our Common Stock, other than Roche, shall be equal to or greater than the average of the means of the ranges of fair values for the Common Stock as determined by two investment banks of nationally recognized standing appointed by a committee of independent directors.

Roche has agreed that it will not sell any shares of our Common Stock in the 90 days immediately preceding any proposal by Roche for a merger with us. Roche also agreed that in the event of any merger of the Company with Roche or its affiliates or sale of substantially all of our assets to Roche or its affiliates, each unvested option outstanding under our stock option plans will:

be accelerated and become exercisable immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction for the total number of shares of Common Stock covered by the option;

become exchangeable upon the consummation of the transaction for deferred cash compensation, which vests on the same schedule as the shares of the Common Stock covered by the option, having a value equal to the product of (A) the number of shares covered by the option and (B) the amount which Roche, in its reasonable judgment, considers to be equivalent in value to the consideration per share received by Common Stock holders in the transaction other than Roche, minus the exercise price per share of the option; or be canceled in exchange for a replacement option to purchase stock of the surviving corporation in the transaction with the terms of the option to provide value equivalent, as determined by Roche in its reasonable discretion, to that of the canceled option.

Compulsory Acquisitions

If Roche owns more than 90% of our Common Stock for more than two months, Roche has agreed to, as soon as reasonably practicable, effect a merger of the Company with Roche or an affiliate of Roche.

The merger shall be conditioned on the vote or the valuation described under the first two bullets of Business Combinations with Roche above.

Roche's Ability to Maintain its Percentage Ownership Interest in Our Stock

Our affiliation agreement with Roche provides, among other things, that with respect to any issuance of Common Stock by us in the future, we will repurchase a sufficient number of shares so that immediately after such issuance the percentage of our Common Stock owned by Roche will be no lower than 2% below the Minimum Percentage (as defined below); provided however, as long as Roche's percentage ownership is greater than 50%, prior to issuing any shares, we will repurchase a sufficient number of shares of our Common Stock such that, immediately after our issuance of shares, Roche's percentage ownership will be greater than 50%. The Minimum Percentage equals the lowest number of shares of our Common Stock owned by Roche since the July 1999 offering (to be adjusted for dispositions of shares of our Common Stock by Roche as well as for stock splits or stock combinations) divided by 1,018,388,704, the number of shares of our Common Stock outstanding at the time of the July 1999 offering, as adjusted for stock splits. The affiliation agreement also provides that, upon Roche's request, we will repurchase shares of our Common Stock to increase Roche's ownership to the Minimum Percentage. In addition, Roche will have a continuing option to buy stock from us at prevailing market prices to maintain its percentage ownership interest.

Licensing and Marketing Agreements

We have a July 1999 Amended and Restated Licensing and Marketing Agreement with F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd (Hoffmann-La Roche) and its affiliates granting Hoffmann-La Roche an option to license, use and sell our products in non-U.S. markets. The major provisions of that agreement include the following:

Hoffmann-La Roche's option expires in 2015;

Hoffmann-La Roche may exercise its option to license our products upon the occurrence of any of the following: (1) our decision to file an Investigational New Drug Application (or IND) for a product, (2) completion of the first Phase II trial for a product or (3) if Hoffmann-

La Roche previously paid us a fee of $10 million to extend its option on a product, or completion of a Phase III trial for that product;

if Hoffmann-La Roche exercises its option to license a product, it has agreed to reimburse Genentech for development costs as follows: (1) if exercise occurs at the time of Genentech's decision to file an IND is filed, Hoffmann-La Roche will pay 50% of development costs incurred prior to the filing and 50% of development costs subsequently incurred, (2) if exercise occurs at the completion of the first Phase II trial, Hoffmann-La Roche will pay 50% of development costs incurred through completion of the trial, 75% of development costs subsequently incurred for the initial indications, and 50% of subsequent development costs for new indications, formulations or dosing schedules, (3) if the exercise occurs at the completion of a Phase III trial, Hoffmann-La Roche will pay 50% of development costs incurred through completion of Phase II, 75% of development costs incurred through completion of Phase III, and 75% of development costs subsequently incurred, and $5 million of the option extension fee paid by Hoffmann-La Roche to preserve its right to exercise its option at the completion of a Phase III trial will be credited against the total development costs payable to Genentech upon the exercise of the option, and (4) each of Genentech and Hoffmann-La Roche have the right to opt-out of developing an additional indication for a product for which Hoffmann-La Roche exercised its option, and would not share the costs or benefits of the additional indication, but could opt-back-in within 30 days of decision to file for approval of the indication by paying twice what they would have owed for development of the indication if they had not opted out;

we agreed, in general, to manufacture for and supply to Hoffmann-La Roche its clinical requirements of our products at cost, and its commercial requirements at cost plus a margin of 20%; however, Hoffmann-La Roche will have the right to manufacture our products under certain circumstances;

Hoffmann-La Roche has agreed to pay, for each product for which Hoffmann-La Roche exercises its option upon either a decision to file an IND with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) or completion of the first Phase II trial, a royalty of 12.5% on the first $100 million on its aggregate sales of that product and thereafter a royalty of 15% on its aggregate sales of that product in excess of $100 million until the later in each country of the expiration of our last relevant patent or 25 years from the first commercial introduction of that product; and Hoffmann-La Roche will pay, for each product for which Hoffmann-La Roche exercises its option after completion of a Phase III trial, a royalty of 15% on its sales of that product until the later in each country of the expiration of our last relevant patent or 25 years from the first commercial introduction of that product; however, $5 million of any option extension fee paid by Hoffmann-La Roche will be credited against royalties payable to us in the first calendar year of sales by Hoffmann-La Roche in which aggregate sales of that product exceed $100 million.

We have further amended this licensing and marketing agreement with Hoffmann-La Roche to delete or add certain Genentech products under Hoffman-La Roche's commercialization and marketing rights for Canada.

We also have a July 1998 licensing and marketing agreement relating to anti-HER2 antibodies (Herceptin and Omnitarg) with Hoffmann-La Roche, providing them with exclusive marketing rights outside of the U.S. Under the agreement, Hoffmann-La Roche funds one-half the global development costs incurred in connection with developing anti-HER2 antibody products under the agreement. Either Genentech or Hoffmann-La Roche has the right to opt-out of developing an additional indication for a product and would not share the costs or benefits of the additional indication, but could opt-back-in before approval of the indication by paying twice what would have been owed for development of the indication if no opt-out had occurred. Hoffmann-La Roche has also agreed to make royalty payments of 20% on aggregate net product sales outside the U.S. up to $500 million in each calendar year and 22.5% on such sales in excess of $500 million in each calendar year.

Research Collaboration Agreement

In April 2004, we entered into a research collaboration agreement with Hoffmann-La Roche that outlines the process by which Hoffmann-La Roche and Genentech will conduct and share in the costs of joint research on certain molecules in areas of mutual interest. The agreement further outlines how development and commercialization efforts will be coordinated with respect to select molecules, including the financial provisions for a number of different development and commercialization scenarios undertaken by either or both parties.

See Certain Relationships and Related Person Transactions on page 33 for a discussion of transactions under other agreements between Hoffmann-La Roche and us.

Tax Sharing Agreement

We have a tax sharing agreement with Roche. If we and Roche elect to file a combined state and local tax return in certain states where we may be eligible, our tax liability or refund with Roche for such jurisdictions will be calculated on a stand alone basis.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR

Our Board of Directors is elected each year at the Annual Meeting. Our Board is currently comprised of the following seven directors as provided for in our bylaws:

three independent directors: Herbert W. Boyer, Debra L. Reed and Charles A. Sanders; one of our executive officers: Arthur D. Levinson, who is also the Chairman of the Board; and three Roche directors: William M. Burns, Erich Hunziker and Jonathan K. C. Knowles.

Each of the incumbent directors is a current nominee for director on our Board. All of these nominees for director, if elected, will serve until the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until a successor is elected or appointed, and we expect each of these nominees to be able to serve if elected. If a director nominee is not able to serve, proxies will be voted in favor of the remainder of those nominated and may be voted for any other person the Board of Directors may select or who may be properly nominated by a Genentech stockholder.

The persons named in the enclosed proxy card will vote your proxy for the election of each of these nominees unless you indicate otherwise. Proxies may not be voted for a greater number of persons than the nominees named below.

The following information outlines the name and age of each nominee for director (as of December 31, 2006), his or her current principal occupation, any other position held with the Company, and the period during which he or she has served as a director of the Company:

Dr. Boyer, a Professor of Biochemistry at the University of California at San Francisco from 1976 to 1991, demonstrated the usefulness of recombinant DNA technology to produce medicines economically, which laid the groundwork for Genentech's development. Dr. Boyer has received numerous awards for his research, including the BayBio Pantheon Lifetime Achievement Award in 2005, National Medal of Science from President George Bush in 1990, the National Medal of Technology in 1989 and the Albert Lasker Basic Medical Research Award in 1980. In addition, Dr. Boyer serves as Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors of Allergan, Inc.

Mr. Burns was elected a director of Genentech in April 2004. Director Independence

Drs. Sanders and Boyer and Ms. Reed are independent directors in accordance with NYSE corporate governance listing standards. As Roche holds more than 50% of the voting power of Genentech, we have elected to rely on the NYSE controlled company exemption from compliance with NYSE corporate governance listing standards requiring that a majority of the directors on our Board and on the Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominations Committees of our Board be independent. As a result, the majority of the directors on our Board and these committees are not independent under the criteria for independence established under the NYSE corporate governance listing standards. However, each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director in accordance with SEC rules and NYSE corporate governance listing standards.

Director Attendance at Annual Meeting

We have no policy requiring directors to attend the Annual Meeting; however, directors are encouraged to attend the annual meetings at which they will stand for election or re-election. All directors serving on the Board as of our 2006 Annual Meeting attended that meeting.

Communication with the Board of Directors

Dr. Sanders has been appointed the lead director of the Board and in that role, chairs non-management executive sessions of the Board. Ms. Reed has been appointed the chair of the Audit Committee. As discussed in the Company's Principles of Corporate Governance, our employees, stockholders or other third parties who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors other than through the Chairman may communicate directly to the lead director or to the chair of the Audit Committee of the Board. Communications to Dr. Sanders and Ms. Reed, respectively, may be addressed to Dr. Sanders at c/o Genentech, Inc., 1 DNA Way, South San Francisco, CA 94080-4990 or via e-mail at csanders@gene.com, and to Ms. Reed at c/o Genentech, Inc., 1 DNA Way, South San Francisco, CA 94080-4990 or via e-mail at reed.debra@gene.com.

Director Nomination

Under our bylaws, our Nominations Committee is composed of three members of which two are Roche directors (Mr. Burns and Dr. Hunziker) and one is an independent director (Dr. Boyer). Roche's representation on this committee is subject to its ownership percentage of our stock as described in greater detail in Membership of Committees under Relationship with Roche. The Nominations Committee does not have a formal written charter.

The Nominations Committee will consider director candidates for the Board of Directors recommended by our stockholders. Under our bylaws, to be considered, stockholders who wish to recommend a candidate for the Board should send a letter to our Corporate Secretary, c/o Genentech, Inc., 1 DNA Way, South San Francisco, CA 94080-4990, with the following information: (A) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (B) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (C) the class and number of shares of our stock that are beneficially owned by such person, (D) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nominations are to be made by the stockholder, and (E) any additional information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for elections of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to SEC rules. Our bylaws require that any director nominee not designated by Roche be approved by a majority of the members of the Nominations Committee.

Pursuant to our Bylaws, the Board's process for identifying and evaluating potential directors depends on whether such an individual is (i) a nominee of Roche, (ii) a management director or (iii) an independent director as defined in our bylaws. Roche identifies all of its director nominees to our Board without input from the Company or the other non-Roche Board members. If the Board wishes to identify a management director, such individual may be identified as a director nominee by existing

Board member(s) or executive management at the Company. If the Board of Directors wishes to identify new independent director candidates for Board membership, it may retain a third party executive search firm to help identify prospective director nominees. At the request of the Company, the search firm may also screen candidates, conduct reference checks, prepare a biography of each candidate for Board or Nominations Committee review, and if appropriate, schedule interviews with the Board or Nominations Committee. The evaluation of management and independent director candidates will take place on the same basis regardless of whether the candidate was recommended by a search firm, a stockholder or identified through any other source.

The Board's desired minimum qualifications for a director nominee depend on whether such individual is a Roche or non-Roche designee. The Board has not established any minimum criteria for Roche designees as such individuals are identified for nomination by Roche. For any independent director nominees, the nominee must meet the Company's bylaw requirements for being considered an independent director, and if such nominee will serve on the Audit Committee, also the SEC and NYSE criteria for independence. In addition, with respect to management or independent director nominees, the Board assesses character, judgment, business acumen and experience.

Any other minimum qualifications will be determined by the Board on a case-by-case basis as any such qualifications may vary, depending on whether the Board desires to fill a vacant seat or increase the size of the Board to add new directors. In addition, the Nominations Committee may also evaluate whether a potential director nominee's skills are complementary to existing Board members' skills or meet the Board's need for operations, management, commercial, financial, international or other expertise. We believe that all director nominees should possess the highest personal and professional ethics and be committed to representing both the short-term and long-term interests of our stockholders.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Our Board of Directors has formally adopted Principles of Corporate Governance that guide its actions with respect to the composition of the Board, Board functions and responsibilities, the Board's standing committees, and Board involvement in compliance and ethics matters affecting the Company.

The Board expects all directors, as well as officers and employees, to act ethically at all times and to adhere to the policies comprising our code of ethics known as the Genentech Good Operating Principles. The Board also expects the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, Controller and all other senior financial officials to adhere to the Company's Code of Ethics for the CEO and Senior Financial Officials.

The Principles of Corporate Governance, the Genentech Good Operating Principles and the Code of Ethics for the CEO and Senior Financial Officials can be accessed on our website at www.gene.com. These documents are also available in print to any stockholder who requests them by contacting our Investor Relations department at (650) 225-4150 or by sending an e-mail to investor.relations@gene.com.

These options vest over a twelve-month period with half of the shares vesting on the six month anniversary of the grant date and the other half vesting monthly in equal installments over the remaining six months. Effective January 2007, our independent director re-election grants were reduced to an option for purchase of 7,500 shares, and the additional stock option grant based upon our performance against median peer company performance was reduced to up to an additional 3,500 shares. COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Our compensation programs are designed to attract and retain employees and reward them for their efforts toward helping us achieve our short-term and long-term goals. Compensation programs in which our NEOs participate are additionally designed to be equitable and competitive with the compensation programs of companies with whom we compete for new employees, and link pay to performance and stockholder returns over the long-term.

Objectives of Compensation

As discussed in greater detail below, compensation for our NEOs consists of four elements: base salary, bonus, stock options, and benefit programs. With respect to each element of compensation, the Compensation Committee is guided by the following objectives:

Competitiveness: to pay our NEOs compensation that taken as a whole is competitive with that of NEOs in similar positions at a group of 14 comparator companies in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries;

Corporate Performance: to base a portion of compensation on achievement of our financial and strategic goals for the fiscal year as well as on our performance relative to the performance of the comparator companies;

Individual Performance: to base a portion of compensation on individual responsibilities, contributions and performance during the past year;

Cost-effectiveness: to make fiscally responsible decisions and allocate resources in a manner that supports our business objectives; and Equitable Compensation: to provide compensation programs that are broad-based for all employees and provide reward levels commensurate with relative position in the Company.

Across all compensation and benefits elements we review information from a group of comparator companies to set our NEOs' compensation and benefits to be competitive with that of NEOs in similar positions at these comparator companies and to achieve a balance of incentives to help achieve our performance objectives. The group of fourteen comparator companies is selected based on industry and scope (market capitalization and revenue) and consists of the following companies: Abbott Laboratories, Allergan, Inc., Amgen Inc., Biogen IDEC Inc., Bristol Myers-Squibb Company, Eli Lilly and Company, Genzyme Corporation, Gilead Sciences, Inc., Johnson & Johnson, MedImmune, Inc., Merck & Co., Inc., Pfizer Inc., Schering-Plough Corporation, & Wyeth (the comparator group). Data from the comparator group is adjusted using regression analysis to reflect our size and scope (revenue and market capitalization). Specific benchmarking elements include base salaries, target bonuses and actual bonuses paid, actual annual equity awards, total cash compensation, benefits and total compensation. The Compensation Committee has reviewed the compensation paid by our comparator companies for the past fiscal year and in doing so considered industry segment, revenue level, and market capitalization.

Elements of Compensation

Base Salary

We pay base salaries to compensate our NEOs for performing specific job responsibilities. Base salaries represent a fixed portion of compensation and vary by position.

Our base salary program for NEOs follows the same methodology used for all employees in terms of our benchmarking and positioning relative to the comparator group. We consider a broad set of factors in setting base salary for our NEOs including an individual's current base salary, individual performance, total cash and total direct compensation as it compares to the market, and the relationship of pay to other senior officers in the Company.

The benchmarking process for our NEOs is conducted annually and includes a review of aggregate compensation of each executive officer position. We use available proxy statement data and published compensation survey sources for this review and assessment. Survey data sources are weighted to approximate our anticipated revenue level in the next fiscal year. Finally, we consider total cash and total compensation levels in our annual assignment of base salaries. Corporate performance is not a direct factor in the design and administration of our base salary programs except insofar as we use the comparator group to determine base salary levels. The base salaries for each of our NEOs were at or below the 50th percentile of base salaries for their respective positions in companies in the comparator group or in the compensation surveys utilized. Dr. Levinson declined a salary increase in 2006.

Bonus

We choose to award bonuses in order to reward annual performance and bonuses are expressly linked to successful achievement of pre-specified annual corporate performance goals. Among all compensation to NEOs, bonuses provide the most direct link between compensation levels and annual corporate performance. Our bonus program for our NEOs is the same program as that utilized with our other employees. Bonuses are paid in cash.

Overall Bonus Pool Funding: Our bonus pool funding is based on an analysis of bonus funding levels as a percent of net income at our comparator group, as well as broader biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies (the bonus pool comparator group). Our bonus pool funding is composed of two parts—a base bonus pool and an incremental bonus pool. The base bonus pool, which is linked to performance of specific annual corporate objectives, targets the 50th percentile of net income percentage bonus pool contribution used by the bonus pool comparator group. The incremental bonus pool, which is linked to earnings per share (EPS) and operating revenue growth relative to the comparator group, targets up to the 75th percentile of net income percentage bonus pool contribution used by the bonus pool comparator group.

Corporate performance goals: The Compensation Committee approves performance goals annually at its December meeting for the subsequent fiscal year. Our performance on these goals determines the amount of funds available in the bonus pool and if a bonus will be paid to all eligible employees, including NEOs. For fiscal year 2006, the corporate performance goals linked to the base bonus pool were as follows: (i) corporate and financial performance, including increasing earnings per share, meeting specific productivity goals and managing operational budgets within specified targets; (ii) commercial performance, including increasing U.S. product sales, both generally and with respect to specific products, increasing margins resulting from the sale of our products and meeting certain compliance objectives; (iii) research and development performance, including timing of regulatory filings, initiating or completing specified clinical trials, investigating the use of new products, selecting new products for development and entering into in-licensing arrangements; (iv) product operations and regulatory, quality and compliance performance, including maintaining target levels of inventory, operating at budgeted cost of production and achieving certain regulatory objectives; and (v) employee development performance, focused on enhancing leadership and management development. In addition, there were two corporate performance goals, linked to the incremental bonus pool, including earnings per share growth relative to the comparator group and operating revenue growth relative to the comparator group.

The corporate performance goals for bonuses seek to balance the desire for immediate increase in earnings and improvement in other financial performance measures and the longer term goal of enhancing stockholder value by bringing to market many of the potential therapies in our research and development pipeline. Each performance goal associated with the base bonus pool has an associated dollar value which contributes to the overall bonus pool only if the goal is achieved. In 2006, based on performance against the corporate performance goals, 96% of the total potential base bonus pool funding was achieved and 100% of the total potential incremental bonus pool funding was achieved.

Individual performance targets: Bonus targets, expressed as a percent of salary for the CEO and other NEOs, are set annually based on an evaluation of proxy statement data of the comparator group over the preceding five years to determine bonus percentages within competitive practice and are intended to correspond to 50th percentile bonus awards for the comparator group. The targets for the 2006 bonus were 107% of base salary for the CEO, 78% of base salary for the President, Product Development, and 71% of base salary for other NEOs. The bonus award percentage is applied to the greater of 2006 base salary or 2006 market median base salary (based on a composite of comparator group and survey data) to arrive at the recommended bonus. For the CEO and each other NEO, the Compensation Committee has set the upward bound of bonus allocation as 2.25 times each person's respective target. The Compensation Committee benchmarked competitive practice on bonus ranges for NEOs and found that the maximum bonus was generally set between 2 times and 2.5 times the target bonus for each NEO. The CEO's and other NEOs' actual bonus award can range from 0 to a maximum of 2.25 times target, depending on corporate and individual performance.

Bonuses awarded: The bonus awarded to our CEO and other NEOs was based on the Company exceeding the corporate performance goals as described above and the Compensation Committee's recognition that our CEO's and NEOs' performance in our achievement of those goals played a significant role in the Company's ability to exceed the 90th percentile of our comparator group with respect to EPS and operating revenue growth.

Stock Options

Stock option awards are intended to align the interests of our NEOs with those of our stockholders and to motivate our NEOs with respect to the Company's long term performance.

Eligible Persons: All regular, full-time employees are eligible to receive stock options under the Genentech, Inc. 2004 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2004 Equity Incentive Plan"), including our NEOs. We currently grant only non-qualified stock options to our NEOs and other employees. We do not have equity ownership guidelines for our NEOs.

Timing of Grants and Exercise Price: Annual grants are awarded each September to NEOs and other designated employees at the regularly scheduled meeting of the Compensation Committee. The exercise price for these grants is equal to the closing fair market value of our Common Stock on the date the Compensation Committee approves the grant. For new-hire grants, options are typically provided as part of a NEO's offer package. The Compensation Committee approves new-hire stock option awards for NEOs as well as other executive officers, and has delegated the authority to the Chairman to approve all other new-hire stock option awards. For non-executive officers, new-hire stock options are granted by the Chairman either on the date of approval or if the non-executive officer is not yet an employee, then effective as of the first day of employment with the Company. For those other employees who receive grants as new hires, it is our process to grant stock options on or shortly after the first day of their employment, with the grant date based on the date of approval by the Chairman. Given that both annual and new-hire grants to NEOs are made using a fixed-date approach, the Compensation Committee does not consider the release or possession of material non-public information in determining grant dates.

Option Pool: Annually, an independent compensation specialist benchmarks data using publicly available information from Forms 10-K and proxy statements of the comparator group to determine competitive award pool sizes as a percent of shares outstanding. A regression analysis is performed using the comparator group's 3-year average market capitalization and 3-year average equity award usage. The appropriate annual pool size for Genentech is determined by plotting on the regression curve created by the regression analysis our average market capitalization in mid-July. As stock options are now considered an expense under FAS 123R, we consider the impact of the expense on earnings as one factor in determining the size of the stock option pool.

Individual Grants: A multi-step process is used by the Committee to determine grants to NEOs. For annual grants, option target amounts are established by first identifying the median size of option grants made by the comparator group to their respective NEOs in terms of the percentage of all options granted during the years included in the analysis. In addition, in connection with the 2006 grant, the Compensation Committee considered the fair value of those awards, using a Black-Scholes analysis, of equity awards made to NEOs of the comparator group over the past three years. The 2006 final award size is based on the Committee's subjective evaluation of a variety of factors such as the retention value of the options to be granted, the individual's performance as measured by the success of the compensation levels for our NEOs. New hire stock option awards are based on a fixed number of shares that are set annually based on internal practice and competitive market information. Annual and new-hire option grants typically vest over four years, with the first 25 percent vesting one year from the date of the grant, and the remaining shares vesting monthly over the following 36 months.

Benefit Programs

We choose to offer our health, welfare, stock purchase and retirement programs in order to provide all employees with a level of health and financial security. In addition, they are intended to differentiate Genentech as an employer of choice in attracting and retaining employees. Our benefit programs for NEOs include the following components: medical, dental, vision, the executive medical plan, the employee stock purchase plan, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, short-term disability, long-term disability, employee assistance program, counseling and resource services, flexible spending accounts, paid time off, pre-tax commuter benefits, discounted services (home, auto, legal and long-term care insurance), certain security services for our CEO, the Genentech, Inc. Tax Reduction Plan (the 401(k)) plan and the Genentech, Inc. Supplemental Plan (the Supplemental Plan). Genentech sets its benefits at competitive levels after benchmarking our programs against comparator companies on an annual basis. Additionally, we use standard business practices to assure that benefits are provided in the most cost-effective manner.

In general, Genentech provides the same benefit programs to all regular, full-time employees within the Company. The only benefit programs available to NEOs but not available to all regular, full-time employees are (i) the Supplemental Plan, a non-qualified supplemental employee retirement plan that operates in parallel with the 401(k) Plan, and in which we credit each eligible participant with an amount equal to the additional contributions that he or she would have received under the 401(k) Plan, assuming that he or she had been allowed to participate in the 401(k) Plan without regard to certain Internal Revenue Code limits on eligible compensation and contribution amounts (ii) the Executive Medical Program, an annual comprehensive medical examination for our officers, staff scientists and certain other senior scientists, and (iii) home security services, as certain of our executive officers have in the past received, and our CEO currently receives, such security services. We do not currently provide change of control or employment agreements for our NEOs.

We work with consultants to limit our program costs, and use competitive bidding for certain programs such as our employee medical plan. In some cases, we conduct focus groups and use employee surveys to determine whether we are allocating our benefit dollars in an economical manner.

Decision-Making

The Compensation Committee (i) reviews and approves our annual bonus pool and associated corporate goals, annual stock option grants and cash compensation for our NEOs; (ii) administers our equity incentive plans, bonus program and certain other corporate benefits programs; and (iii) elects executive officers of the Company.

Since our compensation programs apply to all employees, including executive officers, our CEO and the other NEOs are responsible for establishing the general parameters of each program, but the Compensation Committee approves those aspects of each program that apply to our NEOs. Within each program our NEOs do not participate in setting the specific reward levels that apply to their own positions.

The salary increase, bonus, and stock option award for each NEO is determined solely by the Compensation Committee after a review of the factors described above. The CEO recommends salary increases, bonus amounts and stock option grant amounts for other NEOs, and the Compensation Committee approves any increases, bonuses or option grants after reviewing the supporting market data and other Company and individual performance information. Senior human resources management, after consultation with an independent consultation specialist, recommends the CEO's salary increase, bonus amount and stock option amount, and the Compensation Committee approves any increases, bonus or option grant after reviewing the supporting market data and other company and CEO performance information.

With respect to Non-Equity Incentive Plan Awards, for fiscal year 2006, the Compensation Committee set specific corporate targets and goals in the following five categories (weighting of such indicated): (i) corporate/financial goals relating to achievement of certain financial measures, including growth in earnings per share (on a non-GAAP basis, subject to certain adjustments), pre-tax operating margin and risk management measures (weighted 31%), (ii) commercial goals relating to product sales, expenses and processes (weighted 24.5%), (iii) research and development goals relating to projects in our pipeline (weighted 24.5%), (iv) product manufacturing and regulatory, quality and compliance goals relating to product inventory levels, regulatory approvals and other manufacturing matters (weighted 15%) and (v) employee development goals relating to leadership succession (weighted 5%). The total size of the potential bonus pool is a specific percentage of net income (on a non-GAAP basis, subject to certain adjustments). This percentage is set based on benchmark data from pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies obtained from an independent survey source. An additional amount may be added to the bonus pool if we achieve earnings per share growth (on a non-GAAP basis, subject to certain adjustments) and operating revenue growth that is above the median of those same financial measures from a group of comparator companies in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries, some of which also act as the source of the benchmark data described above. The actual bonuses paid to the Named Executive Officers for fiscal year 2006 were based on the extent to which actual performance met, exceeded, or fell short of the corporate goals approved by the Compensation Committee. Generally, if we achieve performance metrics equal to 50% of our comparator group, Dr. Levinson, Dr. Hellmann, Mr. Ebersman, Dr. Scheller and Mr. Juelsgaard would receive bonuses equal to 107%, 78%, 71%, 71% and 71% of the greater of their respective base salaries or market median base salaries, and higher amounts may be paid if we exceed this performance target. However, the Compensation Committee retains the discretion to increase, reduce or eliminate the bonus that otherwise might be payable to any individual based on actual performance as compared to pre-established goals.

The options granted in 2006 to our Named Executive Officers were pursuant to the 2004 Equity Incentive Plan. Generally, stock options granted to employees have a maximum term of 10 years, and vest over a four year period from the date of grant: 25% vest at the end of one year, and 75% vest monthly in equal increments over the remaining three years. We may grant options with different vesting terms from time to time. When an employee over the age of 65 retires, the portion of the option that would have vested in the 12 month period following the retirement date, if the retiree had remained an employee, automatically becomes fully vested. The expiration date of the exercisable portion of the option remains the original expiration date at the time the option was granted. Unless an employee's termination of service is due to retirement, disability or death, upon termination of service, any unexercised vested options will be forfeited at the end of three months or the expiration of the option, whichever is earlier.

Company contributions to the Supplemental Plan for Named Executive Officers are also included in the Summary Compensation Table as All Other Compensation.

(2) Each participant's Supplemental Plan account earned interest at the current 10-year Treasury bill rate.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE MATTERS

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving the Company's compensation and benefits plans, programs and policies and determining the compensation of our executive officers, including that of Dr. Levinson, our Chairman and CEO. The Compensation Committee is comprised of all the directors except Dr. Levinson. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain a compensation consultant to assist the Compensation Committee in the evaluation of the compensation of the Company's CEO or other executive officers. The Compensation Committee has the sole authority to retain or terminate any arrangements, and to approve the fees and other terms with respect to such a compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee also has the authority as necessary and appropriate, to consult with other outside advisors to assist in its duties to the Company. The Compensation Committee uses two different consultants to help determine executive compensation. Mercer Human Resources Consulting provides benchmarking data which is used in assessing certain information of our comparator companies. This benchmarking data is used in determining the amount of base salaries only and does not apply to bonuses or stock option awards. Frederick W. Cook & Co., Inc. provides data relating to our overall pool of stock options which allows us to assess whether the percentage of our overall pool awarded to executive officers is set at a competitive level, and in turn helps us determine the appropriate grant size for our executive officers. We do not use compensation consultants to assist us with director compensation. Please see Compensation Discussion and Analysis beginning on page 22 for further information concerning our compensation programs. The Compensation Committee operates under a formal written charter available on the Company's website at www.gene.com. The charter is available in print to any stockholder who requests it by contacting our Investor Relations department at Genentech, Inc., 1 DNA Way, South San Francisco, California 94080-4990 or by telephone at (650) 225-4150.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Dr. Boyer, a co-founder of the Company, was a Vice President of Genentech from 1976 to 1991.

Mr. Burns was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Pharmaceuticals Division of The Roche Group in 2005 and from 2001 to 2004 was Head of such division. He is a member of the Corporate Executive Committee of The Roche Group.

Dr. Hunziker joined The Roche Group as Chief Financial Officer in 2001. He is a member of the Corporate Executive Committee of The Roche Group.

Dr. Knowles joined The Roche Group in 1997 as Head of Global Research. He is a member of the Corporate Executive Committee of The Roche Group.

Pursuant to the terms of the affiliation agreement, Mr. Burns and Drs. Hunziker and Knowles are serving on our Compensation Committee as designees of Roche. See Relationship with Roche above and Certain Relationships and Related Person Transactions below for a description of our relationship with Roche.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

See Relationship with Roche beginning on Page 4 for a discussion of certain of our agreements with Roche and Hoffman-La Roche.

Related Person Transactions in 2006

In 2006, under all our agreements and arrangements with Roche, contract revenue from Hoffmann-La Roche and its affiliates, including amounts earned related to ongoing development activities after option exercise dates, totaled $125 million. All other revenues from Roche, Hoffmann-La Roche and their affiliates, principally royalties and product sales, totaled $1,205 million in 2006. Cost of sales included amounts related to Hoffmann-La Roche of $268 million in 2006. R&D expenses in 2006 include amounts of $213 million related to our R&D collaboration with Roche.

In July 2006, we signed two new product supply agreements with Hoffmann-La Roche (and certain of its affiliates), which supplement and supersede existing product supply agreements with Hoffmann-La Roche (and certain of its affiliates). Under a short-term supply agreement, Hoffmann-La Roche has agreed to purchase specified minimum amounts of Herceptin, and specified maximum amounts of Avastin and Rituxan through 2008. Under a longer-term umbrella supply agreement, Hoffmann-La Roche has agreed to purchase specified minimum amounts of Herceptin and Avastin from 2009 through 2012 and, on a perpetual basis, either party may order other collaboration products from the other party, including Herceptin and Avastin after 2012, pursuant to certain forecast terms. The longer-term umbrella supply agreement also provides that either party may terminate its obligation to purchase and/or supply Avastin and/or Herceptin with six years notice on or after December 31, 2007.

In 2001, we made a loan of $150,000 to Dr. Richard Scheller as mortgage assistance. This loan was due and payable on the earliest of the fifth anniversary of the date of the loan, the date of termination of Dr. Scheller's employment with Genentech or sale of his residence; provided, however, that the principal amount of the loan would be forgiven in five equal installments of $30,000 on each anniversary date of the loan if Dr. Scheller is employed by Genentech on such dates. The largest principal amount outstanding under this loan during 2006 was $30,000. The loan had no outstanding balance as of December 31, 2006. The loan was interest-free to Dr. Scheller, but interest was required to be imputed under the Internal Revenue Code. Imputed interest in the amount of $881 was calculated based on the applicable federal rate of 4.93% and, together with the forgiven principal amount of $30,000 on the fifth anniversary of the loan, reported as taxable compensation to Dr. Scheller. Additional taxable compensation attributable to the imputed interest and the forgiven principal amount was grossed up for related taxes resulting in a tax payment by Genentech of $743 and $16,693, respectively, on behalf of Dr. Scheller. For purposes of the discussion above, applicable federal rate refers to the minimum interest rate required to be charged on a loan to avoid the imputation of interest income under the Internal Revenue Code, unless an exception applies.

In early 2004, we made a loan of $1,000,000 to Dr. Patrick Yang (at such time Dr. Yang was not an executive officer) for the purchase of a home in connection with Dr. Yang's relocation to the San Francisco Bay Area. The loan was due and payable on the earlier of five years from the date of the loan, the date of termination of Dr. Yang's employment with Genentech, the sale of his home or the occurrence of any other event specified in the promissory note representing the loan. The loan accrued interest at the applicable federal rate of 3.31%, compounded semi-annually, subject to adjustment as specified in the promissory note. The largest amount outstanding under the loan during 2006 was $1,000,000. In 2006, $67,862 in accrued and unpaid interest was forgiven by Genentech. This loan was repaid in early 2006 and had no outstanding balance as of December 31, 2006.

The spouse of Dr. Patrick Yang is employed at Genentech in a non-officer position and in a group outside of Product Operations, the group headed by Dr. Yang. Her salary and bonus in 2006 totaled approximately $134,000, and are commensurate with the compensation of other Genentech employees in similar positions.
