Apache Corporation (Apache) announced that Mr. G. Steven Farris, chairman and chief executive officer, formed an office of the chief executive with three key executives reporting to him. Messrs. Mr. Plank will serve as president, Mr. Crum will serve as co-chief operating officer and president North America, and Mr. Eichler will serve as co-chief operating officer and president International. Although Messrs. Plank, Crum and Eichler have separate functional responsibilities, they will have joint and equal roles in the daily decision-making and direction of Apache. Mr. Farris will continue to serve as chairman and chief executive officer of Apache and has resigned from his positions of president and chief operating officer of Apache effective February 12, 2009.

Mr. Plank, 52, previously served as executive vice president and chief financial officer of Apache since May 2000 and as vice president and chief financial officer from July 1997 until May 2000. In his new role as president, he will continue to serve as Apache s principal financial officer. Having joined Apache in 1981, Mr. Plank previously served as vice president planning and corporate development, vice president corporate planning, vice president external affairs, and vice president corporate communications. Mr. Plank is a past president of Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO), a large independent trade association. He is a trustee of Ucross Foundation, a Wyoming non-profit corporation, and a director of Parker Drilling Company, Houston, Texas, and chairman of its audit committee. The retired chairman of Apache s board of directors, Raymond Plank, is his father.

Mr. Crum, 56, previously served as executive vice president of Apache since May 2000 and as president of Apache Canada Ltd since June 2007. Mr. Crum served as Apache s executive vice president Apache North Sea from April 2003 to June 2006, executive vice president Eurasia and New Ventures from May 2000 to March 2003, and regional vice president in Australia from 1995 to 2000. Prior to that, Mr. Eichler was regional vice president for the Western region in Houston since 1996, and regional exploration and development manager for the Rocky Mountain region in Denver since 1993. Prior to joining Apache, he was vice president-exploration for Axem Resources, LLC in Denver, Colorado, since 1989. Mr. Eichler is president and a director of Springboard Educating the Future, a Texas non-profit corporation that builds schools for girls in Egypt.

On February 12, 2009, the annual salary of each of Messrs. Plank, Crum and Eichler was increased to $625,000 from $575,000, $420,000 and $390,000, respectively. Also, in order to retain their services and provide incentive for their future contributions to Apache, on February 12, 2009, each of Messrs. Plank, Crum and Eichler was awarded 62,500 restricted stock units pursuant to Apache's 2007 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan. 12,500 of such restricted stock units will vest on each of April 1, 2010, February 12, 2011, February 12, 2012, February 11, 2013 and February 11, 2014. Upon vesting, Apache will issue one share of Apache's common stock as settlement for each restricted stock unit. 7,500 of the shares vesting each year for each recipient will be subject to the restriction that none of such 7,500 shares will be eligible for sale by the recipient until such time as he retires or otherwise terminates employment with Apache. A form of the restricted stock unit agreement is included as an exhibit to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

The information set forth under the caption "Certain Business Relationships and Transactions" in Apache's Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on March 31, 2008 is incorporated herein by reference with the following updates.
