ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code sets forth conditions and limitations governing the indemnification of officers, directors, and other persons.

Section 6.1 of Article 6 of the Amended and Restated Code of Regulations of the Company contains certain indemnification provisions adopted pursuant to authority contained in Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code. The Company's Code of Regulations provides for the indemnification of its officers, directors, employees, and agents, or persons who are serving or have served at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise (the indemnified persons ). Indemnification is provided when an indemnified person is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that such indemnified person was serving as an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. The Company is required to indemnify indemnified persons against expenses, including legal fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by the indemnified person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding; provided that it is determined, either by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors of the Company or by the shareholders of the Company or otherwise as provided in Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code, that: (a) the indemnified person acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company; (b) in any action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of the Company, they were not, and have not been adjudicated to have been, negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of their duties to the Company; (c) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that they had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful. Section 6.3 of Article 6 provides that expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in defending any action, suit, or proceeding, may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by the indemnified person to repay such amount in the event that indemnification shall be deemed improper.

The Company has entered into Indemnification Agreements with each of its directors. These contracts generally: (i) confirm the existing indemnity provided to them under the Company's Code of Regulations and assure that this indemnity will continue to be provided; and (ii) provide that, in addition, the directors shall be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law against all expenses (including legal fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by them in any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of the Company, on account of their service as a director or officer of the Company or at the request or with the consent of the Company as a trustee, director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation or enterprise. Coverage under the contracts is excluded: (A) to the extent the director is indemnified under directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company; (B) on account of conduct which is finally adjudged to be knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest, or willful misconduct; (C) if a final court of adjudication shall determine that such indemnification is not lawful; or (D) on account of any suit in which judgment is rendered against the director for an accounting of profits made from the purchase or sale by the director of securities of the Company pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any similar provision. The Indemnification Agreements are applicable to claims asserted after their effective date, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after their effective date.

The Company has purchased a liability policy to indemnify its officers and directors against loss arising from claims by reason of their legal liability for acts as officers and directors, subject to limitations and conditions set forth in the policy.

- C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 6 of this Part II, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
